City Codes Reading The Modern Urban Novel:

City Codes Hana Wirth-Nesher, 1996      City Codes Hana Wirth-Nesher, 1996-01-26 City Codes is a study of the representation of the city in the modern novel that takes difference as its point of departure so that cities are read according to the cultural and social position of the urbanite. These urban narratives are analysed in the context of a cultural repertoire of city codes from the architectural features of window and street to the social and historical signs of the landmark and the passer by with the emphasis on the subject's construction of his or her place as shaped by history, politics, nationality, gender, class and race. The study moves from boundaries inscribed onto the cityscape to distances experienced by the city dwellers; its real and textual cities are Warsaw, Jerusalem, New York, Chicago, Paris, London and Dublin. The novels discussed are by Isaac Bashevis Singer, Amos Oz, Theodore Dreiser, Ralph Ellison, Henry James, Henry Roth, James Joyce and Virginia Woolf.

The Literary Life of Cairo Samia Mehrez, 2011-01-01 Readings from literary works that re-construct a century of Cairo's changing social life. Unlike The Literary Atlas of Cairo which focuses on the literary geopolitics of the cityscape, this companion volume immerses the reader in the complex network of socioeconomic and cultural lives in the city. The seven chapters first introduce the reader to representations of some of Cairo's prominent profiles, both political and cultural, and their impact on the city's literary geography, before presenting a spectrum of readings of the city by its multiethnic, multinational and multilingual writers across class, gender and generation. Daunting images of colonial school experiences and startling contrasts of postcolonial educational realities are revealed while Cairo's moments of political participation and oppression are illustrated as well as the space accorded to women within the city across history and class. The city's marginals are placed on its literary map alongside representations of the relationship between writing and drugs and the places, paraphernalia and products of the drug world across class and time. Together The Literary Atlas of Cairo and The Literary Life of Cairo produce a literary geography of Cairo that goes beyond the representation of space in literature to reconstruct the complex network of human relationships in that space.

Race and Popular Fantasy Literature Helen Young, 2015-08-11 This book illuminates the racialized nature of twenty-first century Western popular culture by exploring how discourses of race circulate in the Fantasy genre. It examines not only major texts in the genre but also the impact of franchises, industry, editorial and authorial practices and fan engagements on race and representation. Approaching Fantasy as a significant element of popular culture, it visits the struggles over race, racism and white privilege that are enacted within creative works across media and the communities which revolve around them. While scholars of Science Fiction have explored the genre's racialized constructs of possible futures, this book is the first examination of Fantasy to take up the topic of race in depth. The book's interdisciplinary approach, drawing on Literary, Cultural, Fan and Whiteness Studies, offers a cultural history of the anxieties which haunt Western popular culture in a century eager to declare itself post-race. The beginnings of the Fantasy genre's habits of whiteness in the twentieth century are examined with an exploration of the continuing impact of older problematic works through franchising adaptation and imitation Young also discusses the major twenty first century sub genres which both re use and subvert Fantasy conventions The final chapter explores debates and anti racist praxis in authorial and fan communities With its multi pronged approach and innovative methodology this book is an important and original contribution to studies of race Fantasy and twenty first century popular culture      Urban

Mediasphere Shanghai Alexander Des Forges,2007-07-31 For many in the west Shanghai is the quintessence of East Asian modernity whether imagined as glamorous and exciting corrupt and impoverishing or a complex synthesis of the good the bad and the ugly How did Shanghai acquire this power How did people across China and around the world decide that Shanghai was the place to be Mediasphere Shanghai shows that partial answers to these questions can be found in the products of Shanghai s media industry particularly the Shanghai novel a distinctive genre of installment fiction that flourished from the 1890s to the 1930s Shanghai fiction supplies not only the imagery that we now consider typical of the city but more significantly the very forms simultaneity interruption mediation and excess through which the city could be experienced as a business and entertainment center and envisioned as the focal point of a mediasphere with a national and transnational reach Existing paradigms of Shanghai culture tend to explain the city s distinctive literary and visual aesthetics as merely the predictable result of economic conditions and social processes but Alexander Des Forges maintains that literary texts and other cultural products themselves constitute a conceptual foundation for the city and construct the frame through which it is perceived Working from a wide range of sources including installment fiction photographs lithographic illustrations maps guidebooks newspapers and film Des Forges demonstrates the significant social effects of aesthetic forms and practices Mediasphere Shanghai offers a new perspective on the cultural history of the city and on the literature and culture of modern China in general      Identity Politics on the Israeli Screen Yosefa Loshitzky,2010-01-01 2002 A Choice

Outstanding Academic Book The struggle to forge a collective national identity at the expense of competing plural identities has preoccupied Israeli society since the founding of the state of Israel In this book Yosefa Loshitzky explores how major Israeli films of the 1980s and 1990s have contributed significantly to the process of identity formation by reflecting projecting and constructing debates around Israeli national identity Loshitzky focuses on three major foundational sites of the struggle over Israeli identity the Holocaust the question of the Orient and the so called in an ironic historical twist of the Jewish question Palestinian question The films she discusses raise fundamental questions about the identity of Jewish Holocaust survivors and their children the second generation Jewish immigrants from Muslim countries or Mizrahim particularly the second generation of Israeli Mizrahim and Palestinians Recognizing that victimhood marks all the identities represented in the films under discussion Loshitzky does not treat each identity group as a separate and coherent entity but rather attempts to see the conflation interplay and conflict among them      The Place It Was Done Šárka Bubíková,Olga

Roebuck,2023-03-03 Locations play an important role in every story but in British and American contemporary crime fiction they are often inextricable from the narrative This work examines the city the countryside and the wilderness as places ripe with literary significance and symbolism Using works by authors like Robert Galbraith Ian Rankin Denise Mina Chris Brookmyre John Knox Peter Robinson Linda Barnes Dana Stabenow Nevada Barr Les Roberts Philip R Craig and others this work offers a fresh assessment of how place and space are employed in contemporary crime fiction Highlighted are similarities and differences among the authors approaches to setting and how they relate to the history of crime fiction and to the general literary representation of place Going beyond mere literary geography the book engages the sociocultural dimensions of the communities affected by crime Chapters also analyze the reader s perception recognition and appreciation of place and community

Facing the East in the West Barbara Korte,Eva Ulrike Pirker,Sissy Helff,2010 Over the last decade migration flows from Central and Eastern Europe have become an issue in political debates about human rights social integration multiculturalism and citizenship in Great Britain The increasing number of Eastern Europeans living in Britain has provoked ambivalent and diverse responses including representations in film and literature that range from travel writing humorous fiction mockumentaries musicals drama and children s literature to the thriller The present volume discusses a wide range of representations of Eastern and Central Europe and its people as reflected in British literature film and culture The book offers new readings of authors who have influenced the cultural imagination since the nineteenth century such as Bram Stoker George Bernard Shaw Joseph Conrad and Arthur Koestler It also discusses the work of more contemporary writers and film directors including Sacha Baron Cohen David Cronenberg Vesna Goldsworthy Kapka Kassabova Marina Lewycka Ken Loach Mike Phillips Joanne K Rowling and Rose Tremain With its focus on post Wall Europe Facing the East in the West goes beyond discussions of migration to Britain from an established postcolonial perspective and contributes to the current exploration of new European identities

Literature and the Peripheral City Jason Finch,Markku Salmela,2015-05-27 Cities have always been defined by their centrality But literature demonstrates that their diverse peripheries define them too from suburbs to slums rubbish dumps to nightclubs and entire failed cities The contributors to this collection explore literary urban peripheries through readings of literature from four continents and numerous cities

Performing Memories Gabriele Biotti,2021-04-26 What is memory today How can it be approached Why does the contemporary world seem to be more and more haunted by different types of memories still asking for elaboration Which artistic experiences have explored and defined memory in meaningful ways How do technologies and the media have changed it These are just some of the questions developed in this collection of essays analysing memory and memory shapes which explores the different ways in which past time and its elaboration have been and still are elaborated discussed written or filmed and contested but also shared By gathering together scholars from different fields of investigation this book explores the cultural social and artistic tensions in representing the past and the present in understanding our legacies and in approaching historical time and experience Through the analysis of different representations of memory and the investigation of literature anthropology myth and storytelling a space of theories and discourses about the symbolic and cultural spaces of memory representation is developed The New Jewish American Literary Studies Victoria Aarons, 2019-04-18 Introduces readers to the new perspectives approaches and interpretive possibilities in Jewish American literature that emerged in the twenty first Century Literatures of Memory Peter Middleton, Tim Woods, 2000 Not only do drama and poetry about the past and historical novels reveal a shared understanding of pivotal moments historical figures and every life of earlier times say Middleton English U of Southampton and Woods English U of Wales Aberystwyth they also outline more general beliefs about the past and its relation to the present It is
