For "children who Vary from the Normal Type" Robert L. Osgood,2000 For Children Who Vary from the Normal Type identifies four main rationales for these programs the need to isolate children whose behavior or background elicited fear and or contempt among school and civic authorities the need to ensure efficiency in the administration of the schools the need to facilitate the operation of individual classrooms and the desire to provide a specialized pedagogy to individual children identified as requiring one Each program is examined in depth including the overlap interplay and friction within the dynamic matrix of needs fears hopes and opportunities that spurred its creation Jacket
