Turner, 2000 The two alphabetically arranged volumes cover all of the major artistic developments in Italy from c 1300 to c 1600 a period that marks the Renaissance of the humanistic spirit of classical antiquity All three periods of the Renaissance are covered early high and late Emotions and Architecture Francesca Lembo Fazio, Valentina Tomassetti, 2023-12-19 Emotions and Architecture Forging Mediterranean Cities Between the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time explores architecture as a medium to arouse or conceal emotions to build consensus through shared values or to reconnect the urban community to its alleged ancestry The chapters in this edited collection outline how architectonic symbols images and structures were codified and sometimes recast to match or to arouse emotions awakened by wars political dominance pandemic challenges and religion As signs of spiritual and political power these elements were embraced and modulated locally providing an endorsement to authorities and rituals for the community This volume provides an overview of the phenomenon across the Italian region stressing the transnationality of selected symbols and their various declinations in local contexts It deepens the issue of refitting symbols artworks and structures to arouse emotions by carefully analysing specific cases such as the Septizodium in Rome the Holy House of Loreto in Venice and the reconstruction of L Aquila The collection through its variegated contributions offers a comprehensive view of the phenomenon exploring the issue from political social religious and public health perspectives and seeking to propose a new definition of architecture as a visual emotional language Together the chapters show how the representation of virtues and emotions through architecture was part of a symbolic practice shared by many across the Italian context This book will be of interest to researchers and students studying architectural history the history of emotions and the history of art Polidoro da Caravaggio David

Franklin, 2018-05-08 Polidoro da Caravaggio c 1500 1543 one of Raphael s most influential and distinctive followers has not been well treated by time His significant early frescoes which graced exterior palace facades in Rome have perished almost without exception A rare few are preserved but most are known only in copies Consequently the originality of Polidoro s public work has been little explored despite his once famous reputation and the association of his name with Raphael and

Michelangelo His move to Sicily later in life a region with few surviving primary sources further complicates the study of his work Extant pieces by the artist from this period are unusually severe in content and technique and their attribution has often been controversial In this first account in English Polidoro's radical Sicilian paintings are considered through the lens of the religious life of the era and in relation to his early secular work This much needed investigation establishes Polidoro's proper place in the canon of art history

Rewriting the Renaissance Margaret W. Ferguson, Maureen Quilligan, Nancy Vickers, 1986-09-15 Juxtaposing the insights of feminism with those of marxism psychoanalysis and deconstruction this unique collection creates new common ground for women's studies and Renaissance studies An outstanding array of scholars literary critics art critics and historians reexamines the role of women and their relations with men during the Renaissance In the process the contributors enrich the emerging languages of and about women gender and sexual difference Throughout the essays focus on the structures of Renaissance patriarchy that organized power relations both in the state and in the family They explore the major consequences of patriarchy for women their marginalization and lack of identity and power and the ways in which individual women or groups of women broke or in some cases deliberately circumvented the rules that defined them as a secondary sex Topics covered include representations of women in literature and art the actual work done by women both inside and outside of the home and the writings of women themselves In analyzing the rhetorical strategies that marginalized historical and fictional women these essays counter scholarly and critical traditions that continue to exhibit patriarchal biases

The Politics of Water in the Art and Festivals of Medici Florence Felicia M. Else, 2018-07-27 This book tells the story of one dynasty's struggle with water to control its flow and manage its representation The role of water in the art and festivals of Cosimo I and his heirs Francesco I and Ferdinando I de Medici informs this richly illustrated interdisciplinary study Else draws on a wealth of visual and documentary material to trace how the Medici sought to harness the power of Neptune whether in the application of his imagery or in the control over waterways and maritime frontiers as they negotiated a place in the unstable political arena of Europe and competed with foreign powers more versed in maritime traditions and aquatic imagery
