Duncan,2023 Situated at the intersection of race and civics this volume discusses how communities of color interpret and enact civics both within and beyond the classroom Chapters focus on historical and contemporary topics ranging from issues facing Asian immigrant communities to the Black Lives Matter at School curriculum Civic Engagement in Communities of Color will help classroom teachers teacher candidates and teacher educators identify where white washed civics curricula fail students of color and begin to understand how marginalized communities conceive and enact civics without the deficit lens It will also help education researchers understand the various frameworks that communities of color use to approach civics and civic education Chapter authors include established and emerging civic education scholars including Leilani Sabzalian ArCasia James Gallaway Jes s Tirado and Brittany Jones Book Features Reimagines civics teaching and learning in communities of color expanding current frameworks for what civic education is and can be Disrupts the idea that civics is a singular notion that should only be viewed through one specific lens Provides specific examples showing how racially marginalized people have created their own civic spaces Includes chapters on Black Indigenous Arab Immigrant South Asian American and Southeast Asian American communities Contributors Annaly Babb Guerra Carla Ann Brown Aviv Cohen Tommy Ender Sabryna Groves ArCasia James Gallaway Denisha Jones Erica Kelly Sarah Mathews Timothy Monreal Aline Muff Natasha C Murray Everett Tiffany Mitchell Patterson Ritu Rakrishnan Leilani Sabzalian Crystal Simmons Jes s Tirado Van Anh Tran Shianne Walker Elizabeth Yeager Washington Rasheeda West Asif Wilson Local Civics with National Purpose J. Spencer Clark,2021-02-03 This book examines the development of civic education in the United States through the lives of two teachers at Shortridge High School SHS in Indianapolis around 1900

After situating civic education at the turn of the century the book describes the career of Laura Donnan her influences teaching extracurriculars and civic life through the lens of her unique epistemology shaped by negotiating the gendered ideologies of her era Then the book re examines Arthur W Dunn s career focusing on his ten years at SHS and the influence of Donnan on his popular community civics curriculum and subsequently the 1916 report The Social Studies in Secondary Education Previous scholars have overlooked Dunn s time at SHS viewing it simply as a stepping stone for the progressive educator s career This book argues that Dunn s time at SHS was pivotal to his career due to influential colleagues primarily Donnan To conclude Clark discusses the implications of Donnan s epistemology in shaping civic education in the United States Research in Education ,1974 Encyclopedia of Diversity in Education James A. Banks,2012-05-24 Presents research and statistics case studies and best practices policies and programs at pre and post secondary levels Prepub price 535 00 valid to 21 07 12 then 595 00 Promoting Civic Engagement Through Art Education Flávia Bastos,Doug Blandy,2024-10-25 This textbook equips students and educators committed to understanding how art and creative practice work as powerful communicative tools and have a substantial role in advancing civic participation Alongside promoting educational practices with learners civic engagement in mind this book is a call to action inviting creative educators to explore the potential of art for developing critical perspectives articulating voices and diverse points of view and engaging in dialogue across difference Chapters assist students and educators in understanding critical concepts ranging from the protections afforded art under the constitution to the role of civic institutions such as museums community arts centers and schools in advancing civic participation They also present the relationship between art education and civic engagement using watershed political moments such as voter suppression initiatives xenophobic reactions to the COVID 19 pandemic and widespread national Black Lives Matter protests Readers are guided throughout with a series of key questions at the onset of each chapter and encouraged to investigate further the issues discussed through exploration of the many resources embedded in each chapter Coursework and participatory learning experiences that orient future and current art educators to the relationship of the arts and culture to democracy are also featured This book will be ideal for students in art education in both upper division undergraduate and graduate levels with cross curricular appeal for students of political science social studies sociology public history public anthropology heritage studies and public humanities As well as this it will be a must read for educators who are asked to respond to challenges within the political sphere and how these political challenges are influencing educational environments Data Book of Social Studies Materials and Resources ,1985 Culture Wars in American Education Michael R. Olneck,2024-06-03 Culture Wars in American Education Past and Present Struggles Over the Symbolic Order radically questions norms and values held within US Education and analyses why and how culture wars in American education are intense consequential and recurrent Applying the concept of symbolic order this volume elaborates ways in which symbolic representations are used to draw boundaries allocate status and legitimate the exercise of authority and power within American schooling In particular the book illustrates the terms of inclusion by which full membership in the national community is defined limited and contested It suggests that repetitive patterns in the symbolic order for example the persistence of the representation of an individualistic basis of American society and polity constrain the reach of progressive change The book examines the World War I era Americanization movement the World War II era Intercultural Education movement the late twentieth century Multicultural Education movement continuing right wing assaults on Ethnic Studies and Critical Race Theory in the first decades of the twenty first century and historical and contemporary conflicts over the incorporation of languages other than Standard English into approved instructional approaches In the context of continuing culture wars in the United States and across the globe this book will be of interest to graduate students and scholars in critical studies of education history of education sociology of education curriculum theory Multicultural Education and comparative education as well as to educators enmeshed in contemporary tensions and conflicts

Catalog of Federal Education Assistance Programs ,1972 The Oxford Handbook of Citizenship Ayelet Shachar,Rainer Bauböck,Irene Bloemraad,Maarten Peter Vink,2017 This Handbook sets a new agenda for theoretical and practical explorations of citizenship analysing the main challenges and prospects informing today s world of increased migration and globalization It will also explore new forms of membership and democratic participation beyond borders and the rise of European and multilevel citizenship Making Civics Count David E. Campbell,Meira Levinson,Frederick M. Hess,2012-10-01 By nearly every measure Americans are less engaged in their communities and political activity than generations past So write the editors of this volume who survey the current practices and history of citizenship education in the United States They argue that the current period of creative destruction when schools are closing and opening in response to reform mandates is an ideal time to take an in depth look at how successful strategies and programs promote civic education and good citizenship Making Civics Count offers research based insights into what diverse students and teachers know and do as civic actors and proposes a blueprint for civic education for a new generation that is both practical and visionary Citizenship Education and Global Migration James A. Banks,2017-06-23 This groundbreaking book describes theory research and practice that can be used in civic education courses and programs to help students from marginalized and minoritized groups in nations around the world attain a sense of structural integration and political efficacy within their nation states develop civic participation skills and reflective cultural national and global identities EI-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005 ,2005 Civic Participation in America Q. Kidd,2016-04-30 This book argues that the declining nature of traditional forms of civic participation over the last half century are the result of the evolution of larger institutional social and historical forces that have favored the self interest motivation at the expense of civic duty

Teaching History, Learning Citizenship Jeffery D. Nokes,2019 Learn how to design history lessons that foster students knowledge skills and dispositions for civic engagement Each section of this practical resource introduces a key element of civic engagement such as defending the rights of others advocating for change taking action when problems are observed compromising to promote reform and working with others to achieve common goals Primary and secondary sources are provided for lessons on diverse topics such as the Alice Paul and the Silent Sentinels Samuel Gompers and the American Federation of Labor Harriet Tubman Reagan and Gorbachev s unlikely friendship and Lincoln s plan for Reconstructing the Union With Teaching History Learning Citizenship teachers can show students how to apply historical thinking skills to real world problems and to act on civic dispositions to make positive changes in their communities Teachers will appreciate the adaptability of the unscripted lessons in this book Each lesson provides background historical context for the teacher and the resources to expose students to themes of civic engagement that cut across historical time periods and current events With the case studies ideas and sources in this book teachers can instill students with the dispositions of democratic citizens From the Foreword by Laura Wakefield interim executive director National Council for History Education Globalization, the Nation-State and the Citizen Alan Reid, Judith Gill, Alan Sears, 2013-03-01 The past decade has seen an explosion of interest in civics and citizenship education There have been unprecedented developments in citizenship education taking place in schools adult education centers or in the less formally structured spaces of media images and commentary around the world This book provides an overview of the development of civics and citizenship education policy across a range of nation states The contributors all widely respected scholars in the field of civics and citizenship education provide a thorough understanding of the different ways in which citizenship has been taken up by educators governments and the wider public Citizenship is never a single given unproblematic concept but rather its meanings have to be worked through and developed in terms of the particularities of socio political location and history This volume promotes a wider and more grounded understanding of the ways in which citizenship education is enacted across different nation states in order to develop education for active and participatory citizenry in both local and global contexts The School Journal ,1899
