Often the purpose of these locations was a closely guarded secret even from those living close by. In Secret Wartime Britain Colin Philpott has compiled a fascinating collection of sites that still exist in some form today. They include underground factories, storage sites and headquarters, spy and communication centers, interrogation and POW camps, dummy sites, research facilities such as the sinister Porton Down, treasure stores in stately homes and even royal retreats in the event of invasion such as Madresfield Court. Where were these sites and why were they needed? How successfully were they kept secret? What has happened to them since? Were they returned to their owners?
