Five Centuries of Civil Procedure: The Polish Experience in a European Context (16th to 21st Centuries) ,2025-09-22 The first codification of Polish court proceedings was made in 1523 Half a millennium later the jurists in this volume have carefully analyzed the transformation of Polish civil procedure from then to the present day against the historical background of the development of modern European legal orders and institutions This study is the result of the work of a research group established at the Jagiellonian University in Krak w consisting of historical and modern jurists and scholars of civil procedure and private law Contributors are Grzegorz J Blicharz Andrzej Dziadzio Rados aw Flejszar Krzysztof Fokt Kacper G rski Jan Halberda Vincent R Johnson Izabela Lewandowska Malec Martin L hing Franciszek Longchamps de B rier Dorota Malec Maciej Miku a Andrzej Ola Grzegorz Smyk Kamila Staudigl Ciechowicz and Abdoul Yatera Discrimination at Work Marie Mercat-Bruns,2016-02-22 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s new open access publishing program for monographs Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Do the United States and France both post industrial democracies differ in their views and laws concerning discrimination Marie Mercat Bruns a Franco American scholar examines the differences in how the two countries approach discrimination Bringing together prominent legal scholars including Robert Post Linda Krieger Martha Minow Reva Siegel Susan Sturm Richard Ford and others Mercat Bruns demonstrates how the two nations have adopted divergent strategies The United States continues with mixed success at colorblind policies to deal with issues of diversity in university enrollment class action sex discrimination lawsuits and rampant police violence against African American men and women In France the country has banned the full face veil while making efforts to present itself as a secular republic Young men and women whose parents and grandparents came from sub Sahara and North Africa are stuck coping with a society that fails to take into account the barriers to employment and education they face Discrimination at Work provides an incisive comparative analysis of how the nature of discrimination in both countries has changed now often hidden or steeped in deep unconscious bias While it is rare for employers in both countries to openly discriminate deep systemic discrimination exists rooted in structural and environmental causes and the ways each state has dealt with difference in general Invigorating and incisive the book examines hot button issues such as sexual harassment race religious and gender discrimination and equality for

LGBT individuals thereby delivering comparisons meant to further social equality and fundamental human rights across borders Rome Convention - Rome I Regulation Alexander J. Belohlávek, 2011-01-01 As of 17 December 2010 the Rome I Regulation EU Regulation 593/2008 on the law applicable to contractual obligations is directly applicable in all EU Member States with the exception of Denmark The Rome I Regulation replaces the Rome Convention of 1980 in the EU Member States and will apply to all contracts concluded as of 17 December 2010 However and herein lies the utility and great importance of this work the Rome Convention and the Rome I Regulation will be applied in parallel for a significant time to come the author himself anticipates a ten to fifteen year period in the latter case to contracts made after 17 December 2010 This is why this commentary takes into account both sources of law in their mutual interaction and broader context The comprehensiveness of the Rome Convention Rome I Regulation is clearly apparent but one of the great achievements of the author is his amassing of over 1 800 judicial decisions most of which are furnished with a detailed commentary where these decisions apply national laws the latter are cited both in the original and in translation For a number of rulings the commentary include not only a case summary of the facts and an analysis of the conclusions drawn by the court but also takes them as models to hypothesize what conclusions would be reached if the Rome I Regulation were to be applied
