Civilisation Religious Values:

Civilisation and Religious Values Henry Dewsbury Alves Major, 1948 Values - Politics - Religion: The European Values Study Regina Polak, Patrick Rohs, 2023-07-18 This open access book analyses the international data of the European Values Study EVS 1990 2017 with a focus on the impact of religious on political values from empirical as well as theoretical perspectives i.e. sociology political and cultural studies philosophy ethics theology and the law It interprets results from interdisciplinary perspectives including the viewpoints of social ethics sociology and cultural studies law and practical theology In the political and public as well as media debates of the European Union the recourse to above all European and also Christian values has played a central and controversial role in the field of politics and religion for several decades This collection is a contribution to a qualified discourse on values in Europe by providing empirical hermeneutical and ethical criteria for a responsible use of the concept of values In addition to a comparison of political value systems in Western and Eastern Europe and the possible role of religion in this context the book also deals with topics such as f.i. solidarity economics and values value formation and law and values Additionally specific population groups such as the socio culturally marginalized strata are examined more closely Besides current scientific analyses and interpretations of interest to researchers from various disciplines this book also offers valuable impulses and suggestions for various multipliers in political civil society and religious organisations as well as a sound overview for graduate students Religion and the Populist Radical Right: Secular Christianity and Populism in Western Europe Nicholas Morieson, 2021-07-06 In Western Europe populist radical right parties are calling for a return to Christian or Judeo Christian values and identity The growing electoral success of many of these parties may suggest that after decades of secularisation Western Europeans are returning to religion Yet these parties do not tell their supporters to go to church believe in God or practise traditional Christian values Instead they claim that their respective national identities and cultures are the product of a Christian or Judeo Christian tradition which either encompasses or has produced secular modernity This book poses the question if Western European politics is secular why has religious identity become a core element of populist radical right discourse To answer this question Morieson examines the discursive use of religion by two of the most powerful and influential populist radical right parties The French National Front and the Dutch Party for Freedom Based on this examination he argues that the populist radical right has capitalised on a cultural shift engendered by the increasing visibility of Islam in Europe Western Europeans encounter with Islam has revealed the non universal nature of Western European secularism to Europeans and demonstrated the secularisation of Christianity into Western European culture This in turn has allowed secular French and Dutch citizens to identify themselves as well as their nation and ultimately Western civilisation as Christian or Judeo Christian Seizing on this cultural shift the author contends that the National Front and Party for Freedom have built successful and similar brands of reactionary politics based on the notion that contemporary secularism is a product of Europe's Christian heritage and values and that therefore Muslim immigration is an existential threat to the core values of European politics including the differentiation of politics and religion and of church and state Religion and the Populist Radical Right Secular Christianity and Populism in Western Europe will be of interest to scholars and researchers working on the intersections of Political Science Sociology and Religion It will also appeal to the general audience interested in the relationship between populism in Western Europe and religious identity as it is written in an accessible style The Bibles of the Far Right Hannah M. Strømmen, 2024 The Bibles of the Far Right is about a far right worldview that has taken hold in contemporary Europe It focuses on the role Bibles have come to play in this worldview Starting with the case of far right terrorism in Norway in 2011 the study argues that particular perceptions of the Bible and particular uses of biblical texts have been significant in calls to protect Europe against Islam This study proposes new ways to understand political Bible use today in order to respond to violence inspired by biblical texts Contemporary Issues in Philosophy, Culture, and Value Bhaskar Bhattacharyya, 2024-01-15 This book presents an analysis of the contemporary issues of philosophy culture and value It provides insights from both Eastern and Western perspectives on these concepts showing that although there are divergent views on these aspects in those traditions there is ultimately commonality in their considerations of the aspects of harmony peace and unity which both traditions emphatically emphasise through cultural dialogue Another Big Bang: Evolution of Civilisation. Freedom All The Way Santanu Mitra, 2025-09-09 Even 12 000 years ago our ancestors were living in forests off hunting and gathering as livelihood options Now we are planning to settle on Mars How could this feat be achieved Santanu was always interested in this question In the search for an answer he has attempted to come up with a multi disciplinary unifying theory of evolution of human civilisation which says that our civilisation had been born and evolved due to the urge in hominin brains for individual freedom Diaspora Identities Susanne Lachenicht, Kirsten Heinsohn, 2009-10-05 Historical work on the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries suggests that as nation states were solidifying throughout Western Europe exiled groups tended to develop rival national identities an occurrence that had been fairly uncommon in the two preceding centuries Diaspora Identities draws on eight case studies ranging from the early modern period through the twentieth century to explore the interconnectedness of exile nationalism and cosmopolitanism as concepts ideals attitudes and strategies among diasporic groups Die hier versammelten Studien eröffnen neue Perspektiven auf Nationalismus und Kosmopolitismus Sie machen deutlich dass schon vor dem nationalen 19 Jahrhundert im Kontext von Diaspora Exil und Migration Identitäten und Verhaltensweisen entstanden die zugleich kosmopolitisch und nationalistisch waren Human Rights in Eastern Civilisations Surya P. Subedi, 2021-03-26 Based on the author's first hand experience as a UN Special Rapporteur this thought provoking and original book examines the values of Eastern civilisations and their contribution to the development of the UN Human Rights agenda Rejecting the argument based on Asian Values that is often used to undermine the universality of human rights the book argues that secularism personal liberty and universalism are at the heart of both Hindu and Buddhist traditions International Relations: The Key Concepts Steven C. Roach, Martin Griffiths, Terry O'Callaghan, 2014-02-03 To attempt such a difficult task requires ambition confidence and skill All three qualities are evident in this impressive reference book It deserves a prominent place in all International Relations libraries Dr Scott Burchill In Australian Journal of Political Science 43 4 747 766 Now in its third edition International Relations The Key Concepts remains an important resource for anyone interested in international politics Comprehensive and relevant it has been fully revised to reflect the most important themes and issues in international relations in the post 9 11 era Featuring new entries on The Arab Spring Responsibility to Protect Governmentality Postcolonialism Neoliberalism Global Financial Crisis With suggestions for further reading and a useful guide to websites International Relations The Key Concepts is an ideal aid for students and newcomers to the field of International Relations Civilisations in Conflict? J. Global Terrorism Brenda J. Lutz, Andrew T. H. Tan, Julian Droogan, 2025-06-26 This thoroughly revised and updated edition explores the evolution and persistence of terrorism by examining the core motivations religious ethnic and political driving violent extremist groups and individuals Global Terrorism Fifth Edition features a variety of comprehensive case studies and expanded coverage on The intersection between terrorism and insurgency Modern terrorism financing networks Emerging weapons and tactical innovations such as the use of drones and online extremism Right Wing Extremism RWE Updated case studies The Hamas Israel conflict in Gaza Counter terrorism strategies How terrorism ends By placing contemporary events within broader historical and geopolitical contexts the authors demonstrate that terrorism is not confined to any single region ideology or tactical approach The book s flexible structure allows instructors and readers to focus on specific aspects most relevant to their interests It will be an essential text for upperlevel undergraduate courses in political science international relations security studies peace and conflict studies and history and an invaluable resource for anyone seeking to understand the complexity of global terrorism and the challenges it presents to the entire world NATO, Civilisation and Individuals Sarah da Mota, 2018-03-06 This book critically engages with NATO s two main referent objects of security civilisation and individuals By rethinking the seemingly natural assumption of these two referent objects it suggests the epistemological importance of an unconscious dimension to understand meaning formation and behaviour change in international security The book provides a historicised and genealogical approach of the idea of civilisation that is at the core of the Alliance in which human needs narratives and security arrangements are interconnected It suggests that there is a Civilised Subject of Security at the core of modern Western security that has constantly produced civilised and secure subjects around the world which explains NATO s emergence around a civilisational referent The book then proceeds by considering the Individualisation of Security after the Cold War as another stage of the civilising process based on NATO s military operations in Bosnia Herzegovina Kosovo and Afghanistan Islamic Civilisation and The Modern World Osman Bakar, 2015-01-21 This book presents a thematic treatment of Islamic civilisation Each of the fourteen chapters comprising this book treats at least one of the major themes that are characteristic of this youngest religiously based civilisation of the world The author s thematic approach is primarily meant to promote a better appreciation of the living nature of Islamic civilisation The book s content provides ample evidence that Islamic civilisation is not merely a passing historical phenomenon The various themes it discusses clearly demonstrate the continuing relevance of Islamic civilisation to the present and future humanity

Fundamentalism in America Philip Melling,2013-12-02 This important book challenges the idea that religious fundamentalism can adequately be understood as a paranoid xenophobic faith It demonstrates instead how it draws upon a long tradition of evangelical and millenialist scripture in its engagement with issues at the spiritual and ethical core of postmodernity in the United States The author examines the varieties of fundamentalism as they appear in prophecy sermon film and fiction In its wide ranging consideration of the rhetoric of the New World Order the literature of prophecy Cold War films television evangelism cross border texts and post nationalist writing Fundamentalism in America provides a vital and compelling account of the present state of religious and nationality identity in the United States
