Civilisation Utopia And Tragedy:

Eurocentrism at the Margins Lutfi Sunar, 2016-05-05 Eurocentrism remains a prevailing feature of Western dominated social scientific perspectives tending to ignore alternative views originating outside the West and thus maintaining a form of scholarly hegemony As such there is an urgent need to reconsider Eurocentrism in social science to ask whether it constitutes an obstacle to understanding social problems and whether it is possible to go beyond Eurocentrism in the construction of reliable more universal knowledge At the same time certain questions persist particularly with regard to the extent to which recent revisionist challenges have really contributed to the surmounting of Eurocentric domination and whether the constant repetition of the concept serves to reinforce it This book engages with the central problems of Eurocentrism in the social sciences bringing together the work of scholars from around the world to offer a critique of this perspective from both European and non European positions thus shedding light on the binaries that often come into being in debates in this field Thematically organised and addressing a range of questions including Eurocentrism in historical studies in the understanding of religion and civilisation and in the study of international relations as well as in the institutionalisation and professionalisation of research and discourses on modernisation in the Middle East Eurocentrism at the Margins will appeal to scholars with interests in knowledge production and circulation and Eurocentrism and post colonialism in the social sciences The Failure of the Sexual Revolution George Frankl, 2003 This work examines the aims of the sexual revolution and the factors responsible for its failure In showing that its ideas have their foundation in European radicalism Frankl gives the sexual revolution a wider dimension beyond the superficialities of permissiveness The Jesuit Missions of Paraguay and a Cultural History of Utopia (1568-1789) Girolamo Imbruglia, 2017-08-21 The Jesuit Missions of Paraguay and a Cultural History of Utopia 1568 1789 explores the religious foundations of the Jesuit missions in Paraguay and the discussion of the missionary experience in the public opinion of early modern Europe from Montaigne to Diderot This book presents a wealth of documentation to highlight three key aspects of this debate the relationship between civilisation and religion between religion and political imagination and between utopia and history Girolamo Imbruglia s analysis of the Jesuits own narrative reveals that the idea and the practice of mission have been one of the essential features of the European identity and of the shaping modern political thought Nationalism and Post-Colonial Identity Anshuman A Mondal, 2004-02-24 This book offers the first comparative study of two highly significant anti colonial nationalisms Darcy Ribeiro, Civilisation and Nation Adelia Miglievich-Ribeiro, 2024-06-21 This book introduces the life and work of Darcy Ribeiro 1922 1997 one of the foremost exponents of Brazilian Latin American Social thought in the 20th century Ribeiro was an anthropologist indigenist ethnographer social scientist and planner and creator of universities and schools and held various political offices This book examines Ribeiro s work in conversation with other great names of Latin American critical thought and introduces the contemporary epistemological movement he inspired Modernity Coloniality Decoloniality It presents the 12 years of Latin American exile to which he was subjected in the 1960s to 1970s highlighting the fame he gained as a reformer of universities on the continent Finally the book builds two new dialogues unheard of one with Black Brazilian intellectuals and the other with contemporary post de colonial studies This book will appeal to all those interested in studying global asymmetries social inequalities and obstacles to development in Latin America Scholars and students of Sociology Social Theory Anthropology Latin American Studies Political History and Education will find it useful Satanism George B. Palermo, Michele Claudio Del Re, 1999 Blueprint for a Sane Society George Frankl, 2004 After a lifetime of working as a psychoanalyst exploring the unconscious motivations of his patients pathologies Frankl sets out in this book to relate the unconscious processes of the mind to the pathologies of societies and cultures and then to propose a blueprint for a sane society Identity in Crossroad Civilisations Erich Kolig, Vivienne S. M. Angeles, Sam Wong, 2009 Deze bundel gaat over de vorming van identiteit door het samenspel van etniciteit nationalisme en de effecten van globalisering De essays in Crossroad Civilisations Ethnicity Nationalism and Globalism in Asia maken de gelaagdheid en de complexiteit hiervan duidelijk Chihuly Dale Chihuly, Donald Burton Kuspit, Kathryn Kanjo, 1997 As Marcel Duchamp said the creation of art restlessly oscillates between two poles the artist and the spectator writes Donald Kuspit in his insightful essay Chihuly and Stroemple A Meeting of Imaginations He suggests that the collector is the ideal spectator For Dale Chihuly George R Stroemple may be the ultimate ideal spectator as he possesses more works by Chihuly than any other collector concentrating on three series only the Irish Cylinders Macchia Venetians and Drawings In 1997 the Portland Art Museum presented 350 works selected from this collection In the catalogue accompanying the exhibition Kuspit explores the relationship of artist and collector noting that this exhibition is not only about Dale Chihuly s glass art but also about George R Stroemple s enthusiastic if selective collecting of it Curator Kathryn Kanjo addresses the creation of these three distinctly different series in her incisive essay Chihuly Glass Without Limits Statements by the collector and his curator Tracy Savage who had run Chihuly s Seattle studio at the time of Stroemple s first purchases in 1990 offer intimate insights to this relationship of collector and artist

Foundations of Morality George Frankl, 2000 The author examines the role of moral concepts in the life of societies pointing to the interaction between neurotic and psychotic disturbances in individuals and the pathologies which periodically overwhelm societies He asserts that we are experiencing a disintegration of moral values in the civilization of the West and an upsurge of antisocial destructive behaviour When the moral directives upheld by a culture cease to be convincing anti moral attitudes of defiance will arise resulting in an increasing number of people turning to crime violence and murder unrestrained self interest and greed and a profound weakening of social conscience Frankl then asks why morality is necessary in the human species and examines its biological and psychological origins Humans he says are no longer controlled by genetically programmed instincts With the expansion of the pre frontal lobes of the brain humans have to acquire values which guide their actions an inner representation of right and wrong good and bad To be given universal validity these then have to be presented in the form of morality Labour's Utopias Peter Beilharz,1992 The Two Cities is a text for students of medieval history For the second edition the author has thoroughly revised each chapter bringing the material up to date and taking the historiography of 1992 2002 into account The Time of Turāth Harald Viersen,2024-12-02 Recent Arab intellectual debates are often described as revolving around Arab Islamic cultural heritage tur th and the role that it ought to play in modern society This debate is standardly characterized as a confrontation between traditionalists and modernists the former idolizing an authentic heritage the latter blaming traditionalism for Arab society s inability to modernize This study argues that this standard narrative has become overly dominant making it impossible for different perspectives to be either voiced or heard It calls for a critical review of how we think about contemporary Arab thought through an analysis of the progressive linear temporal structure underlying the authenticity modernity dichotomy Looking in detail at three Arab intellectuals of the last fifty years Zak Naj b Ma m d Adonis and Abd al Ra m n h the study shows how this temporal structure underlies their thinking but also how their efforts to break away from it build on a critique of its temporal basis This analysis in turn enables an overhaul of the authenticity modernity paradigm which not only leads to a richer critical engagement with contemporary Arab thought but also brings out its moral dimensions The Literary Review ,2003 Deterritorializations Birgit Bærøe,2000 новая жизнь; Как стать счастливым в глобальном мире , Utopia and Terror in Contemporary American Fiction Judie Newman,2014-07-17 This book examines the quest for failure of Utopia across a range of contemporary American transnational fictions in relation to terror and globalization through authors such as Susan Choi Andr Dubus Dalia Sofer and John Updike While recent critical thinkers have reengaged with Utopia the possibility of terror whether state or non state external or homegrown shadows Utopian imaginings Terror and Utopia are linked in fiction through the exploration of the commodification of affect a phenomenon of a globalized world in which feelings are managed homogenized across cultures exaggerated or expunged according to a dominant model Narrative approaches to the terrorist offer a means to investigate the ways in which fiction can resist commodification of affect and maintain a reasoned but imaginative vision of possibilities for human community Newman explores topics such as the first American bestseller with a Muslim protagonist the links between writer and terrorist the work of Iranian Jewish Americans and the relation of race and religion to Utopian thought Collected Works of George Grant: 1951-1959 George Parkin Grant,2000-01-01 A collection of all the important material from the 1950s when philosopher Geroqe Grant did his first teaching and writing at Dalhousie University Gillian Rose Kate Schick,2012-08-30 Kate Schick locates the philosophy of Gillian Rose within wider discussions of contemporary political issues such as trauma and memory exclusion and difference tragedy and messianic utopia Schick argues that Rose brings a powerful and timely voice to Rethinking Democracy for Post-Utopian Worlds Jorge León Casero,Julia Urabayan,2024-06-06 This book is both a conceptualization and detailed analysis of the current crisis in which modern utopian categories of political institutions find themselves as well as a reflection and clarification of the new dangers and opportunities facing post utopian politics in the making Met with those who believe that no more utopian political projects are possible the post utopian movement maintains a non fantastic or illusory character of being able to apply new great discourses and radically democratic historical narratives while respecting both the autonomy and emancipation of individuals as plurality and the socio cultural differences of communities With this purpose in mind the book is divided into five thematically differentiated sections the new utopian categories beyond modern epistemes the possibility of liberal utopian democracies without neoliberalism the opportunities of socialist empowerments and insurgencies the necessity of thinking in the space between two ages and the urgency to create eco political post utopias Bibliographic Index ,1994
