Civilizing The West:

Civilizing the Wilderness A.A. den Otter, 2012-04-05 Eleven essays explore the dichotomy of civilizing and wilderness in 1850s Euro British North America

Ancient West Asian Civilization Akira Tsuneki, Shigeo Yamada, Ken-ichiro Hisada, 2016-08-19 This book explores aspects of the ancient civilization in West Asia which has had a great impact on modern human society agriculture metallurgy cities writing regional states and monotheism all of which appeared first in West Asia during the tenth to first millennia BC The editors specifically use the term West Asia since the Middle East is seen as an Eurocentric term By using this term the book hopes to mitigate potential bias i e historical and Western by using a pure geographical term However the West Asia region is identical to that of the narrower Middle East which encompasses modern Iran and Turkey from east to west and Turkey and the Arabian Peninsula from north to south This volume assembles research from different disciplines such as the natural sciences archaeology and philology linguistics in order to tackle the question of which circumstances and processes these significant cultural phenomena occurred in West Asia Scrutinizing subjects such as the relations between climate geology and human activities the origins of wheat cultivation and animal domestication the development of metallurgy the birth of urbanization and writing ancient religious traditions as well as the treatment of cultural heritage the book undertakes a comprehensive analysis of West Asian Civilization that provided the common background to cultures in various areas of the globe including Europe and Asia These contributions will attempt to demonstrate a fresh vision which emphasizes the common cultural origin between Europe and West Asia standing in opposition to the global antagonism symbolized by the theory of Clash of Civilizations

Forms of Hatred Leonidas Donskis, 2021-11-08 This book analyzes such symbolic designs of the modern troubled imagination as the conspiracy theory of society deterministic concepts of identity and order antisemitic obsessions self hatred and the myth of the loss of roots It offers among other things the unique East Central European materials incorporated in a broad imaginative synthesis and critique of contemporary social analysis

The New Abolition Gary Dorrien, 2015-09-29 The black social gospel emerged from the trauma of Reconstruction to ask what a new abolition would require in American society It became an important tradition of religious thought and resistance helping to create an alternative public sphere of excluded voices and providing the intellectual underpinnings of the civil rights movement This tradition has been seriously overlooked despite its immense legacy In this groundbreaking work Gary Dorrien describes the early history of the black social gospel from its nineteenth century founding to its close association in the twentieth century with W E B Du Bois He offers a new perspective on modern Christianity and the civil rights era by delineating the tradition of social justice theology and activism that led to Martin Luther King Jr

World History Teaching in Asia Shingo

Minamizuka,2019-03-30 World History Teaching in Asia is the first broad survey of the content and approaches used to teach world history in secondary schools and colleges in Asia The collection has been crafted by scholars and educators whose goal was to shed light on the importance of history education and to foster understanding of and between Asian countries These essays show how the teaching of world history in Asian countries has developed since World War II with many interesting parallels including the issue of Eurocentrism but also distinctive national trends and considerable changes over time At a time when many Asian countries are making great strides in education this study of history education in Asia will be of real interest to educators history scholars and policy makers worldwide Africa and the Expansion of International Society

John Anthony Pella, Jr,2014-08-21 This book explores the West Central African role in and experience during the expansion of international society Building upon theoretical contributions from the English School of international relations historical sociology and sociology it departs from Euro centric assumptions by analysing how West Central Africa and West Central Africans were integral to the ways in which Europe and Africa came together from the fifteenth century through to the twentieth Initially diverse scholarship concerned with the expansion of international society is examined revealing how the process has often been understood as one dictated by Europeans From there a new approach is developed one which is better able to examine the expansion as an interactive process between individuals and which puts the African experience at the heart of study The empirical research that follows this draws upon primary sources to introduce a number of historically significant and ground breaking cases into international relations including the international relations of West Central Africa before the European arrival the emergence and growth of the trans Atlantic slave trade the attempts to civilize Africa and the scramble to colonize Africa This book argues that the expansion of international society was driven by individual interaction and was shaped by both Africans and Europeans This book will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations international relations theory history African politics the English school and constructivism Author John Anthony Pella introduces his book African and the Expansion of International Society Surrendering the Savannah http://www.routledge.com/politics/articles/featured_author_john_anthony_pella World Civilizations And History Of Human Development Robert Holton,William Richard Nasson,2009-09-29 World Civilizations and History of Human Development is a component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences and Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty Encyclopedias The Theme on World Civilizations and History of Human Development discusses the essential aspects such as Civilizational Analysis A Paradigm in the Making The European Civilizational Constellation A Historical Sociology African Civilizations From the Pre colonial to the Modern Day Industrial Civilization Global Civilization Yesterday Today and Tomorrow Islamic Civilizations War Peace And Civilizations History The Meaning and Role of History in Human Development Role of Human Societies in the History of The Biosphere Environmentalism Role of Gender and Family Identities in Human History Modern Approaches to the Teaching of History Developing Dialogues The
