Circling Sound:

The Year Is a Circle Victor Carl Friesen, 2002-11-15 Henry David Thoreau is remembered as a foremost nature writer. He was an ecologist before the term was invented. A man of many parts including social critic, he is known to have had an influence on such internationally recognized leaders as Gandhi and Martin Luther King. Victor Carl Friesen, author of The Spirit of the Huckleberry, an astute analysis of Henry David Thoreau's prose, again demonstrates his affinity for the Walden sage with this unique volume of poems and photographs. Taking a series of quotations demonstrating Thoreau's sensuousness, he writes a poem for each and then illustrates them with outstanding colour photographs. The poems, mostly written in the blank verse form, have sturdy strength and remarkable insight into both Thoreau and nature. Walter Harding, Founding Secretary, The Thoreau Society Inc, State University of New York, Genesee, is particularly qualified as a Thoreau scholar for his personal interests extend well beyond literature to include natural history, a subject very much at the centre of Thoreau's writings. Canadian Book Review Annual The wagoner of the Alleghenies. War poems. A summer story. Poems in Italy. Miscellaneous Thomas Buchanan Read, 1868 Never Come Morning Nelson Algren, 2011-01-04 Never Come Morning is unique among the novels of Algren. The author's only romance, the novel concerns Brun Bicek, a would-be poet from Chicago's Northwest side, and Steffi, the woman who shares his dream while living his nightmare. It is an unusual and brilliant book, said The New York Times. A bold scribbling upon the wall for comfortable Americans to ponder and digest. This new edition features an introduction by Kurt Vonnegut Jr and an interview with Nelson Algren by H. E. F. Donohue. Choice Readings for Public and Private Entertainment Robert McLean Cumnock, 1878 Outside-in, Inside-out Costantino Maeder, Olga Fischer, William J. Herlofsky, Université Catholique de Louvain, Universiteit van Amsterdam, Universität Zürich, 2005-01-01 This fourth volume of the Iconicity series is like its predecessors, devoted to the study of iconicity in language and literature in all its forms. Many of the papers turn the notion of iconicity inside out, some suggesting that less is more, others focus on the cognitive factors inside the brain that are important for the iconic phenomena that are produced in the outside world. In addition, this volume includes a paper related to iconicity in music and its interaction with language. Other papers range from the theoretical issues involved in the evolution of language to those that offer many inside-out claims, such as claiming that nouns are derived from pronouns and as such should more properly be called pro-pronouns. Also, this volume includes perhaps the first English language analysis of the iconic aspects of sound symbolism in a prayer from the Koran. This is a truly interdisciplinary collection that should turn some of the notions of iconicity in language and literature outside in and inside out. The Breathing Circle - Play! Uwe Kleindienst, 2004 The Dax Corvo Cases - Five Echoes of an Unseen Truth Gaurav Garg, Meet Dax Corvo. The Man Who Tastes the Truth. In a city of secrets and lies, some crimes are too strange, too perfect, too impossible for traditional police work. When the clues make no sense, when the murder weapon is invisible, and when the killer is a ghost, they don't call a detective. They call a consultant. They call Dax Corvo. Dax is not a psychic. He is not a magician He is a man with a rare and powerful neurological condition known as associative synesthesia For him the world is a symphony of sensory information that no one else can perceive He doesn't just solve crimes He experiences them A lie isn't just a falsehood it has a taste often like burnt sugar or cold jagged metal A hidden emotion like a killer's rage or a victim's fear isn't just a concept it hangs in the air with a distinct scent The echo of a violent act doesn't just fade it leaves behind a sound a dissonant chord that reverberates only for him This gift makes him the most formidable investigator alive able to perceive the hidden architecture of a crime to read the story written in the sensory residue of an event But this gift is also a profound curse Once the most brilliant forensic analyst in federal law enforcement Dax's career was shattered when a manipulative killer a monster of supreme intellect discovered his secret This killer didn't just commit murder he composed it He learned to play Dax's senses like a musical instrument crafting a crime scene with false sensory clues that led Dax to accuse an innocent man destroying multiple lives and Dax's faith in his own mind Now Dax Corvo works in the shadows a reluctant consultant battling the ghosts of his past and the sensory noise of the present He takes on the cases no one else can solve facing killers who operate on the very edge of reality all while fighting to trust the senses that once betrayed him so completely His adventures will pull you into a world where the mysteries are as unique as the man who solves them The Echo of Drowning How do you find a killer when the victim drowned in a perfectly dry hermetically sealed room Dax's senses detect the impossible taste of salt water pointing to a murder that science says could not have happened The Silence of the Marionettes A beloved philanthropist is found dead surrounded by posed puppets The crime scene is a work of art but it leaves behind no clues no DNA no cause of death and for Dax no sensory echo He must hunt a killer whose signature is a terrifying absolute silence A Taste of Deceit A celebrity chef collapses and dies on live television his symptoms screaming poison But when the autopsy finds nothing Dax is left with a single phantom clue the lingering taste of bitter almonds He must unravel a murder where the weapon was not a chemical but an idea The Color of a Lie A faceless entity named Janus begins exposing the city's darkest secrets leading to a wave of public suicides The hacks are perfect untraceable The only clue is a bizarre impossible color woven into the data a signature that only Dax can see forcing him to seek help from the one man who knows how to break his mind The Sound of a Closed Circle Lured to a remote snowbound resort Dax finds himself trapped with the five people responsible for his downfall When a murder occurs the sensory clues the scent of his own cologne the sound of a clock from his office are a perfect symphony of his guilt He must solve the crime while being framed by his own senses Step into the world of Dax Corvo where the truth has a flavor and every lie leaves a stain If you are a fan of high concept mysteries that blend the intellectual rigor of Sherlock Holmes with the visceral psychological depth of a modern thriller his adventures are waiting for you haiku that he extracted from Henry David Thoreau's Walden and documents the underlying similarities between Thoreau's prose and the art of haiku. Although Thoreau would never have encountered the Japanese haiku tradition, the way in which the most important ideas in Walden find expression in the most haikulike language suggests that Thoreau at Walden Pond and the haiku master Basho at his old pond might have drunk at the same well. Walden and the tradition of haiku share an aesthetic that embodies ideas in natural images, dissolves boundaries between self and world, emphasizes simplicity and honors both solitude and humble familiar objects. Marshall examines each of these aesthetic principles and offers a relevant collection of found haiku. In the second part of the book, he explains his process of finding the haiku in the text, breaking down each chapter of Walden to highlight the imagery and poetic language embedded in the most powerful passages. Marshall's exploration not only provides a fresh perspective on haiku but also sheds new light on Thoreau's much-studied text and lays the foundation for a clearer understanding of the aesthetics of American nature writing.
