Cities Of God:

Cities of God Rodney Stark, 2009-03-17 An intriguing study of how early Christianity caught on and converted much of the world rooted in archaeological and statistical evidence Kirkus Reviews starred review How did the preaching of a peasant carpenter from Galilee spark a movement that would grow to over two billion followers Who listened to this good news and who ignored it Where did Christianity spread and how Based on quantitative data and the latest scholarship this book presents startling new information about the rise of the early church overturning many prevailing views of how Christianity grew through time to become the largest religion in the world Drawing on both archaeological and historical evidence Rodney Stark provides hard statistical evidence on the religious life of the Roman Empire to discover surprising facts Contrary to fictions such as The Da Vinci Code and the claims of some prominent scholars Gnosticism was not a more sophisticated more authentic form of Christianity but an unsuccessful effort to paganize Christianity Paul was called the apostle to the Gentiles but mostly he converted Jews Paganism was not rapidly stamped out by state repression following the conversion of the Roman Emperor Constantine in 312 AD it gradually disappeared as people abandoned the temples in response to the superior appeal of Christianity The oriental faiths such as those devoted to Isis the Egyptian goddess of love and magic and to Cybele the fertility goddess of Asia Minor actually prepared the way for the rapid spread of Christianity across the Roman Empire Contrary to generations of historians the Roman mystery cult of Mithraism posed no challenge to Christianity to become the new faith of the empire it allowed no female members and attracted only soldiers By analyzing concrete data Stark challenges the conventional wisdom about early Christianity offering the clearest picture ever of how this religion grew into what it is today

The Two Cities of God Carl E. Braaten, Robert W. Jenson, 1997 The chapters of this book offer informed perspectives on a theology of the world exploring the question How does should the church relate to the secular world The standard dogma of the 1960s was Let the world set the agenda Such a perspective has often caused the American church merely to reflect rather than to inform and lead the society in which it lives Surely say the authors of this volume it must be the other way around Contributors Robert Benne Robert W Jenson Carl E Braaten Gilbert Meilaender Christopher R Seitz Anthony Ugolnik George Weigel Robert L Wilken

The City of God, Books VIII-XVI Saint Augustine, 2008-09 This volume continues the translation of St Augustine's monumental work The City of God a product of his vast erudition Three books in particular viz 8 9 and 10 reveal Augustine's grasp of the tenets of the Platonists Peripatetics and Cynics The greater part of this continuation however is concerned with Augustine's treatment of theological and scriptural topics There is no strictly logical sequence however and numerous digressions intervene In the course of books 11 and 16 he finds occasion to discuss among many other topics the creation of angels and their nature demons and evils the age of the earth and of the human race death and dying and the purpose of marriage From the discussion of such topics he passes easily to comments on the Hebrew and Greek texts of the Bible the accuracy of the Septuagint and Latin translations the discrepancies among various texts As a product of his times Augustine shares the opinion that Hebrew may be the oldest and perhaps most common language before the Tower of Babel incident recorded in Scripture Most of Augustine's treatment of scriptural passages is concerned with allegorical interpretation In book 14 however the former professor of rhetoric at Milan comes through again in his discussion of the semantics of the words caritas amor dilectio and amor

City of God, City of Satan Robert C. Linthicum, 2011-03-01 Why is the city a battleground of hostile principalities and powers What is the mission of the church in the city How can the church be supported in accomplishing that mission These are the questions that Robert Linthicum treats in his comprehensive and probing biblical theology of the city In the Bible the city is depicted both as a dwelling place of God and his people and as a center of power for Satan and his minions The city is one primary stage on which the drama of salvation is played out And that is no less the case at the end of this pivotal century as megacities become the focal point of most human activity and aspirations around the world This is a timely theology of the city that weaves the theological images of the Bible and the social realities of the contemporary world into a revealing tapestry of truths about the urban experience Its purpose is to define clearly the mission of the church in the midst of the urban realities and to support well the work of the church in the urban world
