Cities In Transition New Challenges New Responsibilities:

Cities in Transition B. Blanke, R. Smith, 1999-08-18 This volume explores a range of current problems faced by cities in Germany and England and reflects on constructive strategies for enhancing the quality of life for the citizens of twenty first century urban environments The chapters of the book are based on papers given at a symposium organised by the Universities of Bristol and Hannover in 1997 to celebrate the 50th anniversary of twinning between the cities of Hannover and Bristol

A Companion to the City Gary Bridge, Sophie Watson, 2008-04-15 A Companion to the City provides the reader with an indispensable and authoritative overview of the key debates controversies and questions concerning the city from a variety of theoretical vantage points with an international perspective Indispensable companion for students of the City Multidisciplinary approach of interest across several fields Includes contributions from major scholars in the field

Cities and Climate Change Michelle Betsill, Harriet Bulkeley, 2003-08-27 Climate change is one of the most challenging issues of our time As key sites in the production and management of emissions of greenhouse gases cities will be crucial for the implementation of international agreements and national policies on climate change This book provides a critical analysis of the role of cities in addressing climate change and the prospects for urban sustainability Cities and Climate Change is the first in depth analysis of the role of cities in addressing climate change The book argues that key challenges concerning the resources and powers of local government as well as conflicts between local goals for economic development and climate change mitigation have restricted the level of local action on climate change These findings have significant implications for the prospects of mitigating climate change and achieving urban sustainability This book provides a valuable interdisciplinary analysis of these issues and will appeal to students and researchers interested in sustainability at local and global scales
