Citizenship And The Challenge Of Global Education European Issues In Childrens Identity Citizenship Series:

Their Hopes, Fears and Reality Melinda Dooly, 2010 Based on a research project supported by the European Foundation this book explores how primary and secondary students in four different European countries view their and the world's future The results indicate that there is a gap between students' perspectives about the future and a clear pedagogical base for helping students confront many issues that are significant to them The importance of ensuring students become critically aware citizens and helping them develop the ability and skills necessary for facing the challenges of the future are patent This book spells out specific ways in which the issues which emerged from the study can be approached from diverse fields geography language learning and arts and crafts It also discusses some cross disciplinary educational issues relevant to all teachers general education and cross disciplinary as well as offering two proposals on how teachers can count on sufficient psychological support to face the challenges of teaching in an increasingly complex environment and promote cooperative behaviour in the classroom

Critical Perspectives on International Education Yvonne Hébert, Ali A. Abdi, 2013-02-11 In rapidly globalizing spaces of life any research project on international education would necessarily have multi directional emphases with the quality of observations and analyses reflecting the expanding political economic and cultural intersections which characterize this potentially promising century To respond to these emerging learning and living contexts of our world this book brings together some of the most active and established scholars in the field As such the book represents important epistemic interventions that analyze and critique the institutional socio economic linguistic and pedagogical platforms of international education As the locus of international education cannot be detached from the pragmatics of social development the specific recommendations embedded in this book expand the debates and broaden the boundaries of learning projects that should enhance the lives of people especially those who are continually marginalized by the regimes of globalization Thus the book actively advocates for possibilities of human well beings via different formats of education in diverse locations of life Critical Perspectives on International Education offers a historically comprehensive intellectually honest and perspective rich scholarly exploration of a new education globalization dynamic This book courageously offers up diverse voices gathered into a robust and useful conversation regarding global education This book adds greatly to understanding why educational marketplaces must be driven by principles and practices that empower diverse peoples to secure sustainable knowledge benefits that contribute to personal local national and international well being This critical perspective reader will engage scholars researchers and citizens Jim Paul University of Calgary In the current intensifications of globalization and its resulting inequalities it is crucial to better understand the role of knowledge creation and knowledge dissemination Should knowledge be only a commodity to be sold in the market and a tool to increase economic capital or should it be a shared sociocultural capital aimed at improving democracy and the common good In Critical Perspectives on International Education Yvonne Hébert and Ali A Abdi assemble an impressive array of contributions from all over the world that address this question from a variety of critical perspectives and case studies I recommend this book to everyone interested in the connections between education citizenship development and human well being Daniel Schugurensky Arizona State University

Teaching History in the Era of Globalization: Epistemological and Methodological Challenges Cosme J. Gómez Carrasco, Pilar Rivero, Álvaro Chaparro-Sainz, 2022-10-20

Dual Citizenship in Europe Thomas Faist, 2016-04-29 In an age of terrorism and securitized immigration dual citizenship is of central theoretical and political concern The contributors to this timely volume examine policies regarding dual citizenship across Europe covering a wide spectrum of countries The case studies explore the negotiated character and boundaries of political membership and the fundamental beliefs and arguments within distinct political cultures and institutional settings which have shaped debates and policies on citizenship The analyses explore the similarities and differences in the politics of dual citizenship to identify the dominant terms of public debates within and across selected immigration and emigration states in Europe The research demonstrates that policies on dual citizenship are not simply explained by different concepts of nationhood Instead concepts of societal integration which may well be contested in a given polity are extremely influential

Teachers, Human Rights and Diversity Audrey Osler, 2005 How should we educate citizens in multicultural societies This question is receiving increasing attention in countries across the world In this volume authors from England Northern Ireland the Republic of Ireland and the United States report on recent research in this field and consider the implications for teachers teacher education and student teachers Case studies illustrate how young citizens can learn to apply the principles of human rights and equality in resolving complex and controversial issues The contributors include Hilary Claire Colm O Cuanachain Carole Hahn Anne Hudson Ulrike Neins and Jackie Reilly Jill Rutter Chris Wilkins This book will be of particular interest to student teachers and their tutors

Citizenship and Language Learning Audrey Osler, Hugh Starkey, 2005 This volume is the result of a British Council seminar on language and citizenship

Understanding the Constructions of Identities by Young New Europeans Alistair Ross, 2019-02-13 How do young people construct their identities in the complexity of their own country belonging to the European Union and being part of global society This book is based on a unique empirical study of a thousand young people aged between eleven and nineteen from fifteen European countries Covering East European states that joined the EU be

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003 Culture, Motivation and Learning Farideh Salili,Rumjahn Hoosain,2007-06-01 The influence of culture on learning and motivation has been the topic of much research in recent years Educational and psychological researchers are now aware that the findings of their studies may not apply to other cultures and that in this age of globalization and multiculturalism it is very important to examine the applicability of psychoeducational constructs to other cultures Understanding learning and motivational characteristics of students of diverse backgrounds will enable educators to develop appropriate curriculum and teaching strategies to motivate these students The aim of this book is to present research findings and views of scholars and researchers in the field of motivation and learning from a multicultural and international perspective Educators and scholars from different parts of the world have examined recent learning and motivation theories in different cultural contexts in order to explore the dynamics of sociocultural processes affecting student motivation Others have focused on teaching and learning strategies that are known to be effective with culturally diverse students

Resources in Education ,2000-04 South Africa is My Best World Ina Joubert,2010 In this work the author grapples with the nuanced concept of democratic citizenship education and how this affects the lives of young children The book is based on a case study of nine year old children of an inner city school in South Africa and their life experiences of a democratic South Africa as child citizens

Muslim Educators in American Communities Charles L. Glenn,2018-08-01 Political rhetoric and popular concern about the presence in the United States Canada and Western Europe of immigrants from predominantly Muslim societies has remained largely detached from the actual reality of the lives and the contributions of these immigrants and their children The studies presented here seek to correct this ignorant reaction by presenting objective information from schools that such immigrants have created and sustained The first looked at seven explicitly Islamic secondary schools focusing on the formation of character and American citizenship while the other studied public charter schools established by immigrants from Turkey focusing on academic outcomes Do faith based schools cause social divisions Do their students fail to become good citizens who can cooperate with those of other faiths This familiar accusation against Catholic and more recently against Evangelical schools is now directed against Islamic schools in Western societies The studies presented here offer objective information from schools established by Muslim immigrants across the United States with reassuring results Praise for Muslim Educators in American Communities Dr Charles Glenn takes us inside US Islamic schools and offers a rare insight into the thoughts and emotions of young American Muslims A must read for Non Muslims as well as Muslims his book provides a taste for those curious about what goes on in Islamic schools as well as evidence of the results of an Islamic School education Sufia Azmat Executive Director Council of Islamic Schools in North America Every wave of immigration throughout American history has brought with it an undertow of fear often centered on the religious schools new immigrants form In every instance those fears have proven unfounded and so they are today Through careful on the ground research Charles Glenn and colleagues take us into new Islamic secondary schools and discover the important role these faith based schools are playing in forming virtuous citizens capable and committed to being a positive influence within American civic life This book is a valuable and timely contribution James Davison Hunter Institute for Advanced Studies in Culture University of Virginia Politics, Participation & Power Relations Richard C. Mitchell, Shannon A. Moore, 2012-10-01 Until recently youth have become the great absence regarding matters of citizenship justice and democracy Rarely are young people taken up with the important discourses of freedom and citizenship especially discourses that transcend national boundaries and academic disciplines Richard Mitchell and Shannon Moore have put together a brilliant book that not only fills this void but makes one of the most powerful cases I have read for addressing young people in terms that not only allow them to talk back be heard but also to enjoy those rights and freedoms that give democracy a real claim on its ideals and promises Every educator parent student and all those young people now making their voices heard all over the world should read this book Henry A Giroux This diverse collection will appeal to students in senior undergraduate and graduate courses looking into the new cosmopolitanism in social policy citizenship or cultural studies in child and youth studies and in post colonial approaches to education sociology and political science Asian Migrants and Education Michael W. Charney, Brenda Yeoh, Tong Chee Kiong, 2013-04-17 The contributors to this volume explore the close relationship between education and the molding of modern immigrant societies through case studies of either Asian migrants or Asian immigrant societies This volume will be especially useful for researchers educators and students intent on understanding some of the critical challenges faced by a globalizing world Challenge to the Nation-State Christian Joppke, 1998 This volume presents the latest research by some of the world s leading figures in the fast growing area of immigration studies Relating the study of immigration to wider processes of social change the book focuses on two key areas in which nation states are being challenged by this phenomenon sovereignty and citizenship Bringing together the separate clusters of scholarship which have evolved around both of these areas Challenge to the Nation State disentangles the many contrasting views on the impact of immigration on the authority and integrity of the state Some scholars have stressed the stubborn resistance of states to relinquish territorial control the continued relevance of national citizenship traditions and the balkanizing risks of ethnically divided societies Others have argued that migrations are fostering a post national world In their view states immigration policies are increasingly constrained by global markets and an international human rights regime membership as citizenship is devalued by new forms of postnational membership for migrants and national monocultures are giving way to multicultural diversity Focusing on the issue of sovereignty in the first section and citizenship in the second this compelling new study seeks to clarify the central stakes and opposing positions in this important and complex debate International Handbook of Research on Environmental Education Robert B.

Stevenson, Michael Brody, Justin Dillon, Arjen E.J. Wals, 2013-05-02 The environment and contested notions of sustainability are increasingly topics of public interest political debate and legislation across the world Environmental education journals now publish research from a wide variety of methodological traditions that show linkages between the environment health development and education The growth in scholarship makes this an opportune time to review and synthesize the knowledge base of the environmental education EE field The purpose of this 51 chapter handbook is not only to illuminate the most important concepts findings and theories that have been developed by EE research but also to critically examine the historical progression of the field its current debates and controversies what is still missing from the EE research agenda and where that agenda might be headed Published for the American Educational Research Association AERA Council of Europe
