Citizenship For You Students:

Student Financial Aid Handbook, 1999      Global Citizenship Education in Australian Schools Andrew Peterson, 2020-09-26 This book explores how Australian secondary schools prepare their students for global citizenship Globalisation has irrevocably changed modern countries and societies and the benefits and pressures this brings are being felt as never before Drawing on empirical data from six Australian secondary schools the author examines how school leaders and teachers understand global citizenship how they translate this into their practice and how students experience and make sense of global citizenship education In doing so the book portrays how school leaders teachers and students grapple with key issues central to global citizenship education including how they work to mediate some of the tensions involved While the book concentrates on the Australian context its findings and analysis have resonance for other countries in which global citizenship education operates as a core goal of education and schooling      A Guide to ... SARs & ISIRs, 1998

Documentation of Citizenship Status in the 1985-86 Award Year, 1985      Citizen, Student, Soldier Gina M. Pérez, 2015-11-27 Since the 1990s Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps JROTC programs have experienced unprecedented expansion in American public schools The program and its proliferation in poor urban schools districts with large numbers of Latina o and African American students is not without controversy Public support is often based on the belief that the program provides much needed discipline for at risk youth Meanwhile critics of JROTC argue that the program is a recruiting tool for the U S military and is yet another example of an increasingly punitive climate that disproportionately affect youth of color in American public schools Citizen Student Soldier intervenes in these debates providing critical ethnographic attention to understanding the motivations aspirations and experiences of students who participate in increasing numbers in JROTC programs These students have complex reasons for their participation reasons that challenge the reductive idea that they are either dangerous youths who need discipline or victims being exploited by a predatory program Rather their participation is informed by their marginal economic position in the local political economy as well as their desire to be regarded as full citizens both locally and nationally Citizenship is one of the central concerns guiding the JROTC curriculum this book explores ethnographically how students understand and enact different visions of citizenship and grounds these understandings in local and national political economic contexts It also highlights the ideological social and cultural conditions of Latina o youth and their families who both participate in and are enmeshed in vigorous debates about citizenship obligation social opportunity militarism and ultimately the American Dream      Language Policies and (Dis)Citizenship Vaidehi Ramanathan, 2013-08-07 This volume explores the concept of citizenship and argues that it should be understood both as a process of becoming and the ability to participate fully rather than as a status that can be inherited acquired or achieved From a courtroom in Bulawayo to a nursery in Birmingham the authors use local contexts to foreground how the vulnerable particularly those from minority language backgrounds continue to be excluded whilst offering a powerful demonstration of the potential for change offered by individual agency resistance and struggle In addressing questions such as under what local conditions does citizenship happen what role do language policies and pedagogic practices play and what kinds of margins and borders keep humans from fully participating The chapters in this volume shift the debate away from visas and passports to more uncertain and contested spaces of interpretation

The Law Student's Helper, 1893

What Kind of Citizen? Joel Westheimer, 2024 As democracy faces increasing struggles around the globe there has never been a more important time to talk about civic education and the core democratic purposes of schooling What Kind of Citizen asks readers to imagine the society they would like to live in and then shows how schools can make that vision a reality This updated edition responds to the many challenges that have occurred since this book was first published such as a global pandemic social justice protests a rise in autocratic leaders anti woke laws and more Westheimer brings his now classic text up to date with groundbreaking analyses of current policies including those in Florida Texas and Arizona standardized testing prohibitions on teaching about race and racism plus a new section on teacher education There are many ways to teach children and young adults to engage critically with their world but instead teachers are forced to test prep for a narrow set of academic subjects This book shows readers how schools can get back on track by creating more engaging more democratic learning

PRAISE FOR THE FIRST EDITION A timely and important book that will prove valuable to a wide audience a valuable addition to teacher education programs that seek to challenge preservice teachers to understand themselves as stewards of democracy and justice Jonathan Zimmerman New York University Highly recommended for anyone interested in reconnecting education to democracy Westheimer's constant connection with everyday experiences makes the reading very pleasurable and reminds readers of the important place of emotion in education and politics Nel Noddings Stanford University This book will have anyone with a vested interest in the future citizens of our world pausing to question the education system as we know it A good read for teachers in need of some inspiration or for anyone looking for more insight into education in America William Ayers activist and author

Constructing Modern Asian Citizenship Edward Vickers,Krishna Kumar,2014-12-05 In many non Western contexts modernization has tended to be equated with Westernization and hence with an abandonment of authentic indigenous identities and values This is evident in the recent history of many Asian societies where efforts to modernize spurred on by the spectre of foreign domination have often been accompanied by determined attempts to stamp national variants of modernity with the brand of local authenticity Asian values Chinese characteristics a Japanese cultural essence and so forth Highlighting or exaggerating associations between the more unsettling consequences of modernization and alien influence has thus formed part of a strategy whereby elites in many Asian societies have sought to construct new forms of legitimacy for old patterns of dominance over the masses The apparatus of modern systems of mass education often inherited from colonial rulers has been just one instrument in such campaigns of state legitimation This book presents analyses of a range of contemporary projects of citizenship formation across Asia in order to identify those issues and concerns most central to Asian debates over the construction of modern identities Its main focus is on schooling but also examines other vehicles for citizenship formation such as museums and the internet the role of religion in particular Islam in debates over citizenship and identity in certain Asian societies and the relationship between state centred identity discourses and the experience of increasingly globalized elites With chapters from an international team of contributors this interdisciplinary volume will appeal to students and scholars of Asian culture and society Asian education comparative education and citizenship
