Citizenship In The Community:

Transnational Citizenship in the European Union Espen D. H. Olsen, 2012-05-10 Citizenship in a Global World Fuat Keyman, Ahmet Icduygu, 2013-04-08 A keen analysis of the social political and economic determinants of Turkish politics with an exploration of the different dimensions of the republican model of Turkish citizenship providing the reader with a comprehensive account of Turkish modernity and democracy At the beginning of a new millennium Turkey finds itself at a critical juncture in its democratic evolution This momentous event has been precipitated by its desire to enter into the European Union and the recent financial crisis it has faced both of which have fuelled the need for the creation of a strong democratic Turkey Consisting of a collection of innovative and influential essays by leading scholars this book gives the reader an historical and sociological understanding of Turkey and adds a new dimension to the ongoing discussion surrounding global citizenship and global identity Citizenship in the Western Tradition Peter Riesenberg, 2000-11-09 Intended for both general readers and students Peter Riesenberg s instructive book surveys Western ideas of citizenship from Greek antiquity to the French Revolution It is striking to observe the persistence of important civic ideals and institutions over a period of 2 500 years and to learn how those ideals and institutions traveled over space and time from the ancient Mediterranean to early modern France England and America Teaching Citizenship in the Secondary School James Arthur, Daniel Wright, 2013-10-18 This text supports student teachers NQTs and practitioners in implementing the Citizenship Order in secondary schools to be introduced in September 2002 With a practical clear focus the authors provide an intellectual challenge argument and evidence to help the reader come to an informed view on the complex and controversial issues in each chapter well focused examples and strategies for use in the classroom Learning to Teach Citizenship in the Secondary School Liam Gearon, 2003-12-08 Citizenship is a wide ranging subject that can be taught in its own right or through other curriculum subjects and activities This book is intended for students training to teach Citizenship as a first or second subject and will also be immensely helpful to experienced teachers who have opted to take responsibility for this exciting subject Written in a clear and practical way yet underpinned by a sound theoretical background the book covers key themes in Citizenship education including Citizenship in the National Curriculum Citizenship and pastoral care special educational needs developing schemes of work ways of teaching and learning assessment monitoring and recording resources and useful contacts professional development With key objectives and tasks for each chapter this book will help teachers to improve their understanding of Citizenship education and to help their pupils understand their roles as citizens It may be read in conjunction with the companion core textbook Learning to Teach in the Secondary School 3rd edition Citizenship in the 21st Century Lester T. Kane, Marylyn R. Poweller, 2008 Citizenship is membership in a political community and carries with it rights to political participation It is largely coterminous with nationality although it is possible to have a nationality without being a citizen and vice versa This book presents a line up of contributors offering in depth analyses of this issue Citizenship in Contemporary Europe Michael Lister, 2008-05-12 This book seeks to analyse the impact of globalisation European integration mass migration changing patterns of political participation and welfare state provision upon citizenship in Europe Uniting theory with empirical examples the central theme of the book is that how we view such changes is dependent upon how we view citizenship theoretically The authors analyse the three main theoretical approaches to citizenship 1 classical positions liberal communitarian and republican primarily concerned with questions of rights and responsibilities 2 multiculturalist and feminist theories concerned with the question of difference and 3 postnational or cosmopolitan theories which emphasise how citizen rights and behaviours are increasingly located beyond the nation state Using these theoretical perspectives the second section of the book assesses four key social economic and political developments which pose challenges for citizenship in Europe migration political participation the w Education for Values: Morals, Ethics and Citizenship in Contemporary Teaching Jo Cairns, Roy Gardner, Denis Lawton, 2013-05-13 Values in education in terms of both how they are taught and of the ethics of teaching itself are an area of lively debate This text provides a resource of ideas issues and practice for all those with an interest in this area of education Roman and Local Citizenship in the Long Second Century CE Myles Lavan, Clifford Ando, 2021 Imperial and Local Citizenship in the Long Second Century CE explores the significance of Roman citizenship in the long century before Caracalla s universal grant of citizenship in 212 CE From this emerges a new portrait of the early Roman empire an exclusive regime of citizenship persisted in a context of remarkable political and cultural integration Remaking Citizenship in Hong Kong Agnes S. Ku, Ngai Pun, 2011-02-22 This book provides a detailed comparative account of the development of citizenship and civil society in Hong Kong from its time as a British colony to its current status as a special autonomous region of China Active Citizenship in Schools John Potter, 2003-12-16 Community Service Volunteers is known nationally for its citizenship and community learning schemes and provides a support and consultancy service for schools education authorities and government This book is based on that experience and carries Learning How to Be an Active Citizen in Dublin's Docklands Marianne Breen, Nicholas Rees, 2009 Ecology and Justice—Citizenship in Biotic Communities David R. Keller, 2019-03-30 This is the first book to outline a basic philosophy of ecology using the standard categories of academic philosophy metaphysics axiology epistemology aesthetics ethics and political philosophy The problems of global justice invariably involve ecological factors Yet the science of ecology is itself imbued with philosophical questions Therefore studies in ecological justice the sub discipline of global justice that relates to the interaction of human and natural systems should be preceded by the study of the philosophy of ecology This book enables the reader to access a philosophy of ecology and shows how this philosophy is inherently normative and provides tools for securing ecological justice The moral philosophy of ecology directly addresses the root cause of ecological and environmental injustice the violation of fundamental human rights caused by the inequitable distribution of the benefits economies and costs diseconomies of industrialism Philosophy of ecology thus has implications for human rights pollution poverty unequal access to resources sustainability consumerism land use biodiversity industrialization energy policy and other issues of social and global justice This book offers an historical and interdisciplinary exegesis The analysis is situated in the context of the Western intellectual tradition and includes great thinkers in the history of ecological thinking in the West from the natural sciences social sciences and humanities Keller asks the big questions and surveys answers with remarkable detail Here is an insightful analysis of contemporary classical and ancient thought alike in the ecological sciences the humanities and economics the roots and fruits of our concepts of nature and of being in the world Keller is unexcelled in bridging the is ought gap bridging nature and culture and in celebrating the richness of life its pattern process and creativity on our wonderland Earth Holmes Rolston III University Distinguished Professor Colorado State University Author of A New Environmental Ethics The Next Millennium for Life on Earth 2012 Mentored by renowned ecologist Frank Golley and renowned philosopher Frederick Ferré David Keller is well prepared to provide a deep history and a sweeping synthesis of the idea of ecology including the metaphysical epistemological and ethical aspects of that idea as well as the scientific J Baird Callicott University Distinguished Research Professor University of North Texas Author of Thinking Like a Planet The Land Ethic and the Earth Ethic 2013

Cultures of Citizenship in the Twenty-First Century Vanessa Evans, Mita Banerjee, 2023-12-04 In the early twenty first century the concept of citizenship is more contested than ever As refugees set out to cross the Mediterranean European nation states refer to cultural integrity and immigrant inassimilability revealing citizenship to be much more than a legal concept The contributors to this volume take an interdisciplinary approach to considering how cultures of citizenship are being envisioned and interrogated in literary and cultural contexts Through this framework they attend to the tension between the citizen and its spectral others a tension determined by how a country defines difference at a given moment

Woman Suffrage and Citizenship in the Midwest, 1870-1920 Sara Egge, 2018-02-15 Winner of the 2019 Gita Chaudhuri Prize Winner of the 2019 Benjamin F Shambaugh Award Historian Sara Egge offers critical insights into the woman suffrage movement by exploring how it emerged in small Midwestern communities in Clay County Iowa Lyon County Minnesota and Yankton County South Dakota Examining this grassroots activism offers a new approach that uncovers the sophisticated ways Midwestern suffragists understood citizenship as obligation By investigating civic responsibility Egge reorients scholarship on woman suffrage and brings attention to the Midwest a region overlooked by most historians of the movement In doing so she sheds new light onto the ways suffragists rejuvenated the cause in the twentieth century

Gender and Citizenship in the Middle East Suad Joseph, 2000-11-01 The essays in this work illustrate the various ways in which women in the Middle East fall short of being vested with the rights and privileges that would define them as fully enfranchised citizens They offer an examination of national legislation on personal status penal law and labour

The History and Theory of Children's Citizenship in Contemporary Societies Brian Milne, 2013-04-15 This book examines the notion of children having full citizenship It does so historically through intellectual discourse beliefs and moral and ideological positions on children It looks at the status and extent of knowledge of the position of children covering about 2500 years The book takes European and other cultures traditions and beliefs into consideration It reflects on the topic from a variety of disciplines including social sciences theology and philosophy The book places children s citizenship in the centre of children s rights discourse Part of the work is a critical appraisal of children s participation because it diverts attention away from children as members of society toward being a separable group The book moves on from child participation using a children s rights based argument toward examination of the relationship of the child with the state i e as potentially full member citizens

The Politics of Nation Building and Citizenship in Singapore Michael Hill, Kwen Fee Lian, 2013-06-17 The creation of a national identity has been a central feature of political life in Singapore A broad strategy of multiculturalism together with the creation of Asian values has served the purpose of building a new national identity

Rethinking Citizenship in Central and Eastern Europe Nina Kolley, Ireneusz Pawel Karolewski, 2025-05-23 This book delves into the intricate landscape of citizenship practices in Central and Eastern Europe an area often overlooked in research Through an interdisciplinary lens the contributors explore how education and political participation shape these practices in a region marked by historical and social complexities The book offers fresh insights into how citizenship is perceived and practiced highlighting the role of civic education in fostering political engagement By addressing both the challenges and opportunities of citizenship in this dynamic region this volume contributes to broader debates on democracy and civic participation across Europe and beyond
