Associational Life in African Cities Arne Tostensen, Inge Tvedten, Mariken Vaa, 2001 The book contains 17 chapters with material from 13 African countries from Egypt to Swaziland and from Senegal to Kenya Most of the authors are young African academics The focus of the volume is the multitude of voluntary associations that has emerged in African cities in recent years In many cases they are a response to mounting poverty failing infrastructure and services and more generally weak or abdicating urban governments Some associations are new in other cases existing organizations are taking on new tasks Associations may be neighbourhood based others may be city wide and based on professional groupings or a shared ideology or religion Still others have an ethnic base Some of these organizations are engaged in both day to day matters of urban management and more long term urban development Urban associations challenge the monopoly of local and central government institutions

Living the City in Africa Brigit Obrist, Veit Arlt, Elisio Macamo, 2013 Research on cities worldwide still takes its cue from cities in Europe and the US which are seen as the standard model However cities in the global South are undergoing a much more rapid transformation including multiple interlinked transitions with Africa featuring the highest urbanization rates world wide Scholars therefore call for a new approach to urban studies which examines cities from a more global comparative perspective This book discusses the new approach which pays added attention to the role that societal creativity plays in processes of urbanization instead of concentrating exclusively on expert driven planning and intervention Especially in fast growing cities with weaker institutional capacity for interventions the interplay between intervention and invention between expert and societal agency becomes more tangible and all the more significant Series Swiss African Studies Schweizerische Afrikastudien Etudes africaines suisses Vol 10

Postcolonial African Cities Fassil Demissie, 2013-09-13 The book focuses on contemporary African cities caught in the contradiction of an imperial past and postcolonial present The essays explore the cultural role of colonial architecture and urbanism in the production of meanings in the inscription of power and discipline as well as in the dynamic construction of identities It is in these new dense urban spaces with all their contradictions that urban Africans are reworking their local identities building families and creating autonomous communities made fragile by neo liberal states in a globalizing world The book offers a range of scholarly interpretations of the new forms of urbanity It engages with issues themes and topics including colonial legacies postcolonial intersections cosmopolitan spaces urban reconfigurations and migration which are at the heart of the continuing debate about the trajectory of contemporary African cities The collection discusses contemporary African cities as diverse as Dar Es Salaam Dakar Johannesburg Lagos and Kinshasa offering new insights into the current state of postcolonial African cities This was previously published as a special issue of African Identities

African Minorities in the New World Toyin Falola, Niyi Afolabi, 2007-11-13 This book discusses the minority status of African immigrants in the New World by revisiting the concept of a new African diaspora and its multiple implications for citizenship and immigration policy

Seeking a City with Foundations David W. Smith, 2019-03-31 More than half the people in the world live in cities including a growing number of megacities with populations exceeding ten million people This trend means that an understanding of urbanization must be an urgent priority for Christian theology and mission across the globe This updated edition of Seeking a City with Foundations with an additional chapter explores Christian responses to the city ranging from rejecting the urban as evil to embracing it as being central to God's redemptive purposes Drawing from a wide range of disciplines including history social science urban planning and the history of art readers are given a detailed text which confronts the challenges that contemporary urbanization presents to world Christianity Looking at urbanism as a theme throughout Scripture culminating with the great vision of the New Jerusalem David Smith explains that God's own future is revealed as urban highlighting the need to identify modern day idols as we share the gospel in cities and acknowledge the impact of global economic forces The book also explores the causes of what has been called the divided city and traces the urban theme through the Bible to present an alternative vision of the urban future a future in which the injustices in ever growing slums and a crisis of meaning among the privileged might be overcome through the power of the reconciling message of the cross This timely book proposes a way forward for urban mission highlighting that transformation of our cities must be the focal point of Christian mission and hope

From the verticals of New York, Hong Kong and Singapore to the sprawls of London, Paris and Jakarta, this interdisciplinary volume of new writing examines constructions, representations, imaginations and theorizations of cityscapes in modern and contemporary culture. With specially commissioned essays from the fields of cultural theory, architecture, film, literature, visual art and urban geography, it offers fresh insight into the increasingly complex relationship between urban space, cultural production and everyday life. This volume draws on critical urban studies and moves beyond familiar cultural representations of the city by considering urban planning and architecture. Organized under three inter-related themes: image, text and form, essay topics range from the examination of cyberpunk skylines, pagan urbanism and the cinema of urban disaster to the analysis of iconic city landmarks such as the twin towers, the London Eye and the Judisches Museum, Berlin. Covering a diverse range of cities including Berlin, Chicago, Jakarta, Johannesburg, Hong Kong, London, Los Angeles, Paris and Venice, this fantastic resource for students, scholars and researchers alike works expertly at the intersections of visual material and literary culture. Muslims Cities Then and Now Susan Douglass, 1995-12. African Development Prospects Dominick Salvatore, 1989.
