City Branding Image Building And Building Images

Stephan Sonnenburg, Laura Baker

City Branding Image Building And Building Images:

City Branding Véronique Patteeuw, Urban Affairs, 2002 In this era of experience economy and the leisure industry cities face increasing pressure to distinguish themselves Ever since Frank Gehry put the city of Bilbao into the international spotlight with his design for the Guggenheim museum architecture played a more and more important role within this competition between cities City branding the planned image or brand of a city now forms a challenge for architects and urban planners How do you position a city in a culture dominated by globalization What are the priorities for inhabitants companies and investors Group portraits of young architects 2002 brought together four occasional groups of architects which each developed a project for two cities in the Netherlands based on city branding Critical essays on the subject by Berci Florian Hans Mommaas and Michael Speaks Koen van Synghel puts the projects in perspective Rethinking Place

Branding Mihalís Kavaratzis, Gary Warnaby, Gregory J. Ashworth, 2014-11-25 As Place Branding has become a widely established but contested practice there is a dire need to rethink its theoretical foundations and its contribution to development and to re assert its future This important new book advances understanding of place branding through its holistic critical and evidence based approach Contributions by world leading specialists explore a series of crucially significant issues and demonstrate how place branding will contribute more to cultural economic and social development in the future The theoretical analysis and illustrative practical examples in combination with the accessible style make the book an indispensable reading for anyone involved in the field Tourism and the Branded City Stephanie Hemelryk

Donald, John G. Gammack, 2016-02-24 Comparing the major Pacific Rim cities of Sydney Hong Kong and Shanghai this book examines world city branding Whilst all three cities compete on the world's stage for events tourists and investment they are also at the centre of distinct film traditions and their identities are thus strongly connected with a cinematic impression Using an interdisciplinary approach this book not only analyses the city branding of these cities from the more widely researched perspectives of tourism marketing and regional development but also draws in cultural studies and psychology approaches which offer fresh and useful insights to place branding and marketing in general The authors compare and contrast qualitative and quantitative original data as well as critically analyzing current texts and debates on city branding In conclusion they argue that city branding should contribute not only to regional development and identity but also to sustainable economic well being and public happiness CityEvents Ward Rennsen, 2007 Large international events like the Olympic Games put cities on the world map CityEvents place selling in a Media Age addresses the question how cities have been raising their profile internationally by hosting large international events throughout the twentieth century It explores this question by introducing the CityEvent model This model allows for the study of large international events from a threefold perspective analytically integrating the roles of the media host cities and event owners with each other By means of this model developments and transformations in the hosting of events are reconstructed in relation to historical developments in the media This thesis provides a history of event based place selling and simultaneously offers insights into the hosting of current and future events The cities of Amsterdam Berlin and Helsinki both as hosts of the Olympic Games and as European Capitals of Culture feature as case studies

Urban Design Christa Reicher, 2022-09-22 In this basic textbook prospective architects urban and landscape planners receive assistance in working on urban development projects and designs This edition has been expanded by two chapters on informal urban planning and regional urban development The contents presented and their preparation are based on the design process in practice and embed it in a theoretical framework of necessary background knowledge As an introduction an overview of the understanding of the city of urban structures and the laws governing them is given In order to make the multi layered structure of the city more comprehensible it is broken down into different layers and building blocks The approach to urban design is described using the layer method in the form of successive phases Examples of urban development projects and competitions illustrate the individual design steps

Brands and Branding Geographies Andy Pike, 2011-01-01 The volume edited by Andy Pike includes contributions by several leading figures in the study of brands places and place branding However this is not what makes the book a welcome addition to the literature What really makes the book interesting is actually the brave attempt to deal with an intrinsically difficult topic one that is rarely if ever explored the relationship between brands and branding with the places in and around which these operate Several facets of this relationship are explored in the book The book is introduced nicely by Andy Pike in a chapter that sets the scene and clarifies the intentions of the book I am glad the first book to handle these issues is on my shelves Mihalis Kavaratzis Regional Studies An incomparably rich trove of work on the multifarious and contradictory entanglements between space place and brand The volume helps us understand how and why places of origin play an ever greater role in the marketing of commodities even while corporations continue to seek placelessness in pursuit of the bottom line And it illuminates how and why entrepreneurial governments seeking to enhance global competitiveness increasingly turn to place branding at the neighborhood urban and national scale even while launching rounds of restructuring that undercut the authenticity and viability of local identities A valuable and accessible contribution to the urban studies and cultural studies literature Miriam Greenberg University of California Santa Cruz US An important effort to pull together multidisciplinary research on the spatial dimensions of brands and branding in an international context John A Quelch Harvard Business School US Despite overstated claims of their global homogeneity ubiquity and contribution to flattening spatial differences the geographies of brands and branding actually do matter This vibrant collection provides a comprehensive reference point for the emergent area of brand and branding geographies in a multi disciplinary and international context The eminent contributors leaders in their respective fields present critical reflections and synthesis of a range of conceptual and theoretical frameworks and methodological approaches incorporating market research oral history discourse and visual analyses They reflect upon the politics and limits of brand and branding geographies and map out future research directions The book will prove a fascinating and illuminating read for academics researchers students practitioners and policy makers focusing on the spatial dimensions of brands and branding

Imagine a Metropolis Patricia van Ulzen, 2007 Cities form an organic development of their own Underground initiatives give also rise to gradual shifts on the surface Portrait of Rotterdam and of its creative class that launched a lot of fruitful initiatives Cultural entrepreneurs founded theatre and dance groups to do something positive for the community Artists choose Rotterdam because there is space to work Survey of activities of the Rotterdam Council and of the permanent cultural battle between Amsterdam and Rotterdam Rotterdam also is an attractive stage set for flashy television commercials drama series and films Review in Boekman 19 2007 71 zomer 106 109

Branded Spaces Stephan Sonnenburg, Laura Baker, 2013-02-26 Sweeping transformation of brands has led to a warranted need to conquer space for brand performances Branded spaces emplace agents like consumers or other stakeholders to have an experience that is in multisensual association with a brand In a fast changing world branded spaces are becoming lighthouses for brands for their image and for their relationship to agents Additionally the editors and contributors often use a story like framework to explore how branded spaces are approached as well as to what degree they afford success Management branding marketing sociology psychology and philosophy are some of the disciplines that deal with branded spaces To address the complexity and the multidisciplinary challenge of branded spaces this topic is approached via different categories places and possibilities facts and figures senses and sensualities stories and situations as well as critiques and consequences

Confronting Universalities Mads Anders Baggesgaard, Jakob Ladegaard, 2011-07-15 The universe is expanding the world has gone global and the US has launched a crusade to export the universal right to democracy to every part of the world Under the circumstances it is hardly surprising that the concept of universality is making a remarkable comeback in aesthetic and political theory The meaning of the world however seems more contested than ever Some denounce it as the ideological guise of particular interests others as the conceptual equivalent of totalitarianism But a growing number maintain that universality is an indispensable notion for any genuinely critical aesthetics and politics Confronting Universalities consists of 12 contributors that examine how contemporary works of art in different media and genres influence shape or confront the political realm in both theory and practice by way of the universal The topics of the essays include depictions of German unification identity politics of aesthetic taste contemporary uses of van Gogh globalized photography the infamous Danish cartoons iconic architecture cinematic representations of migration the speeches of Nicolas Sarkozy and the interventions of contemporary art in the war in Afghanistan From various theoretical points of departure they all demonstrate the importance of the universal in the description of political aesthetic practice in a globalising world

Global Innovation and Entrepreneurship Stephen E. Little, Frank M. Go, Teresa Shuk-Ching Poon, 2017-01-09 Addressing the wide ranging challenges of global entrepreneurship and innovation faced by both East and West this edited volume provides a multi faceted overview of the complexity facing entrepreneurial firms within global value chains Viewed from the context of an emerging multi polar world in which Europe and Asia are seen as major actors the book explores their relations which are becoming increasingly crucial for the understanding of global politics trade technology culture and travel Global Innovation and Entrepreneurship includes case studies and discussions from a range of sectors and takes a unique cross disciplinary perspective from European as well as East and South Asian authors Routledge Handbook of Graffiti and Street Art

Jeffrey Ian Ross, 2016-03-02 The Routledge Handbook of Graffiti and Street Art integrates and reviews current scholarship in the field of graffiti and street art Thirty seven original contributions are organized around four sections History Types and Writers Artists of Graffiti and Street Art Theoretical Explanations of Graffiti and Street Art Causes of Graffiti and Street Art Regional Municipal Variations Differences of Graffiti and Street Art and Effects of Graffiti and Street Art Chapters are written by experts from different countries throughout the world and their expertise spans the fields of American Studies Art Theory Criminology Criminal justice Ethnography Photography Political Science Psychology Sociology and Visual Communication The Handbook will be of interest to researchers instructors advanced students libraries and art gallery and museum curators This book is also accessible to practitioners and policy makers in the fields of criminal justice law enforcement art history museum studies tourism studies and urban studies as well as members of the news media The Handbook includes 70 images a glossary a chronology and the electronic edition will be widely hyperlinked The Global City 2.0 Kristin Ljungkvist, 2015-08-27 Global cities all over the world are taking on new roles as they increasingly participate directly and independently in international affairs and global politics So far surprisingly few studies have analyzed the role of the Global City beyond its already well explicated role in the globalized economy How is it that local governments of Global Cities claim international political authority and develop what appears to be their own independent foreign and security policies despite the fact that such policy areas have traditionally been considered to be the core function of nation states and central governments What does it mean to be and to govern the contemporary Global City In this book Kristin Ljungkvist claims that we can better understand why local governments find it to be in their Global City's interest to claim international political authority by exploring how the city's role in the globalized world is constructed and narrated locally A core claim is that Global City hood as a specific type of collective identity can play a constitutive part in such interest formation Combining insights from International Relations and Urban Studies scholarship and with the help of a case study on New York City Ljungkvist develops a new analytical framework for studying the Global City as an international political actor The Global City 2.0 shows that even as the Global City engages in various global issues such as global environmental governance or counterterrorism such pursuit will be framed and rationalized in terms of the city's economic growth The quest for growth and global competitiveness are not necessarily the only available meanings attached to the being and governing of the contemporary Global City However there seems to be a remarkable persistency and attraction in economic ideas and an economistic conception of the Global City Public Branding and Marketing Staci M. Zavattaro, 2021-07-21 This edited volume details public branding and marketing from a global comparative perspective Place branding and marketing practices are now prominent in cities states nations regions and organizations all over the world While disciplines such as hospitality management tourism marketing and business marketing have made inroads into understanding the intricacies of place branding research in public administration and policy is still emerging This volume fills that research gap Including accounts from both the academic and practitioner communities this book bridges the academic practitioner divide and provides a holistic account of branding and marketing in public organizations as well as immediate application and lessons learned The book takes an explicit public administration approach focusing on a wide range of topics such as branding leadership co creation stakeholder engagement education non profit marketing and branding and city administration The book is divided into four sections Section I highlights the process of developing and communicating public branding and marketing efforts Section II focuses specifically on how social media and other digital technologies are used to communicate and evaluate place branding strategies Section III centers on branding at the local government level Section IV highlights how various stakeholder groups come together or not when participating in strategic branding efforts Presenting various methodologies approaches and implications of place branding and marketing across differing social cultural political and economic conditions this book will be of use to scholars and students in public administration tourism studies and business administration as well as professionals and practitioners in the public branding and marketing field Branding Chinese Mega-Cities Per Olof Berg, Emma Björner, 2014-04-25 This interdisciplinary book details the economic cultural and social background of the development of Chinese mega cities as well as presenting the mechanisms of governance and urban growth strategies Therein the main discussion centres on the content Routledge Handbook of Football Marketing Nicolas Chanavat, Michel Desbordes, Nicolas Lorgnier, 2017-03-27 Football is big business The top teams and leagues in world football generate billions of dollars in revenue and serve an audience of billions of fans This book focuses on the marketing of football as the apex of the contemporary football industry Drawing upon key theories and concepts in sport marketing research it highlights the critical strategic and operational elements that underpin effective marketing in football clubs around the world Covering developments in sponsorship marketing communications CRM strategic marketing international marketing and digital media it features authors and cases from countries including the UK US France Spain Germany Italy China and Japan The Routledge Handbook of Consumer Behaviour in Hospitality and Tourism Saurabh Kumar Dixit, 2017-04-07 Consumer behaviour is one of the most explored topics in tourism and hospitality marketing interchangeably denoted by the terms traveller behaviour tourist behaviour or guest behaviour Consumer behaviour acts as an origin for every tourism and hospitality marketing activity It offers an understanding of why people tend to choose certain products or services and what sort of factors influence them in making their decision The decision process of buying tourism products or services takes time because they are mostly intangible in nature due to which there are many risks involved in their buying process The Routledge Handbook of Consumer Behaviour in Hospitality and Tourism aims to explore and critically examine current debates critical reflections of contemporary ideas controversies and pertinent queries relating to the rapidly expanding discipline of consumer behaviour in hospitality and tourism The Handbook offers a platform for dialogue across disciplinary and national boundaries and areas of study through its diverse coverage It is divided into six parts Part I offers an overview of consumer behaviour Part II focuses on the service quality perspectives of consumer behaviour Part III deliberates on customer satisfaction and consumer behaviour linkages Part IV explores the re patronage behaviour of consumers Part V addresses the vital issues concerning online consumer behaviour and Part VI elaborates upon other emerging paradigms of consumer behaviour Although there is no dearth of empirical studies on different viewpoints of consumer behaviour there is a scarcity of literature providing conceptual information The present Handbook is organised to offer a comprehensive theoretical body of knowledge narrating consumer behaviour especially for hospitality and tourism businesses and operations It attempts to fill this research gap by offering a globalised volume comprising chapters organised using both practical and academic approaches This Handbook is essential reading for students researchers and academics of Hospitality as well as those of Tourism Marketing International Business and Consumer Behaviour
