Commercial Directory of the Western States ,1868 The Official Railway Guide ,1884 Assembly West Point Association of Graduates (Organization),1995 Fresh Blood Sanford J. Ungar,1995 Drawing on hundreds of richly textured interviews conducted from one end of the country to the other veteran journalist Sanford J Ungar documents the real life struggles and triumphs of America's newest immigrants. He finds that the self-chosen who arrive every day, most of them legally, still enrich our national character and experience and make invaluable political, economic, social, cultural, and even gastronomic contributions. First-class journalism: a book scholars will use decades from now to find out what it felt like to be an immigrant in the 90s. I do not know of a better description and analysis of contemporary immigration. Roger Daniels, author of Coming to America: A History of Immigration and Ethnicity in American Life. An excellent overview of contemporary immigration issues set within the context of developments in the past fifty years. Ungar makes a strong case for the contributions of recent immigrants and for maintaining a relatively open door in the face of sometimes shrill opposition. Thomas Dublin, editor of Immigrant Voices: New Lives in America. Exactly the right book at the right time. Ungar looks at the national controversy over immigration policy with a clear eye, producing a history and a convincing argument why this is no time to reverse a liberal welcome to newcomers that has always, in good times and bad, made this a better and more prosperous democracy. Ben H. Bagdikian, author of Double Vision. The Northwestern Reporter, 1898. The Standard Fourth Reader. Epes Sargent, 1861.
