Science and Sensibility David Howe,2025-01-30 In an outer arm of the spiralling Milky Way galaxy can be seen an insignificant speck This is our home planet Earth Its skies clouds lands and seas and indeed life itself have long drawn the interest of scientists and artists alike Our cultural and scientific history is evidence enough that curiosity and wonder are the twin drivers of both scientific and artistic imaginations In Science and Sensibility David Howe unveils the stories of the scientists who helped to make sense of the stars clouds life rocks and the elements and weaves their tales with the thoughts and feelings of artists who found meaning as they experienced nature s beauty grandeur and mystery Scientific greats such as James Hutton Charles Darwin Dmitri Mendeleev Gregor Mendel and Annie Jump Cannon all the way up to today s leading scientists are complemented by the literary insights of people such as William Wordsworth Jorge Luis Borges and Iris Murdoch Readers are encouraged to embrace what the sciences and the arts can reveal together In doing so the earth below and the heavens above become brighter and richer The wonder and curiosity embodied in Science and Sensibility could perhaps take us a step closer to holding Infinity in the palm of your hand and Eternity in an hour

Social Housing Found Robert B. Whittlesey,2015-09-14 South End Community

Development Inc was a new idea when Whittlesey accepted its directorship He worked with the United South End Settlements staff on a successful proposal to rehabilitate South End houses in one of Bostons urban renewal areas They received a grant from the US Federal Housing and Home Agencies for 205 000 matched with a contribution of 50 000 from the United South End Settlements and 75 000 from the Committee of the Permanent Charity Fund now known as the Boston Foundation This book tells the story of the completion of that Demonstration Program of its transformation into a technical assistance corporation and its expansion into the Greater Boston area Convinced that financing was key for successful affordable housing ventures Whittlesey accepted the directorship of the Boston Housing Partnership BHP BHP organized the projects raised financing for them and had local community development corporations own and operate them BHP became a model for the nation Conducting a national survey and identifying the presence of significant housing organizations around the country Whittlesey then left BHP to head up the organization of a national association of housing partnerships now known as the Housing Partnership Network HPN With a hundred members by 2014 HPN had collectively developed and preserved over three hundred thousand units of affordable rental housing and built rehabilitated or financed sixty three thousand single family homes

Food and Culture in the Works of Ford Madox Ford, Gertrude Stein, and Virginia Woolf Nanette O'Brien, 2024-01-09 Writing about food has long been a part of autobiographical expression that combines culinary record keeping and histories drawing on the personal and the cultural Concentrating on the transatlantic work of Ford Madox Ford Gertrude Stein and Virginia Woolf this book illuminates modernist uses of the terms civilization and barbarism showing how these concepts are shaped by the rules of preparing and eating food in literature and in public Nanette O'Brien introduces the concept of culinary Impressionism as an extension and repositioning of current scholarly thinking about Ford's literary Impressionism and his synesthetic writing about cookery and small farming She also presents a new reading of Stein's crafting of her modernist authority as interlinked with her cooks and shows Stein's and Toklas's jointly authored unpublished cookbook draft as evidence of their direct authorial collaboration and of Stein adapting domestic culinary techniques into her other writing O'Brien goes on to present new archival research demonstrating that Virginia Woolf's representation of the financial and culinary difference between men's and women's dining in colleges at the University of Cambridge is justified and the material inequality was in fact worse than previously understood This disparity in institutional food intensifies Woolf's later reimagining of the term civilization While drawing on themes of modernism and life writing the everyday domestic life and gender the book argues that food is a vehicle for positive modernist reconceptions of civilization

The Song of Everlasting Sorrow Anyi Wang, 2008 The Song of Everlasting Sorrow follows the adventures of Wang Qiyao a girl born of the crowded labyrinthine alleys of Shanghai's working class neighborhoods Infatuated with the glitz and glamour of 1940s Hollywood Wang Qiyao seeks fame in the Miss Shanghai beauty pageant and this fleeting moment of stardom becomes the pinnacle of her life After the Communist victory Wang Qiyao continues to indulge in the decadent pleasures of the Shanghai bourgeoisie secretly playing mahjong during the antirightist campaign and exchanging lovers on the eve of the Cultural Revolution She reemerges in the 1980s as a purveyor of old Shanghai only to become embroiled in a tragedy that echoes the Hollywood noirs of her youth

The St. Louis African American Community and the Exodusters Bryan M. Jack, 2008-02-01 In the aftermath of the Civil War thousands of former slaves made their way from the South to the Kansas plains Called Exodusters they were searching for their own promised land Bryan Jack now tells the story of this American exodus as it played out in St Louis a key stop in the journey west Many of the Exodusters landed on the St Louis levee destitute appearing more as refugees than as homesteaders and city officials refused aid for fear of encouraging more migrants To the stranded Exodusters St Louis became a barrier as formidable as the Red Sea and Jack tells how the city's African American community organized relief in response to this crisis and provided the migrants with funds to continue their journey The St Louis African American Community and the Exodusters tells of former slaves such as George Rogers and Jacob Stevens who fled violence and intimidation in Louisiana and Mississippi It documents the efforts of individuals in St Louis such as Charlton Tandy Moses Dickson and Rev John Turner who reached out to help them But it also shows that black aid to the Exodusters was more than charity Jack argues that community support was a form of collective resistance to white supremacy and segregation as well as a statement for freedom and self direction reflecting an understanding that if the Exodusters right to freedom of movement was limited so would be the rights of all African Americans He also discusses divisions within the African American community and among its leaders regarding the nature of aid and even whether it should be provided In telling of the community's efforts a commitment to civil rights that had started well before the Civil War Jack provides a more complete picture of St Louis as a city of Missouri as a state and of African American life in an era of dramatic change Blending African American southern western and labor history The St Louis African American Community and the Exodusters offers an important new lens for exploring the complex racial relationships that existed within post Reconstruction America

City Critters Nicholas Read, 2012-04-01 When we think of wild animals we don't immediately associate them with the cities we live in But a closer look soon reveals that we share our urban environment with a great many untamed creatures Heavily illustrated and full of entertaining and informative facts City Critters examines how and why so many wild animals choose to live in places that on first glance at least seem contrary to their needs How do those deer raccoons squirrels skunks coyotes crows gulls and geese not to mention the alligators eagles otters and snakes manage to survive in the big city What special skills do city critters have that many of their wilderness cousins lack Why have they developed these skills And what are our responsibilities in ensuring that these animals can continue to share our city lives
