City Women:

Women and the City Sarah Deutsch, 2000 A penetrating analysis of how women shaped public and private space in Boston and how space shaped women's lives in turn during a period of dramatic change in American cities City Women Eleanor Kathryn Hubbard, 2012-03 City Women is a major new study of the lives of ordinary women in early modern London Drawing on thousands of pages of Londoners' depositions for the consistory court it focuses on the challenges that preoccupied London women as they strove for survival and preferment in the burgeoning metropolis Balancing new demographic data with vivid case studies Eleanor Hubbard explores the advantages and dangers that the city had to offer from women's first arrival to London as migrant maidservants through the vicissitudes of marriage widowhood and old age In early modern London women's opportunities were tightly restricted Nonetheless before 1640 the city's unique demographic circumstances provided unusual scope for marital advancement and both maids and widows were quick to take advantage of this Similarly moments of opportunity emerged when the powerful sexual anxieties that associated women's speech and mobility with loose behaviour came into conflict with even more powerful anxieties about the economic stability of households and communities As neighbours and magistrates sought to reconcile their competing priorities in cases of illegitimate pregnancy marital disputes working wives remarrying widows and more women were able to exploit the resulting uncertainty to pursue their own ends By paying close attention to the aspirations and preoccupations of London women themselves their daily struggles small triumphs and domestic tragedies City Women provides a valuable new perspective on the importance of early modern women's efforts in the growing capital and on the nature of early modern English society as a whole Peasant Maids, City Women Christiane Harzig, 1997 No way but out German women in Mecklenburg Monika Blaschke To be matched or to move Irish women's prospects in Munster Deirdre Mageean Maids in motion Swedish women in Dalsland Margareta Matovic Land and loyalties contours of Polish women's lives Maria Anna Knothe Creating a community German American women in Chicago Christiane Harzig Making sense and providing structure Irish American women in the parish neighborhood Deirdre Mageean Embracing a middle class life Swedish American women in Lake View Margareta Matovic Recent arrivals Polish immigrant women's response to the city Maria Anna Knothe Working Women of Collar City Carole Turbin, 2023-02-13 Why have some working women succeeded at organizing in spite of obstacles to labor activity Under what circumstances were they able to form alliances with male workers Carole Turbin explores these and other questions by examining the case of Troy New York In the 1860s Troy produced nearly all the nation's detachable shirt collars and cuffs The city's collar laundresses were largely Irish immigrants Their union was officially the nation's first women's labor organization and one of the best organized Turbin provides a new perspective on gender and shows that women's family ties are not necessarily a conservative influence but may encourage women's and men's collective action Women and the City, Women in the City Nazan Maksudyan, 2014-09-01 An attempt to reveal recover and reconsider the roles positions and actions of Ottoman women this volume reconsiders the negotiations alliances and agency of women in asserting themselves in the public domain in late and post Ottoman cities Drawing on diverse theoretical backgrounds and a variety of source materials from court records to memoirs to interviews the contributors to the volume reconstruct the lives of these women within the urban sphere With a fairly wide geographical span from Aleppo to Sofia from Jeddah to Istanbul the chapters offer a wide panorama of the Ottoman urban geography with a specific concern for gender roles

Working Women Count! ,1994 Democracy, Citizenship and the Global City Engin F. Isin,2013-04-15 Democracy Citizenship and the Global City focuses on the controversial neglected theme of citizenship It examines the changing role of citizens their rights obligations and responsibilities as members of nation states and the issue of accountability in a global society Using this interdisciplinary approach the book offers an innovative collection of work from Robert A Beauregard Anna Bounds Janine Brodie Richard Dagger Gerard Delanty Judith A Garber Robert J Holton Warren Magnusson Raymond Rocco Nikolas Rose Evelyn S Ruppert Saskia Sassen Bryan S Turner John Urry Gerda R Wekerle and Nira Yuval Davis

Gender and Women's Leadership Karen O'Connor,2010-08-18 These volumes provide an authoritative reference resource on leadership issues specific to women and gender with a focus on positive aspects and opportunities for leadership in various domains

The New Woman Sally Ledger,1997 By comparing fictional representations with real New Women in late Victorian Britain Sally Ledger makes a major contribution to an understanding of the Woman Question at the end of the century Chapters on imperialism socialism sexual decadence and metropolitan life situate the revolting daughters of the Victorian age in a broader cultural context than previous studies

Stepping Lively in Place Joyce Linda Broussard,2016-07-15 Enlivened with profiles and vignettes of some of the remarkable people whose histories inform this study Stepping Lively in Place shows how free single women navigated life in a busy slave based river port town before and during the Civil War and how these women transitioned during Reconstruction emancipation and thereafter It examines how free single women in one city including prostitutes entrepreneurs and elite plantation ladies coped with life unencumbered or unprotected by husbands The book pays close attention to the laws affecting southern gender and sociocultural traditions focusing especially on how the town s free single women maneuvered adroitly but guardedly within the legal arena in which they lived Joyce Linda Broussard looks at all types of free single women black and white law abiding and criminal including spinsters widows divorcees and abandoned women She demonstrates the nuanced degrees to which these women understood that the legal cultural and social traditions of their place and time could alternately constrain or empower them often achieving thereby a considerable amount of independence as women Before the Civil War says Broussard the town s patriarchal community tolerated often reluctantly even the most independent minded and often disorderly free single women as long as their behavior left unchallenged the institutions of white male mastery slavery and marriage She explores the impact of the Civil War and Reconstruction on the town s single women especially when thousands of formerly enslaved women and new widows swelled their ranks With slavery dead and male authority undermined Broussard demonstrates how the not married women of postbellum Natchez confronted a world turned inside out with a determinedly resolute dexterity Statements at Bolshevik Women Barbara Evans Clements, 1997-08-13 Bolshevik Women is a history of the women who joined the Soviet Communist Party before 1921. The book examines the reasons these women became revolutionaries, the work they did in the underground before 1917, their participation in the revolution and civil war, and their service in the building of the USSR. Drawing on a database of more than five hundred individuals as well as on intensive research into the lives of the most prominent female Bolsheviks, the study argues that women were important members of the Communist Party at its lower levels during its formative years. They were lieutenants printing leaflets, speaking to crowds, and running party operations in the cities. They also created one of the most remarkable efforts to emancipate women from traditional society of the twentieth century. This book traces their fascinating lives from the earliest years of the revolutionary movement through to their old age in the time of Khrushchev and Brezhnev.
