Wittenberg are back with the second and final installment of If We Are Striking for Pennsylvania The Army of Northern Virginia s and Army of the Potomac s March to Gettysburg This compelling and bestselling study is the first to fully integrate the military political social economic and civilian perspectives with rank and file accounts from the soldiers of both armies during the inexorable march north toward their mutual destinies at Gettysburg Gen Robert E. Lee s bold movement north which began on June 3 shifted the war out of the central counties of the Old Dominion into the Shenandoah Valley across the Potomac and beyond The first installment June 3-22 1863 carried the armies through the defining mounted clash at Battle of Brandy Station after which Lee pushed his corps into the Shenandoah Valley and achieved the magnificent victory at Second Winchester on his way to the Potomac Caught flat footed Maj Gen Joseph Hooker used his cavalry to probe the mountain gaps triggering a series of consequential mounted actions The current volume June 23-30 completes the march to Gettysburg and details the actions and whereabouts of each component of the armies up to the eve of the fighting The large scale maneuvering in late June prompted General Hooker to move his Army of the Potomac north after his opponent and eventually above the Potomac where he loses his command to the surprised Maj Gen George G.
