Civil War Episode 5 Universe Of Battle 1863:

A Great Disorder Richard Slotkin,2024-03-05 The culture wars are pitting us against each other with a vitriol that is fueling outright violence Slotkin looks to the foundational myths that have shaped American identity the Frontier the Founding the Civil War Emancipation and the Lost Cause and the Good War and reveals why they are bringing the US to the brink of an existential crisis

Insurrection Keith David Reeves,2015-10-01 Enough Private interests politicians reformers and pundits have had their chance and enough is enough Teachers have been pushed around and pushed to the edge and the time for tolerating the failed system of our public education policies is over It s time to drag the standardized testing commercial complex out of our schools kicking and screaming if need be and take back our schools for our kids The revolution has already begun We must understand the etiology of the American public school s seeming inability to meaningfully and holistically teach every child if we are to have any hope of changing that school for the better We must wrestle with the philosophical sociological and psychological roots of our misperception and mistreatment of children in order to change the way we understand our students We must also understand the history of reform in American education in order to avoid repeating failed experiments Once we do this we can dismantle the traditional structures of the American Public School deliberately and thoughtfully and capitalize upon the intense zeitgeist of the movement against corporatized standardized multiple choice testing in order to truly revolutionize our schools Over five sequential sections Insurrection addresses educational philosophy the system of schools the social issue of misunderstanding children replacement structures for those that are incompatible with understandings corrected in the first three sections and a possible manner in which current school employees can lend their efforts to the revolution called for by Sir Ken Robinson in his 2010 TED Talk which served as the impetus for the work

The Battle of the Frigidus River, AD 394 Nic Fields,2024-07-31 Nic Fields draws on detailed knowledge of available sources and his own visits to the battlefield to set the battle within the context of its political situation and religious impact upon history The Battle of the Frigidus River fought on 5 and 6 September 394 in what is now Slovenia was a crucial clash between the Eastern Roman emperor Theodosius later the Great and the usurper Eugenius who had seized power in the Western Empire The battle was hard fought and lasted two days At the end of the first Theodosius was on the brink of defeat but the following day a great wind blowing against his enemy resulted in him securing a decisive victory Eugenius like Theodosius was a Christian but unlike Theodosius he was tolerant of pagans so this wind was seen as miraculous and the victory was attributed to God s favour Nic Fields narrative sets the battle in the context of the political situation within the empire and the campaigns leading up to this pivotal showdown The armies of both protagonists are described the tactics and strategy of the time discussed Drawing on his detailed knowledge of the sources the latest research and his own visits to the battlefield and surrounding terrain the author then recounts the battle itself Importantly he reveals the natural phenomenon behind the miracle that saved Theodosius Finally the author analyzes and assesses the aftermath and consequences of this significant clash which included Eugenius execution and the temporary reunification of the Eastern and Western Roman empires *Statewide Audiovisual Service ...
