Civil Islam:

Civil Islam Robert W. Hefner, 2011-05-21 Civil Islam tells the story of Islam and democratization in Indonesia the world's largest Muslim nation Challenging stereotypes of Islam as antagonistic to democracy this study of courage and reformation in the face of state terror suggests possibilities for democracy in the Muslim world and beyond Democratic in the early 1950s and with rich precedents for tolerance and civility Indonesia succumbed to violence In 1965 Muslim parties were drawn into the slaughter of half a million communists In the aftermath of this bloodshed a New Order regime came to power suppressing democratic forces and instituting dictatorial controls that held for decades Yet from this maelstrom of violence repressed by the state and denounced by conservative Muslims an Islamic democracy movement emerged strengthened and played a central role in the 1998 overthrow of the Soeharto regime In 1999 Muslim leader Abdurrahman Wahid was elected President of a reformist civilian government In explaining how this achievement was possible Robert Hefner emphasizes the importance of civil institutions and public civility but argues that neither democracy nor civil society is possible without a civilized state Against portrayals of Islam as inherently antipluralist and undemocratic he shows that Indonesia's Islamic reform movement repudiated the goal of an Islamic state mobilized religiously ecumenical support promoted women's rights and championed democratic ideals This broadly interdisciplinary and timely work heightens our awareness of democracy's necessary pluralism and places Indonesia at the center of our efforts to understand what makes democracy work Islam & Civil Society in Southeast Asia Mitsuo Nakamura, Sharon Siddique, Omar Farouk Bajunid, 2001 The Islamic world often regarded as an anathema to civil society in fact has rich traditions of associational life pursuing common good These religious resources have been reinterpreted for the enhancement of civic virtues and participatory politics in contemporary context that is democratization Such pioneering efforts have been clearly observable in Muslim Southeast Asia In November 1999 the Sasakawa Peace Foundation invited ten Muslim activists and scholars from the region to Japan for exchanging views and experiences among themselves and with Japanese participants Here their papers and discussions are compiled into a book Islam and Civil Society in Southeast Asia Muslim Civil Society and the Politics of Religious Freedom in Turkey Jeremy F. Walton, 2017 In contemporary Turkey a plethora of Muslim NGOs spanning the sectarian divide between Sunni and Alevi Muslims has called into question statist sovereignty over Islam Muslim Civil Society and the Politics of Religious Freedom in Turkey is an ethnographic study of these institutions and their distinctive nongovernmental politics of religious freedom Islamism in Indonesia Bernhard Platzdasch, 2009 The fall of President Soeharto in May 1998 and the introduction of multi party democracy by President BJ Habibie have unleashed religious parties both Islamic and Christian in Indonesian politics This study shows that the Islamist agenda of the Islamist parties is overshadowed by their political pragmatism This book is a must read account on the rise and failure of the Islamist struggle in Indonesia's emerging democracy Platzdasch's work is without a doubt a significant and timely contribution to a better understanding of Islamic politics in contemporary Indonesia Professor Azyumardi Azra Professor of History Director Graduate School Syarif Hidayatullah State Islamic University Jakarta Indonesia Politicizing Islam in Central Asia Kathleen Collins, 2023-06-06

In Politicizing Islam in Central Asia Kathleen Collins explores the causes dynamics and variation in Islamist movements first within the USSR and then in the post Soviet states of Tajikistan Uzbekistan and Kyrgyzstan Drawing upon extensive ethnographic and historical research on Islamist mobilization across numerous post Soviet Central Asian countries she covers over a century and explains the strategies and relative success of each movement Collins argues that in each case state repression of Islam and ideology motivated and enabled Islamist mobilization Abdurrahman Wahid Greg Barton, 2002 In this authorised biography much of which is based on unique first hand observation Greg Barton introduces readers to Abdurrahman Wahid the Indonesian president for 21 tumultuous months from 1999 to late 2001 Gus Dur Greg Barton, 2002 In October 1999 Abdurrahman Wahid almost blind and recovering from a nearfatal stroke was elected as Indonesia's fourth president Referred to as Indonesia's surprising new president by the Economist the man who had commanded the highest respect of his fellow countrymen for his lifetime devotion to public service liberal democracy and tolerant Islam was impeached in humiliating and controversial circumstances less than two years later Wise to some insolent to others Abdurrahman's mercurial style of leadership constantly confounded critics and ultimately caused him to be widely misunderstood by both domestic and international observers For the first time biographer Greg Barton delves beneath the surface and gives us a unique insight into the man and his world drawn from his long relationship with Gus Dur including being at his side during the final extraordinary months of the presidency Those interested in the drama of modern Indonesian politics will find this book provides a fascinating and invaluable account of the enigmatic Gus Dur Islam's Predicament with Modernity Bassam Tibi, 2009-02-25 This book presents an in depth cultural and political analysis of the issue of political Islam as a potential source of tensions and conflict and how this might be peacefully resolved Looking at modernity from an Islamic point of view the author analyses issues such as law knowledge and human rights The Muslim World and Politics in Transition Greg Barton, Paul Weller, Ihsan Yilmaz, 2014-12-18 Examines the impact of the Gulen movement on the contemporary Muslim world Dynamics of Power in Dutch Integration Politics Justus Uitermark, 2025-10-01

Integration politics in the Netherlands has changed dramatically between 1990 and 2005 Whereas ethnic and religious differences were hitherto pacified through accommodation a new and increasingly powerful current in Dutch politics problematized the presence of minorities This development represents a challenge to sociologists and political scientists how to map and explain drastic changes Arguing that extant approaches are better at explaining continuity than change this book develops a relational discourse analysis to understand dynamic power relations in national as well as local politics

National Politics and Sexuality in Transregional Perspective Achim Rohde, Christina von Braun, Stefanie Schüler-Springorum, 2017-11-28 National Politics and Sexuality in Transregional Perspective explores how modern identity politics around the world are gendered and sexualized in multiple ways Constructions of the imagined collective self often contain references to a heteronormative order whereas relevant internal or external others are often felt to deviate from this order through their gendered or sexual practices By contrast some Western countries have witnessed the evolution of LGBTQI friendly discourses by certain political actors in recent years often in the context of the post 9 11 culture wars This pathbreaking book focuses on perceptions of self and other in Europe the Middle East and North Africa from a gendered perspective It deals with anti LGBTQI as well as LGBTQI friendly aspects of modern culture and politics in countries within these regions focusing on the functions such discursive markers play in nationalist and racist imageries in discourses legitimizing class differences from the nineteenth century to the present day including globalized discourses in the context of 9 11 and its aftermath It shows that discourses on sexuality and gendered performances in everyday life often undermine the stability of such binary constructions as they point to the multiplicity ambivalence and the indeterminate character of individual and collective identities under conditions of modernity Addressing contemporary identity politics both in a wider historical context and within a transregional comparative framework thus helps to discern differences and similarities between different world regions and serves to dislocate essentialized notions of cultural differences based on gender and sex This book will appeal to those with an interest in Political Sociology Gender Studies and Globalisation The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art, 1872
