Clab Acts International Feminist Perspectives On Women And Social Clab:

Transnational Feminism and Women's Movements in Post-1997 Hong Kong Adelyn Lim, 2015-06-01 This study demonstrates that recognizing the differences of the women activists promoting disparate agendas leads to a fuller appreciation of the connections and commonalities in the relations among those involved Transnational Feminism and Women's Movements in Post 1997 Hong Kong Solidarity Beyond the State is the first comprehensive account of feminism and women's movements in Hong Kong The unique geographical historical and cultural situation of the city provides the backdrop for Adelyn Lim to bring diverse groups of activists organizing socially disadvantaged and disaffected women many of whom originating from Mainland China or South and Southeast Asia to the foreground Feminism Lim argues is not premised on a collective identity it should rather be understood as a collective frame of action The book begins with a critical history of women's mobilization during the British colonial period and the lead up to governance under the People's Republic of China Subsequent chapters discuss the organizational forms rhetoric and strategies of women's groups in addressing the feminization of poverty engagement with state institutions violence against women prostitution and domestic work Conflicts between feminist ideals and the realities and demands of the sociopolitical environment are thrown into sharp relief The empirical analysis makes a case for Hong Kong to be considered a prime site to challenge and renew the theorizing of transnational feminism In this well written monograph Adelyn Lim explores the multiple forms of women's activism in the tense political environment of post 1997 Hong Kong Using feminist theory and social movement scholarship she explores processes of framing social action and building coalitions in a context where unresolved conflicts abound The result is a rich portrait of activism in one of the world's most globalized cities Andrew Kipnis author of China and Postsocialist Anthropology Theorizing Power and Society after Communism A book about Hong Kong feminisms that manages to be both sweeping and intimate with through lines of historical and political context seamlessly interwoven with details of activist identities and commitments Lim skillfully connects feminist and social movement theory with movement praxis to develop a compelling account of local feminist organizing situated in a clear transnational context Sharon Wesoky author of Chinese Feminism Faces Globalization

Women's Club Football in Brazil and Colombia Mark Biram, 2024-01-15 The first women's football book on Latin America centring the perspectives of players brings rare interview material that cuts through the clichés to uncover the lived reality of women footballers It includes the first large scale survey of South American women footballers views into dialogue with institutional and media perspectives The early chapters consider the backdrop Latin American women footballers operate in a media and institutional panorama that privileges a heteronormative athletic femininity whilst ensuring women's football is never portrayed as anything other than an inferior version of the hegemonic men's game Following this drawing on nine months of ethnographic fieldwork in which 33 semi structured interviews were carried out with players and institutional figures this pioneering book foregrounds the lived reality of women's football in three strategic locations Firstly three months were spent in the Amazon region of Brazil where Esporte Clube Iranduba provides a fascinating alternative model for the growth of women s football This is contrasted with Santos FC where women s football tends to be constantly overshadowed by the presence of banal patriarchy and finally with another fleeting glimpse of how another model is possible at Atl tico Huila of Colombia the surprise winner of the women s Copa Libertadores in 2018

Cultural Alternatives and a Feminist Anthropology Frederick Errington, Deborah Gewertz, 1987 The Chambri of Papua New Guinea are well known as being the Tchambuli of Margaret Mead s influential work Sex and Temperament in which she described them as a people among whom in contrast to Western society women dominated over men In this book however Frederick Errington and Deborah Gewertz re analyse Mead s data and present original material of their own to reveal that Mead misinterpreted the Chambri situation and that in fact Chambri women neither dominate Chambri men nor vice versa They use this reformulated interpretation to discuss the relevance of the Chambri case for the understanding of gender relations in Western society today showing that male dominance is not inevitable At the same time they also use their knowledge of cultural alternatives to clarify Western feminist objectives

Aesthetics in Feminist Perspective Hilde Hein, Carolyn C. Korsmeyer, 1993-09-22 A first rate introduction to the field accessible to scholars working from a variety of disciplinary and theoretical perspectives Highly recommended Choice offers both broad theoretical considerations and applications to specific art forms diverse methodological perspectives and healthy debate among the contributors an outstanding volume Philosophy and Literature this volume represents an eloquent and enlightened attempt to reconceptualize the field of aesthetic theory by encouraging its tendencies toward openness self reflexivity and plurality Discourse Society All of the authors challenge the traditional notion of a pure and disinterested observer that does not allow for questions of race ethnicity class sexual preference or gender Signs These essays examine the intellectual traditions of the philosophy of art and aesthetics Containing essays by scholars and by the writer Marilyn French the collection ranges from the history of aesthetic theory to a philosophical reflection on fashion The contributions are unified by a sustained scrutiny of the nature of feminist feminine or female art creativity and interpretation

Between Men and Feminism (RLE Feminist Theory) David Porter, 2013-05-20 Between Men and Feminism had its origins in a lively colloquium at St John s College Cambridge in 1990 It discusses how two decades of feminism have affected the ways men define their own masculinities and how they have responded in their own social sexual and political lives to the challenges posed by the evolving feminist critiques of patriarchy and maleness itself The collection contains a great diversity of approaches from Britain and North America It includes viewpoints from academics a poet an educational researcher and the members of an active men s group Gay issues feature prominently as do psychoanalytical views and a number of the pieces provide a refreshingly personal and practical outlook Between Men and Feminism shows men finding their own way within the spaces feminism has opened to them rediscovering their own gendered voices and participating in the transformation of controlling ideologies in their daily lives These very readable accounts will appeal not only to students in the social sciences and gender studies but to all men who find themselves responding to the feminist challenge
