God of Becoming and Relationship Rabbi Bradley Shavit Artson, DHL, 2013 You no longer have to choose between what you know and what you believe an accessible introduction to a theological game changer I wrote this book for you if you want to be able to locate your life in a single encompassing story one that includes everything from the first moment the universe began until yesterday a narrative that embraces deepest personal meaning a yearning to love and be loved a quest for social justice and compassion from the Introduction Much of what you were told you should believe when you were younger forces you to choose between your spirit and your intellect between science and religion between morality and dogma unchanging laws of nature vs miracles that sound magical a good God vs the tragedies that strike all living creatures a God who knows the future absolutely vs an open future that you help to shape through your choices This fascinating introduction to Process Theology from a Jewish perspective shows that these are false choices Inspiring speaker spiritual leader and philosopher Rabbi Bradley Shavit Artson presents an overview of what Process Theology is and what it can mean for your spiritual life He explains how Process Theology can break you free from the strictures of ancient Greek and medieval European philosophy allowing you to see all creation not as this or that us or them but as related patterns of energy through which we connect to everything Armed with Process insights and tools you can break free from outdated religious dichotomies and affirm that your religiosity your spirit your mind and your ethics all strengthen and refine each other

A Partner in Holiness Rabbi Jonathan P. Slater, DMin, 2014-07-17 Find inspiration for a satisfying spiritual life of practice through the combination of contemporary mindfulness meditation and classical Hasidic spirituality The soul yearns to feel connected to something greater and to know happiness despite personal suffering and seemingly endless need Surprisingly the perspectives of the late eighteenth and nineteenth century Hasidic spiritual teachers offer a radically different Jewish theology that speaks directly to today's spiritual seekers whose faith has been shattered by both modernity and the Holocaust These masters taught of interdependence interconnectedness selflessness service and joy anticipating the insights of contemporary science and twenty first century spirituality Bringing together the teachings of beloved Hasidic master Rabbi Levi Yitzhak of Berdichev 1740 1809 and the practice of mindfulness meditation Rabbi Jonathan P Slater reveals a new entrance into Jewish spiritual life Covering the Five Books of Moses these two volumes present accessible translations of selections from Kedushat Levi R Levi Yitzhak's Hasidic Torah commentary which emphasizes our spiritual capacity to transform consciousness and so our life experience The selections are paired with Rabbi Slater's commentaries to illuminate their message The lessons in Kedushat Levi were not originally intended as intellectual curiosities or as demonstrations of R Levi Yitzhak's brilliance They were meant to inspire religious passion and deeper spiritual practice I believe that these teachings will come to life in us when we bring them into our lives in practice from the Introduction

The First Jewish Environmentalist Yuval Jobani, 2023 Aharon David Gordon 1856 1922 is increasingly being recognized as the first Jewish environmentalist Long before global warming became a major threat Gordon warned against the mounting dangers of human assault on nature and urged us to open ourselves to nature and re attune with it The First Jewish Environmentalist introduces Gordon's ideas and sets them in their historical context shedding new light on the interconnections between religion culture education and the environment The book expands Gordon's canonical status beyond the realm of Hebrew culture and extracts from Gordon's philosophy empowerment and inspiration for seekers advocating the protection of our planet
