a series of nuanced reflections on semiotics and pedagogical issues that touch upon vital philosophical political communicational visual and interdisciplinary matters of enduring relevance Gary Genosko Editor The Semiotic Review of Books and Canada Research Chair Lakehead University The Primacy of Semiosis Paul Bains, 2014-02-05 How do things come to stand for something other than themselves An understanding of the ontology of relations allows for a compelling account of the action of signs The Primacy of Semiosis is concerned with the ontology of relations and semiosis the action of signs Drawing upon the work of Gilles Deleuze John Deely and John Poinot Paul Bains focuses on the claim that relations are external to their terms and seeks to give an ontological account of this purported externality of relations Bains develops the proposition first made in 1632 by John Poinot John of St Thomas that ontologically signs are relations whose whole being is in esse ad being toward Furthermore relations are found to be univocal in their being as relations This univocity of being is antecedent to the division between ens rationis and ens reale The ontology of relations Bains presents is thus neither mind dependent nor mind independent insofar as the rationale of the relation is concerned The book includes chapters on Deleuze and Deely on relations Jacob von Uexkull and Heidegger on Umwelten self worlds Maturana and Varela on Autopoiesis It provides the vicarious causality by way of the scholastic doctrine of the species that is now being resuscitated by Graham Harman and the emerging school of object oriented ontology The Primacy of Semiosis provides a semiotic that subverts the opposition between realism and idealism one in which what have been called nature and culture interpenetrate in an expanding collective of human and non human Bains work promises to be a touchstone for semiotic discussion for years to come TASTE: Why You Like What You Like Arthur Asa Berger, 2023-03-07 Taste is an enigmatic topic We recognize that taste plays an important role in our life in that everything we buy and many things we do are governed by our sense of taste But what exactly is taste How do we get our sense of taste and how does it affect our everyday lives Does it evolve as we grow older or is it a constant in our lives Is it affected by all the influencers to whom we are exposed as we watch TikTok and commercials or do influencers merely spark some kind of inner sense of taste that was with us all the time Is our taste based on our social and economic status or something else What role do income and cost have in determining what we choose to buy What role do the qualities of what we buy and the choices we make shape our decisions Is taste based on logical thinking about things we wish to do or buy upon emotions we have generated by things like identification status or cultural imperatives Taste always involves some element of choice because if there is no choice taste is irrelevant or moot But what are the determinants when we compare things to buy or get or do when we have choices to make This book takes its point of departure from the work of the French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu whose book Distinction is considered a classic work of sociological analysis The topics dealt with are shown in the table of contents below The book is distinctive in that it offers discussions of four methodologies theories used in discussing taste semiotics psychoanalytic theory sociological theory and Marxist theory and then applies these theories in the second part of the book to a variety of topics involving taste such as

yogurt dogs the singer Celine Dion ocean cruises brands smartphones men s facial hair and so on Readers of the book will learn four methodologies they can use in analyzing taste and see how these methodologies were applied Discourse: The Basics Angela Goddard,Neil Carey,2017-05-18 Humans are social animals and through conversation written communication symbols and other expressions are constantly interacting with each other Discourse is an accessible and engaging introduction to the analysis of those interactions and the many forms expressions and meanings they can take The book draws on a range of international case studies and examples from literature political speech advertising and newspaper articles to address key questions such as What is discourse Why are there different approaches to understanding discourse What issues affect the collection and management of discourse How can discourse be represented God in the Labyrinth Andrew Hollingsworth,2019-10-11 In God in the Labyrinth Andrew Hollingsworth uses Umberto Eco s semiotic concept of the model encyclopedia as the basis for a new model and approach to systematic theology Following an in depth analysis of the model encyclopedia in Eco s semiotics he demonstrates the implications this model has for epistemology hermeneutics and doctrinal development This work aims to bridge the unfortunate gap in research that exists between the fields of systematic theology and semiotics by demonstrating semiotic insights for theological method Law and Order Mariana Valverde,2013-10-18 In an innovative departure from the much studied field of crime in the media this lively book focuses its attention on the forces of law and order how they visualize and represent danger and criminality and how they represent themselves as authorities After two chapters covering basic terms and tools in the study of culture and representation the book covers such topics as the history of justice system methods for visualizing criminality from fingerprinting to DNA the emergence of a forensic gaze that begins with Edgar Allan Poe and Sherlock Holmes and culminates in the American television show Crime Scene Investigation and the rise of ways of seeing urban space that constantly divide the city into good and bad areas The final chapter uses some recent conflicts regarding the legal admissibility of gruesome pictures to reflect on the importance of the visual in our everyday experiences both of safety and of danger Shortlisted for the Hart SLSA Book Prize 2007 Doing Semiotics Laura R.
