makes the learning of those languages that little more difficult Here you speak the word the way it is written e g Ngaka is read as In gaa kah Takane as Tak aan eh Khosi as Koh see etc So sit back and enjoy this unique collection of tales customs and lore from a little known place unseen or heard in the West for many generations 33% of the net profit will be donated to SENTEBALE a charity supporting children in Lesotho orphaned by AIDS Scatalogic Rites of All Nations John Gregory Bourke,2023-11-08 In Scatalogic Rites of All Nations John Gregory Bourke presents a groundbreaking ethnographic exploration of human practices surrounding excretion across diverse cultures Merging rigorous research with a narrative style that is both engaging and informative Bourke delves into the often taboo subject of scatology contextualizing it within the broader scope of human behavior and social customs Not only does the work challenge prevailing notions of propriety in anthropology but it adeptly highlights how mundane practices can reflect profound cultural values and beliefs providing readers with an unprecedented lens through which to view human societies Bourke was a United States Army officer and a keen observer of human nature experiencing first hand the intricacies of various cultures during his military campaigns in the late 19th century His background in the military and exposure to indigenous practices informed his unique approach to anthropology allowing him to gather and record insights that had largely been overlooked by his contemporaries This book emerged from his fascination with the intersections of culture ritual and taboo rendering it a unique contribution to both ethnographic literature and the understanding of human societal norms Scatalogic Rites of All Nations is an essential read for anyone intrigued by anthropology cultural studies or the complexities of human behavior Bourke s scholarly work invites readers to reconsider the everyday practices that shape sociocultural identities challenging us to confront our perceptions of the habitual and the sacred Engaging enlightening and often humorous this book offers a fresh perspective on humanity s shared rituals making it a valuable addition to the library of both scholars and curious minds alike The Origin of Freemasonry: the 1717 Theory Exploded Chalmers Izett Paton,1871 Southern African Folktales J.K. of their origins sickness death and after death the meaning of natural phenomena such as earthquakes eclipses of the sun and moon birth of twins etc and how to protect themselves from such mysterious events They invented God and gods and the occult sciences witch craft divination and soothsaying in order to seek the protection of supernatural powers while individuals used them to gain power to dominate others and to accumulate wealth Human sacrifice was one way in which they sought to expiate the gods for what they believed were punishments for their transgressions One example the Ghana Asante Kingdom s very origins are associated with human sacrifice On the eve of war against Denkyira individuals volunteered themselves to be sacrificed in order to guarantee victory Later human sacrifice in Asante was mainly politically motivated as kings and religious leaders offered human sacrifice in remembrance of their ancestral spirits and to seek their protection against their enemies The Asante Kingdom is one of several examples included in this study of human sacrifice and ritual killing on the African continent Case studies include practices in Sierra Leone Tanzania Mainland Zanzibar Uganda and Swaziland Advertisements relating to the occult was a common feature of Drum magazine the popular South African magazine in Southern Eastern and Central Africa in late years of colonial and early years of postcolonial periods indicating a wide belief in these practices among the people in these countries Each case examined is introduced by an expose of folklore that puts in perspective beliefs in the supernatural and how folklore continues to perpetuate them Through careful study of these select cases this book highlights general features of human sacrifice which recur with striking uniformity in all parts of sub Saharan Africa and why they persist until today He draws upon extensive written sources to expose these practices in other cultures including those in Western societies International Handbook of Research on Indigenous Entrepreneurship L. -P. In Search of the Swan Maiden Barbara Fass Leavy,1995-07-01 In her compendious study of the folktale of the runaway wife Leavy argues that the contradictory claims of nature and culture are embodied in the legendary figure of the swan maiden a woman torn between the human and bestial worlds The New York Times Book Review This is a study of the meaning of gender as framed by the swan maiden tale a story found in the folklore of virtually every culture The swan maiden is a supernatural woman forced to marry keep house and bear children for a mortal man who holds the key to her imprisonment When she manages to regain this key she escapes to the otherworld never to return These tales have most often been interpreted as depicting exogamous marriages describing the girl from another tribe trapped in a world where she will always be the outsider Barbara Fass Leavy believes that in the societies in which the tale and its variants endured woman was the other the outsider trapped in a society that could never be her own Leavy shows how the tale though rarely explicitly recognized is frequently replayed in modern literature Beautifully written this book reveals the myriad ways in which the folktales of a society reflect its cultural values and particularly how folktales are allegories of gender relations It will interest anyone involved in literary gender and cultural studies Luzac & Co.'s Oriental List ,1903 Oriental list (and book review quarterly). The friendship with William Blackwood resulted in Whibley's monthly Musings without Method from February 1900 to December 1929 a contribution which Eliot called one of the best sustained pieces of literary journalism that I know in recent times Northcliffe was a close friend as was Sir Frederick Macmillan of the publishing firm From 1906 until October 1920 Whibley contributed a Saturday column in Northcliffe's Daily Mail and for many years was a reader for Macmillan's His friendship and infatuation with Cynthia Asquith lives strongly in his letters although there is hardly any mention of his wife Ethel Much of his literary work was with biographical essays of literary and political persons After the death of Ethel in 1920 Whibley visited Brazil sending back reports to Cynthia Asquith Whibley contributed to Eliot's Criterion and also helped Eliot to acquire British citizenship Apart from his continued journalism Whibley worked as a consultant for the Royal Literary Fund later becoming a committee member In 1927 he married his Goddaughter Philippa Raleigh Whibley's death in France in March 1930 robbed the literary world of his biography of W E Henley Many of his letters deal with his literary work with the Macmillan's Blackwood's Magazine and his friendship with Cynthia Asquith and in some letters to Northcliffe he parades his Tory views He was a supporter of the Great War though little appears in his letters

Sandra Swart, 2025-05-06 Until the lion has a historian of his own the tale of the hunt will always glorify the hunter Sandra Swart takes up the challenge of that African proverb and with this book becomes the lion's historian As a species humans are not alone but our history has been written as though we were Swart insists on a multispecies retelling of our more than human past as she reconstructs a shifting series of significant interspecies relationships from quirky idiosyncratic connections to others that triggered major changes Embracing a radical interdisciplinarity informed by a background in history and environmental studies Swart combines the natural sciences with the social sciences oral history indigenous knowledge and archival research She blends current thinking about animal sentience agency cognition and emotion to offer a new way to understand animals roles in our shared history The animals in this book baboons cows elephants hippos horses jackals lions Nazi cattle okapi police dogs quagga sheep and white ants exemplify different facets of our shared past With this animal centric lens decades of research come together in a collection that takes animals seriously It is a book with claws and fangs tearing through conventional narratives to ask Are we prepared to move beyond the convention that history is the story of only our own species
