Art And Lies Edition By Winterson Jeanette:

Art and Lies Jeanette Winterson, 1994 There is no such thing as autobiography there is only art and lies Set in a London of the near future its three principal characters Handel Picasso and Sappho separately flee the city and find themselves on the same train drawn to one another through the curious agency of a book Stories within stories take us through the unlikely love affairs of one Doll Sneerpiece an 18th century bawd and into the world of painful beauty where language has the power to heal Art Lies is a question and a quest How shall I live From the Trade Paperback edition Art & Lies Jeanette Winterson, 2013-04-26 Brave and ambitious Independent In a near future London Sappho Picasso and Handel each set upon the same plan to flee the city by train Finding themselves fellow passengers the poet the painter and the musician discover their fates drawn together by the curious agency of a book As stories within stories unfold and journeys intersect another world comes to the fore one of painful beauty where language has the power to heal Winterson's belief in love beauty and most of all language is evangelical and redemptive it is timely and exciting to read Rachel Cusk The Times Winterson

Narrating Time and Space Mine Özyurt Kılıç, Margaret J-M Sönmez, 2009-05-27 In this book scholars students and aficionados of Jeanette Winterson will find ten analyses of time space and narrative in her works From her very first novel Jeanette Winterson has made her characters move in time and in space and she has always shown a sophisticated interest in narrative forms and this is the first book to focus entirely on these central concerns The writers of the essays provide different perspectives on the three subjects from postmodernism to quantum physics queer theory to genre studies and the uncanny to stylistics In its section on time and narrative the volume offers a fresh approach to Winterson's works with a concentration on autobiographical elements love desire the language of quantum physics and the queer uncanny The next section space and narrative pursues the motifs of journeys utopic spaces cyberspace and labyrinths and includes a chapter on the shorter fiction The last section which comprises essays that cover all three elements of time space and narrative equally examines these themes as they affect Winterson's representation of voices and corporeality and her use of romance narrative in the children's fiction The volume covers Winterson's major fiction with the Introduction connecting the images of huts rivers and fire gazing that are found extensively in her works to the themes of time and space and bringing the discussion up to Winterson's latest novel The Stone Gods A mixture of established and new scholars presents in this book an exciting array of the latest ideas on this respected and popular writer Jeanette Winterson Susana Onega Jaén, 2006-09-05 This is the first full length study of Jeanette Winterson's complete oeuvre offering detailed analysis of her nine novels as well as addressing her non fiction and minor fictional work Susana Onega combines the study of formal issues such as narrative structure perspective and point of view with thematic analyses approached from a variety of theoretical perspectives from narratology and feminist theory to Hermetic and Kabalistic symbolism to provide a comprehensive vertical analysis of Winterson's novels Postmodern Utopias and Feminist Fictions Jennifer A. Wagner-Lawlor, 2013-07-31 This study examines feminist speculative fiction from the late twentieth and early twenty first century and finds within it a new vision for the future Rejecting notions of postmodern utopia as exclusionary Jennifer A Wagner Lawlor advances one defined in terms of hospitality casting what she calls imaginative sympathy as the foundation of utopian desire Tracing these themes through the works of Atwood Butler Lessing and Winterson as well as those of well known Muslim feminists such as El Saadawi Parsipur and Mernissi Wagner Lawlor balances literary analysis with innovative extensions of feminist philosophy to show how inclusionary utopian thinking can inform and promote political agency Examining these contemporary fictions reveals the rewards of attending to a community that acknowledges difference diversity and the imaginative potential of every human being

The Genesis of Fiction Terry R. Wright, 2016-03-09 This book considers a range of twentieth century novelists who practise a creative mode of reading the Bible exploring aspects of the Book of Genesis which more conventional biblical criticism sometimes ignores Each chapter considers some of the interpretive challenges of the relevant story in Genesis especially those noted by rabbinic midrash which serves as a model for such creative rewriting of the biblical text All the novelists considered from Mark Twain John Steinbeck and Thomas Mann to Jeanette Winterson Anita Diamant and Jenny Diski are shown to have been aware of the midrashic tradition and in some cases to have incorporated significant elements from it into their own writing The questions these modern and postmodern writers ask of the Bible however go beyond those permitted by the rabbis and by other believing interpretive communities Each chapter therefore attempts to chart intertextually where the writers are coming from what principles govern their mode of reading and rewriting Genesis and what conclusions can be drawn about the ways in which it remains possible to relate to the Bible

The Limits of

Autobiography Leigh Gilmore, 2023-07-15 In The Limits of Autobiography Leigh Gilmore analyzes texts that depict trauma by combining elements of autobiography fiction biography history and theory in ways that challenge the constraints of autobiography Astute and compelling readings of works by Michel Foucault Louis Althusser Dorothy Allison Mikal Gilmore Jamaica Kincaid and Jeanette Winterson explore how each poses the questions How have I lived and How will I live in relation to the social and psychic forms within which trauma emerges First published in 2001 this new edition of one of the foundational texts in trauma studies includes a new preface by the author that assesses the gravitational pull between life writing and trauma in the twenty first century a tension that continues to produce innovative and artful means of confronting kinship violence and self representation

Intimacy and Identity in the Postmodern Novel Emilija Dimitrijevic, 2008

This book focuses on the themes of intimacy and identity in the contemporary novel and in particular in the novels of A S Byatt Angela Carter and Jeanette Winterson Not only do the specificity of the contemporary social context and a growing awareness of the relational nature of the concepts of intimacy and identity set these novels apart from earlier writing that take these issues more for granted Their very concern with the themes of intimacy and identity also sets them apart from much postmodernist or mannerist writing that chooses to cold shoulder these arguments The study draws on work by contemporary social theorists and philosophers and aims to examine issues which although central to the writing of these authors have been neglected or treated superficially in literary criticism Finally it looks into the ways in which the new approaches to the question of intimacy and identity relate and contribute to contemporary debates on the postmodern novel

Piecing Together the Fragments Josephine Balmer, 2013-09-26 Balmer examines the art of classical translation from the perspective of the practitioner From translating classical texts to her poetry collections inspired by classical literature she discusses her own relationship with ancient literature and uncovers the various strategies and approaches she has employed in their transformations into English

Queer Experimental Literature Teagan Bradway, 2017-05-09 This volume argues that postwar writers queer the affective relations of reading through experiments with literary form Tyler Bradway conceptualizes bad reading as an affective politics that stimulates queer relations of erotic and political belonging in the event of reading These incipiently social relations press back against legal economic and discursive forces that reduce queerness into a mode of individuality Each chapter traces the affective politics of bad reading against moments when queer relationality is prohibited obstructed or destroyed from the pre Stonewall literary obscenity debates through the AIDS crisis to the emergence of neoliberal homonormativity and the gentrification of the queer avant garde Bradway contests the common narrative that experimental writing is too formalist to engender a mode of social imagination Instead he illuminates how queer experimental literature uses form to redraw the affective and social relations that structure the heteronormative public sphere Through close readings informed by affect theory Queer Experimental Literature offers new perspectives on writers such as William S Burroughs Samuel R Delany Kathy Acker Jeanette Winterson Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Alison Bechdel and Chuck Palahniuk Queer Experimental Literature ultimately reveals that the recent turn to affective reading in literary studies is underwritten by a para academic history of bad reading that offers new idioms for understanding the affective agencies of queer aesthetics

Jeanette Winterson Susana Onega, 2013-07-19 This is the first full length study of Jeanette Winterson s complete oeuvre offering detailed analysis of her nine novels as well as addressing her non fiction and minor fictional work Susana Onega combines the study of formal issues such as narrative structure perspective and point of view with thematic analyses approached from a variety of theoretical perspectives from narratology and feminist theory to Hermetic and Kabalistic symbolism to provide a comprehensive vertical analysis of Winterson s novels Onega reveals the books as complex linguistic artefacts crammed with intertextual echoes She demonstrates the inseparability of form and meaning within Winterson s work and positions her within the wider context of contemporary British fiction alongside fellow visionaries such as Peter Ackroyd Maureen Duffy and Marina Warner
