Perspectives on Teaching, Learning and Development Andrew Garrod,1984 Catalog Oregon State Agricultural College,1975 Developing Writers of Argument Michael W. Smith,Jon-Philip Imbrenda,2017-12-22 The ability to make effective arguments is not only necessary in students academic lives it s a transferable skill that s essential to students future success as critical thinkers and contributing members of society But in the here and now how do we engage students and ensure they understand argument writing s fundamental components How do we take them from Here s what I think to Here s what I think Here s what makes me think that And here s why it matters This stunning full color book by Michael Smith and Jon Philip Imbrenda shows the way with ready to implement lessons that make argument writing topical and relevant Students are first asked to form arguments about subjects that matter to them and then to reflect on the structure of those arguments a process that provides learners with valuable reusable structural models Throughout the book the authors provide helpful instructional tools including Literary nonfiction and author created simulated texts that inspire different points of view Essential questions to create a context that rewards argumentation Lessons introducing students to the three essential elements of an argument claim data and warrant and how to make each effective Questioning probes semantic differential scales and other innovative instructional approaches Samples of writing from the authors own students and enlightening details on how this work informed the authors subsequent teaching approach Complete with guidance on applying the lessons techniques in a broader unit wide context Developing Writers of Argument offers a practical approach for instructing students in this crucial aspect of their lifelong development The Craft of Argument Joseph M. Williams,Gregory G. Colomb,2001 A guide for students on the art of crafting arguments to solve problems or answer contested questions It explains the elements of argument in clear concise terms with abundant illustrations and practical methods for planning drafting and revising written arguments Emphasis is placed on showing Teaching Expository Writing ,1986 Teaching Expository Writing Mary Louise Stewart,University of Hong Kong,1986 The Well-Crafted Argument Fred D. White,Simone J. Billings,2010-02-23 Incorporating new articles expanded commentary and the latest changes from the 2009 MLA Handbook and 2009 APA Publication Manual the 4th Edition of THE WELL CRAFTED ARGUMENT guides students through the process of writing effective arguments across the disciplines The two part structure of this rhetoric reader includes a complete pedagogical apparatus with coverage of critical reading strategies as well as writing researching and documenting a topic and an anthology of readings grouped into nine thematic clusters In depth instruction combined with real student writings engages students and helps them discover their own voices The Fourth Edition continues the visual emphasis from the 3rd Edition while maintaining the authors practical skill building approach Each chapter in Part I ends with a Summary Checklist and Writing Projects while each cluster in Part II ends with

Connections Among the Clusters Writing Projects and Suggestions for Further Reading These sections encourage students to apply what they ve learned and go beyond the classroom if a topic is of particular interest to them In addition to guidance on drafting and revising arguments the authors provide a variety of composition strategies including freewriting outlining and shared reading Intervention in the Teaching of Expository Writing Antonia Chandrasegaran, Clara Kah Mun

Kong, Deborah Fengyi Chua, 2007 The objectives of this research were To devise and test instructional materials for teacher intervention in students expository writing processes with the aim of shaping student thinking and writing behaviour in the direction of the norms of school based expository text types To evaluate the effect on student writing of explicit instruction in cognitive procedures and genre practices associated with school based expository text types To determine the viability of moving from a grammar and topic knowledge focused approach to teaching expository writing to an approach that prioritises the teaching of the thinking processes and social practices of expository writing page 2
