Craigie Horsfield:

Craigie Horsfield Craigie Horsfield, 1988 Craigie Horsfield conversation Uta Nusser, 1999 Craigie Horsfield Craigie Horsfield, Bruno Fornari, Nancy Princenthal, 2016 Craigie Horsfield is known for his profoundly moving images of individuals and groups of people as well as atmospheric representations of landscapes often produced as tapestries on an epic scale Following exhibitions in New York London Paris Sydney and Antwerp Centraal Museum presents the artist's largest solo exhibition in the Netherlands to date With around forty works in a range of media including photography tapestry fresco technique and a new site specific sound work the museum gives you the opportunity to reflect on your relationship to the world and how you perceive the world Craigie Horsfield, 1988 Craigie Horsfield Craigie Horsfield, França. Galerie Nationale du Jeu de paume, Museum of Contemporary Art (Sydney, N.S.W.), 2006 Text by Craigie Horsfield Carol Armstrong Slavoj Zizek David Ebony Bracha Lichtenberg Ettinger Serge Guilbaut Craigie Horsfield C. Horsfield, 1992 Craigie Horsfield: Confluence and Consequence Craigie Horsfield, Carol M. Armstrong, Bart de Baere, 2010 Craigie Horsfield's incredibly moving photographic and video meditations on the phenomenon of the crowd elicit a magical sensation of life passing by at great speed with both warmth and sadness Horsfield grasps that the very idea of the crowd transforms itself constantly both in specific circumstances of congregation such as dance and as an historical phenomenon today we rarely envisage a crowd as a positive agency of social change for example Commonly identified as a photographer Horsfield has often worked in other media video sound drawing performance and installation but this volume broaches new terrain reproducing a series of tapestries titled Confluence and Consequence a title which might stand for the artist's fascination with crowd activity The rich metaphors of weaving in relation to crowds and the warmth of fabric itself responding to Horsfield's imagery are amply conveyed in this beautifully produced volume Craigie Horsfield, Carnegie International 1995 Richard Armstrong, Paola Morsiani, Carnegie Museum of Art, 1995 The Road to Parnassus: Artist Strategies in Contemporary Art Diego Mantoan, 2020-10-06 How can one become a successful artist Where should one start a career in the art world What are useful strategies to achieve recognition in the art system Such questions hoard in students' minds ever since entering art school and they probably chase every kind of art professional who is at an early career stage The Road to Parnassus tries to understand what makes a good start in today's art world who are influential players in the field and which strategies might apply The swift career ascension of Glasgow artist Douglas Gordon one of today's leading visual artists and of the broader YBA generation that rose into worldwide prominence in the 1990s Damien Hirst and Sarah Lucas among the best known serves as a convenient case to analyse contemporary artist strategies This book takes a multidisciplinary approach spanning from traditional art history to sociology and economics pursuing the reconstruction of the field of forces in art as intended by French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu Compared to previous publications on art system dynamics such as Thompson's The 12 Million Stuffed Shark this book offers an enhanced understanding of the factors that allow a young artist to enter the arena of contemporary art The present research should help uncover the art system logic which appears enigmatic to non experts revealing that artists are aware they need to consider global trends beat competitors and meet the demands of dealers collectors curators and museums This book furthers existing contributions on the YBAs for example Stallabrass High Art Lite offering innovative conclusions on recent British art such as on the duality between London and Glasgow the gender opposition among emerging artists and the predominance of resourceful authors tacking and a tacktical methodology Louisa Bufardec, 2024-10-02 How can artists and others who find themselves in positions of privilege think differently about the way they do what they do in order to create the conditions for better more just relations to flourish Finding an answer to that question is at the heart of this book After critiquing the relationship between contemporary art race and privilege the author brings together First Nation and feminist philosophies of relationality the game of string figuring and her own history as an artist to propose an alternate methodology that puts relation at the centre of practice She introduces the multivalent concept of tacking a movement at an oblique angle to prevailing winds in order to traverse the waters of contemporary art to challenge power and create a more just future
