Creating Alternative Futures:

Creating Alternative Futures Hazel Henderson,1980 Creating Alternative Futures Hazel Henderson,Lutheran Brotherhood,1979 Alternative Futures in American Education ,1972 Alternative Educational Futures ,2008-01-01

We desperately need the dynamic revolution in education that this book offers us reflecting the new ways of thinking and being on this planet that will permit us to live in peace as a global family even through massive climate changes Read it and put these ideas into practice as quickly as possible in any ways you can Elisabet Sahtouris Evolutionary biologist and futurist author of EarthDance Living Systems in Evolution Creating Strategic Vision ,1987 ECIW2006-Proceedings of the 5th European Conference on i-Warfare and Security Dr Dan Remenyi,2006 Alternative Futures ,1980 Global Futures Jan Nederveen Pieterse,2000 This work looks beyond the problems of accelerating globalization to examine how humanity can shape it The contributors suggest a variety of perspectives changes policies and institutional reforms to strive for in our increasingly inter connected world Design For More-Than-Human Futures Martín Tironi,Marcos Chilet,Carola Ureta Marín,Pablo Hermansen,2023-09-18 This book explores the work of important authors in the search for a transition towards more ethical design focused on more than human coexistence In a time of environmental crises in which the human species threatens its own survival and the highest level of exacerbation of the idea of a future and technological innovation it is important to discard certain anthropocentric categories in order to situate design beyond the role that it traditionally held in the capitalist world creating opportunities to create more just and sustainable worlds This book is an invitation to travel new paths for design framed by ethics of more than human coexistence that breaks with the unsustainability installed in the designs that outfit our lives Questioning the notion of human centered design is central to this discussion It is not only a theoretical and methodological concern but an ethical need to critically rethink the modern colonialist and anthropocentric inheritance that resonates in design culture The authors in this book explore the ideas oriented to form new relations with the more than human and with the planet using design as a form of political enquiry This book will be of interest to academics and students from the world of design and particularly those involved in emerging branches of the field such as speculative design critical design non anthropocentric design and design for transition Alternative Futures and the Present Ranabir Samaddar,2023-05-05 This book explores the idea that alternatives to our present condition are available in the present such that a search for alternatives must involve rigorous study of some of its central texts events and thinkers Through engagement with selected modern thinkers texts and events it imagines a different future from the position of the current postcolonial moment indicating the possibilities that emerge from the present and which shape contemporary radical thinking An invitation to imagine a possible future marked with alternative possibilities of conducting struggles and living through contentions and social restructuring it will appeal to scholars with interests in social and political theory political philosophy colonialism and postcolonialism and historical materialism Nurturing Alternative Futures Muhammad

Kavesh,Natasha Fijn,2023-12-22 Developing upon emerging environmental humanities and multispecies anthropological theories this book provides a fresh perspective on how we might rethink more than human relationality and why it is important to nurture alternative futures The diverse chapters examine the life trajectories of people animals plants and microbes their lived experiences and constituted relationality offering new ways to reinterpret and reimagine a multi species future in the current era of planetary crisis The ethnographic case studies from around the world feature a combination of biological and cultural diversity with analyses that prioritize local and Indigenous modes of thinking While engaging with Mongolian herders Indigenous Yucatec Mayan Congolese farmers rural Pakistani donkey keepers Australian heritage breed farmers Croatian cheesemakers Japanese oyster aquafarmers Texan corn growers Californian cannabis producers or Hindu devotees to the Ganges River the chapters offer a grounded anthropological understanding of imagining a future in relationality with other beings The stories lived experiences and mutual worlding that this volume presents offer a portrayal of alternative forms of multispecies coexistence rather than an anthropocentric future

Alternative Futures for Nonmetropolitan Population, Income, Employment, and Capital Clark Edwards,Rudolph Earl DePass,1975

Futures Beyond Dystopia Richard Slaughter,2004 How can dystopian futures help provide the motivation to change the ways we operate day to day This book raises and tackles a number of important questions about the future and the lessons we can learn for the present

Sustainable Wellbeing Futures Robert Costanza,Jon D. Erickson,Joshua Farley,Ida Kubiszewski,2020-05-29 Ecological economics can help create the future that most people want a future that is prosperous just equitable and sustainable This forward thinking book lays out an alternative approach that places the sustainable wellbeing of humans and the rest of nature as the overarching goal Each of the book s chapters written by a diverse collection of scholars and practitioners outlines a research and action agenda for how this future can look and possible actions for its realisation

Design in the Borderlands Eleni Kalantidou,Tony Fry,2014-05-09 This book makes a significant contribution to advancing post geographic understandings of physical and virtual boundaries It brings together the emergent theory of border thinking with innovative thinking on design and explores the recent discourse on decoloniality and globalism From a variety of viewpoints the topics engaged show how design was historically embedded in the structures of colonial imposition and how it is implicated in more contemporary settings in the extension of epistemological colonialism The essays draw on perspectives from diverse geo cultural and theoretical positions including architecture design theory and history sociology critical theory and cultural studies The authors are leading and emergent figures in their fields of study and practice and the geographic scope of the chapters ranges across Europe the Middle East Africa South America Asia and the Pacific In recognition of the complexity of challenges that are now determining the future security of humanity Design in the Borderlands aims to contribute to thinking futures by adding to the increasingly significant debate between design in the context of the history of Western modernity and decolonial thought
