Art 7 11 Developing Primary Teaching Skills:

Art 7-11 Linda Green, Robin Mitchell, 1997 Aimed at non specialist primary teachers this book offers support for the two attainment targets of the national curriculum in art investigating and making and knowledge and understanding It uses examples and materials to explore various areas of children's development in art making and understanding and also aims to equip teachers with strategies for developing their own understanding and appreciation of the subject Units included cover such areas as children's motivation to make art developing co operative work with artists in schools learning about art from other cultures learning about art from different historical periods 2D and 3D art assessing children's art Assessment and Learning in the Primary School E. C. Wragg, 2003-08-27 This is an innovative yet practical resource book for teachers focusing on the classroom and covering vital skills for primary and secondary teachers The book is strongly influenced by the findings of numerous research projects during which hundreds of teachers were observed at work This book addresses both formal and informal ways of assessing children's work and progress Pupils learning is often neglected in the debate so this book puts what children actually learn right at its centre Divided into six units Ted Wragg addresses important topics such as principles and purposes of assessment written oral and practical evaluation self assessment the whole school approach staff development and appraisal The inclusion of practical activities discussion topics photographs cartoons and case examples makes this a very user friendly book for both trainee and experienced teachers in primary schools Explaining in the Primary School Ted Wragg, George A Brown, 2002-09-26 Wragg and Brown offer activities and discussion points to help teachers build up a repertoire of techniques for various situations and to evaluate the effectiveness of their explanations in the classroom Class Management in the Primary School E. C. Wragg, 2002-09-26 Ted Wragg helps teachers to clarify their own aims and to find the strategies which will work for them Topics covered include first encounter the establishment of rules and relationships time management and specific discipline problems Questioning in the Primary School E. C. Wragg, George A. Brown, 2002-09-26 An explanation of the different types and patterns of questions primary teachers should ask and offers useful practical exercises to enable both experienced and trainee teachers to improve their own and others questioning skills Programming Recreational Services Jay Shivers, 2011-08-24 Programming Recreational Services serves as a handbook for recreational practitioners at every level It clearly presents the methods and materials necessary for the planning organization and operation of recreational services This reader friendly text addresses each of the 12 recreational program categories in detail and includes illustrations to assist with learning It teaches students a methodology for evaluating recreational programs from the establishment of objectives to the final instrument used to determine whether or not the program performed in the way that it was intended Creativity in Primary Education Anthony Wilson, 2014-12-04 An alien spaceship crash landed in my playground today For one primary school in England this was not an ordinary day It was a fabulous day of inspiration writing drawing discovering and learning for the pupils the staff and the parents But the best thing of all The only truly out of the ordinary thing was the alien spaceship So how do you make creativity a more everyday part of primary teaching Teachers and trainees agree that creativity is a fabulous thing But to get creative approaches into everyday teaching you need to tackle the question what is creativity This book explores this question in an accessible and practical way It helps trainees to do more than know it when they see it by helping them to understand the separate and very diverse elements of creativity The third edition of this popular text retains key material but it has been updated and revised to include two new chapters on the creative curriculum along with links throughout to the Standards and the new National Curriculum This book will help you enhance your teaching so you and the children in your class can be fellow explorers adventurous discoverers and spontaneous investigators Teaching Art & Design in the Primary School Gloria Callaway, Abigail Leach, Mary Kear, 2013-12-19 First Published in 1999 It is difficult to imagine a world without arts with no drawing music or painting for example Few if any cultures are without these elements This accessible book roots the practical in the theoretical to explain carefully the principles which underpin practice as well as offering a day to day reference book for classroom use It includes ideas and examples of cross curricular work which retain the integrity of visual arts teaching within the structures and strictures of today's primary schools Teaching the Primary Curriculum for Constructive Learning Michael Little, Laura Huxford, 2013-10-23 First Published in 1998 There is a current preoccupation with educational standards with claims that overall standards of achievement have fallen The purpose of this book therefore is to address the question of how children learn across the primary National Curriculum subjects with implications for effective teaching approaches The book emphasises a constructivist view of learning which acknowledges that children have views and attitudes which are formed as a result of experiences in and out of school and that these must be taken into account if meaningful and transferable learning is to be achieved Children's Perceptions of Learning with Trainee Teachers Hilary Cooper, Rob Hyland, 2002-01-31 Unique in that it focuses on pupils' perceptions of their learning with trainee teachers in primary schools Includes chapter summaries giving suggestions for teaching strategies discussions with mentors and tutors and further reading Includes examples of successful new teaching approaches introduced by trainees and case studies on religion gender and ethnicity Enables trainee teachers to make links between theory research and practice Relevant to all trainee teachers at primary level concerned to develop good practice Contextualized Practices in Arts Education Chee-Hoo Lum, 2013-12-28 This edited book not only makes a much needed contribution to research in arts education but also provides a strong grounding of evidential support for Singapore arts education in contrast to the current state of affairs in arts education in many parts of the world where severe cuts in funding lackluster support for the arts and imperialist agendas are pervasive The case of and for Singapore presented in this edited book through rich descriptions of the dedicated contextualized practices of arts educators artists and researchers offers readers many valuable lessons and reflections on the continued survival and advancement of arts education Teaching Art and Design 3-11 Sue Cox, Robert Watts, 2016-08-25 Whether you are beginning a teacher education course or embarking on a career in teaching this introductory textbook provides comprehensive information on how to meet the standards for the effective teaching of art and design in foundation and primary settings The authors offer comprehensive guidance on everything from reflecting on your own subject knowledge as a teacher to organizing the classroom planning your lessons using a variety of art processes and using artists work in your teaching Learning Science Through Drama Debra McGregor, Dayle Anderson, 2023-01-01 This book presents a wide range of international perspectives that explore the different ways the diverse forms of drama supports learning in science It illustrates how learning science by adopting and adapting theatrical techniques can offer more inclusive ways for students to relate to scientific ideas and concepts The theatrical processes by which subject matter can be introduced thought about discussed transformed enacted and disseminated are shown to be endless The first section of the book considers different ways of theorising and applying drama in classrooms The second section provides a range of case studies illustrating how role play performance embodiment and enquiry approaches can be utilised for learning in primary secondary and tertiary education contexts The third section demonstrates how different research methods from questionnaires particular kinds of tests and even the theatrical conventions themselves can provide rich data that informs how drama impacts on learning science Mastering Primary Art and Design Peter Gregory, Claire March, Suzy Tutchell, 2020-02-20 Mastering Primary Art and Design introduces the primary art and design curriculum and helps trainees and teachers learn how to plan and teach inspiring lessons that make learning art and design irresistible Topics covered include Current developments in art and design Art and design as an irresistible activity Art and design as a practical activity Skills to develop in art and design Promoting curiosity Assessing children in art and design Practical issues This guide includes examples of children s work case studies readings to reflect upon and reflective questions that all help to show students and teachers what is considered to be best and most innovative practice and how they can use that knowledge in their own teaching to the greatest effect The book draws on the experience of three leading professionals in primary art and design Peter Gregory Claire March and Suzy Tutchell to provide the essential guide to teaching art and design for all trainee and qualified primary teachers On the Subject of Drama David Hornbrook, 2002-01-04 Although much has been written on how the drama elements of the English curriculum might be taught in schools there is less guidance available for teachers who regard drama not as an adjunct of English but as an arts subject in its own right In this volume David Hornbrook and a team of experienced drama specialists show how the subject of drama may be defined and taught Drawing on literature visual art music and dance as well as the rich and varied traditions of drama itself they map out an eclectic subject curriculum for students of all ages Opening up the field in new and exciting ways the book embraces the widest possible range of dramatic knowledge and skills from the Natyashastra of ancient India to contemporary classroom improvisation The book is divided into three sections The teaching and learning of drama ideas about interculturalism creativity and craft key concepts informing the drama curriculum are interrogated and re theorised for the classroom Making and performing drama in school the fundamental processes of reading and writing plays for performance are explored along with the potential of dance to enhance and extend students experience of dramatic performance Watching and understanding drama ensuring the curriculum is appropriately balanced between the production and reception of drama this last section emphasises the role of students as audience for both live and electronic performances and the development of a dramatic vocabulary Teaching History in Primary Schools Pat Hoodless, 2008-07-30 This book introduces trainees and newly qualified teachers to the teaching of history in primary schools and covers key concepts skills and knowledge for the history curriculum at Foundation Stage KS1 and KS2 Contents include planning teaching and learning strategies assessment reflection and evaluation as well as a range of practical ideas for classroom activities and cross curricular themes Each chapter is underpinned by national and international research also included are links to important themes such as citizenship out of school learning sustainability diversity and inclusive practice Throughout content is related to new initiatives such as Every Child Matters and Excellence and Enjoyment

Resources in Education ,1997-05 Music in the Early Years Aelwyn Pugh, Lesley Pugh, 2013-11-05 Research findings repeatedly show that music is one of the subjects which teachers feel least confident to tackle There are many reasons for this not least being the lack of appropriate guidance and training This book is designed to help overcome these problems by providing class teachers with clear advice on how to plan resource and deliver a comprehensive programme which will challenge their pupils and enable them to progress and meet national requirements The book includes examples and activities which can be used as a basis for in service training within schools particularly for teachers who regard themselves as non specialists Which Degree in Britain ,1999 A comprehensive guide to full time degree courses institutions and towns in Britain Information Technology and Authentic Learning Angela McFarlane, 2003-10-04 As the presence of computers in the primary classroom increases and IT becomes a bigger part of learning the book takes a realistic look at the role of the computer in the National Curriculum and asks some important questions The book is designed to help teachers incorporate IT into their day to day teaching offering practical guidance and advice on task planning and management and includes examples of classroom practice The book covers all curriculum areas examining curriculum specific issues as well as more general concerns such as pupil expectation and self esteem problem solving collaborative learning data handling homework and the effects on the pupil teacher dynamic This book will be essential to all primary school teachers and trainees
