Crafts Promotion:

Tell me about... Crafts Etienne-Nugue, Jocelyne, UNESCO, 2009-12-31 Crafts are the fruit of tradition innovation and imagination Whether they take the form of pottery woodwork basketwork weaving metalwork glasswork or leatherwork they are all a fundamental expression of cultural identity For UNESCO crafts are also an important tool in sustainable development American Crafts ,1972 Heritage Craft Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2023-01-23 In this book we will study about India s traditional crafts their cultural significance techniques and role in local economies Program Aid ,1972

Japanese Modernisation and Mingei Theory 田口卯吉, 2004 Yanagi Soetsu Bernard Leach and Hamada Shoji are the golden trio of the Mingei folkcrafts movement The theory at its core and its adaptation by Leach has long been an influential Oriental aesthetic philosophy for studio craft artists in the West Reshaping Urban Conservation Ana Pereira Roders, Francesco Bandarin, 2019-02-07 This volume focuses on the implementation of the 2011 UNESCO Recommendation on the Historic Urban Landscape HUL approach designed to foster the integration of heritage management in regional and urban planning and management and strengthen the role of heritage in sustainable urban development Earlier publications and research looked at the underlying theory of why the HUL approach was needed and how this theory was developed and elaborated by UNESCO A comprehensive analysis was carried out in consultation with a multitude of actors in the twenty first century urban scene and with disciplinary approaches that are available to heritage managers and practitioners to implement the HUL approach This volume aims to be empirical describing analyzing and comparing 28 cities taken as case studies to implement the HUL approach From those cases many lessons can be learned and much guidance shared on best practices concerning what can be done to make the HUL approach work Whereas the previous studies served to illustrate issues and challenges in this volume the studies point to innovations in regional and urban planning and management that can allow cities to avoid major conflicts and to further develop in competitiveness These accomplishments have been possible by building partnerships devising financial strategies and using heritage as a key resource in sustainable urban development to name but a few effective strategies For these reasons this volume is primarily pragmatic linked to the daily work and challenges of practitioners and administrators using specific cases to assess what was and is good about current practices and what can be improved in accordance with the HUL approach and aims Tourism and the Millennium Development Goals Jarkko Saarinen, Christian M. Rogerson, Haretsebe Manwa, 2013-10-31 In 2000 United Nations adopted the Millennium Development Goals UN MDGs committing the member nations to a new global partnership to reduce extreme poverty and setting out a series of specific targets with a deadline of 2015 Related to the UN MDGs tourism is increasingly seen as a promising tool for poverty reduction ensuring environmental sustainability and developing a global partnership for development for example Thus the industry has become an important policy tool for community and regional development in many developing countries and the expectations for tourism and its social and economic outcomes have evolved to a high level However there are still many challenges to overcome in the relationship between tourism industry development and poverty reduction This book aims to discuss the promises challenges and outcomes of tourism in development with a specific aim of drawing together research related to tourism and UN MDGs The papers discuss what lessons can be learnt and conclusions drawn from the utilisation of tourism for development and poverty reduction What emerges from this collection is a set of interesting results and notions which both support and challenge the connections between tourism and development and the new role of tourism in global development This book is an extended version of a special issue published in Current Issues in Tourism

Sustainable Development and Planning III

A. Kungolos,2007 In recent years in many countries there has been an increase in spatial problems that has led to planning crisis Planning problems often connected with uneven development deterioration of the quality of urban life and destruction of the environment The increase urbanisation of the world coupled with global issues of the environmental pollution resource shortage and economic restructuring demand that we make our cities places worth living in Problems of environmental management and planning are not restricted to urban areas Environments such as rural areas forests coastal regions and mountains face their own problems that require urgent solutions in order to avoid irreversible damages The use of modern technologies in planning gives us new potential to monitor and prevent environmental degradation Effective strategies for management should consider planning and regional development two closely related disciplines and emphasise the demand to handle these matters in an integrated way Containing papers presented at the Third International Conference on

Sustainable Development and Planning this book addresses the subjects of regional development in an integrated way as well as in accordance with the principles of sustainability Notable topics include Regional Planning City Planning Rural Development Environmental Impact Assessment Environmental Management Environmental Legislation and Policy Integrated Territorial and Environmental Risk Analysis Ecosystems Analysis Protection and Remediation Social and Cultural Issues Environmental Economics Geo Informatics Urban Landscapes Transportation Waste Management and Resources Management Anthropologica ,2003 The Routledge Handbook of Craft and Sustainability in India Rebecca Reubens,Tanishka Kachru,2024-10-15 Traditional crafts have been an essential part of Indian history culture and life This handbook looks at craft as both a cultural artefact that reflects people s worldviews indigenous practices and traditions as well as a source of income generation and development that is inclusive India s rapid development has meant a breakdown of traditional economies and including craft production to consumption systems Meanwhile there is a call to action from different factions to protect revive and reinvent craft because the inherent sustainability of the systems that underpin it are essential for the sustainability of India and her people Against this backdrop this book examines the current landscape of craft in India its production and marketing in different parts of India the incorporation of innovation and technology the push for sustainability and equitability in the handicraft ecosystem and promising government policies that have proved beneficial for craftspeople It also discusses various challenges that artisans micro entrepreneurs and marketers face working in the space With contributions from leading experts in the field of design activism policy education cultural heritage and entrepreneurship this volume provides a comprehensive and in depth picture of the history economics and future of craft and its relationship with sustainability An authoritative resource on Indian craft this handbook will be useful for scholars and researchers of sustainable development development studies architecture design heritage studies cultural studies political economy and public policy France ,1974 Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Select Committee on Indian Affairs United States. Congress. Senate. Select Committee on Indian Affairs,1980 Development of Native American Culture and Art United States. Congress. Senate. Select Committee on Indian Affairs,1980 [] With Design: Reinventing Design Modes Gerhard Bruyns,Huaxin Wei,2022-11-05 This collection stems from the International Association of Societies of Design Research IASDR congress in 2021 promoting the research of design in its many fields of application Today s design finds itself at a critical moment where the conventional modes of doing thinking and application are increasingly challenged by the troubled ideology of globalisation climate change migration patterns and the rapid restructuring of locally driven manufacturing sectors The volume presents a selection of papers on state of the art design research work As rapid technological development has been pushing and breaking new ground in society the broad field of design is facing many unprecedented changes In combination with the environmental cultural technological and crucially pandemic transitions design at large is called to fundamentally alter its modes of practice Beyond the conventional models of conducting research or developing solutions to wicked problems the recoupling of design with different modes should be seen as an expression to embrace other capacities of thinking criticisms and productions This selection of proceedings papers delivers the latest insights into design from a multitude of perspectives as reflected in the eight thematic modes of the congress i e social making business critical historical projective impact pandemic and alternative with design modes The book benefits design researchers from both academia and industry who are interested in the latest design research results as well as in innovative design research methods In presenting an interesting corpus of design case studies as well as studies of design impact this comprehensive collection is of relevance to design theorists and students as well as scholars in related fields seeking to understand how design plays a critical role in their respective domains Craft Entrepreneurship

Annette Naudin, Karen Patel, 2020-12-10 Craft practice has experienced a sharp rise in popularity since the late 2000s partly through the aura of the analogue and the desire for authentic handmade products in an increasingly fast paced digitalised world Luckman 2015 but also because of digital platforms such as Etsy and social media enabling anyone to become a craft entrepreneur This book brings together historical policy and individual narratives to inform a broad understanding of craft entrepreneurship Drawing on case studies from around the world Craft Entrepreneurship considers questions of identity community and the digital in craft entrepreneurship In doing so it finds craft activities to be positioned between or across the arts heritage notions of a bohemian lifestyle and the challenges of micro entrepreneurship By engaging with the contradictions and fragility of sustaining a craft practice the chapters in this book contribute to different perspectives for entrepreneurship studies The contributions to this volume illustrate the craft entrepreneurs identity motivation and sense of creative purpose through their craft as these collide with the tensions brought about through entrepreneurship A

Cultural Economic Analysis of Craft Anna Mignosa, Priyatej Kotipalli, 2019-06-11 Are we aware of the values of craft In this edited volume cultural economists researchers and professionals provide an interdisciplinary discussion of the relevance and contribution of the craft sector to the economy as well as to society at large Mignosa and Kotipalli bring together contributors to compare the craft sector across countries analysing the role of institutions educational bodies organisations and market structure in its evolution and perception The Western approach to craft and its subordinate position to the arts is contrasted with the prestige of craftsmanship in Eastern countries while the differing ways that craft has attracted the attention of policy agencies museums designers and private institutions across regions is also analysed This volume is vital reading to those interested in the economic features of craft and craftsmanship around the world as well as for those interested in the importance of policy in bringing about effective sustainable development
