Cranbury Images Of America:

Ethnic Images in American Film and Television Randall M. Miller, 1978 Boats and Boating on Cranberry Lake Allen P. Splete, Cranberry Lake Boat Club, 2009 Boats and Boating on Cranberry Lake portrays the evolution of boating life on a lake that was barely known until the late 19th century Illustrated here are some of the lake's earliest guide boats and canoes workboats and steamers and early motor launches that brought visitors from the dock at Wanakena to hotels around the lake In the summer of 1909 a few men who regularly spent the season on Cranberry Lake organized a motorboat club to promote the sport of power boating improve boating conditions on the lake and have some fun Today the Cranberry Lake Boat Club with 400 memberships is thought to be the oldest such continuously active club in the western Adirondacks The club will celebrate its centennial in 2009 with a summer of activities related to boats and boating on the lake The Art of the English Trade Gun in North America Nathan E. Bender, 2018-07-06 Symbolic ornamentation inspired by ancient Greek and Roman art is a long standing Western tradition The author explores the designs of 18th century English gunsmiths who engraved classical ornamental patterns on firearms gifted or traded to American Indians A system of allegory is found that symbolized the Americas of the New World in general and that enshrined the American Indian peoples as noble savages The same allegorical context was drawn upon for symbols of national liberty in the early American republic Inadvertently many of the symbolic designs used on the trade guns strongly resonated with several Native American spiritual traditions

American Photo, 1991-01 Film and Politics in America Brian Neve, 2004-08-02 In A Social Cinema Film making and Politics in America Brian Neve presents a study of the social and political nature of American film by concentrating on a generation of writers from the thirties who directed films in Hollywood in the 1940's He discusses how they negotiated their roles in relation to the studio system itself undergoing change and to what extent their experience in the political and theatre movements of thirties New York was to be reflected in their later films Focusing in particular on Orson Welles Elia Kazan Jules Dassin Abraham Polonsky Nicholas Ray Robert Rossen and Joseph Losey Neve relates the work of these writers and directors to the broader industrial bureaucratic social and political developments of the period 1935-1970 With special emphasis on the post war decade bringing together archive and secondary sources Neve explores a lost tradition of social filmmaking in America Romance and the Yellow Peril Gina Marchetti, 1994-02-15 Hollywood films about Asians and interracial sexuality are the focus of Gina Marchetti's provocative new work While miscegenation might seem an unlikely theme for Hollywood Marchetti shows how fantasy dramas of interracial rape lynching tragic love and model marriage are powerfully evident in American cinema The author begins with a discussion of D W Griffith's Broken Blossoms then considers later films such as Shanghai Express Madame Butterfly and the recurring geisha movies She also includes some fascinating forgotten films that have been overlooked by critics until now Marchetti brings the theoretical perspective of recent writing on race ethnicity and gender to her analyses of film and television and argues persuasively that these media help to perpetuate social and racial inequality in America Noting how social norms and taboos have been simultaneously set and broken by Hollywood filmmakers she discusses the orientalist tensions underlying the construction of American cultural identity Her book will be certain to interest readers in film Asian women s and cultural studies In Their Own Image Ted Merwin, 2006 The Jazz Age of the 1920s is an era remembered for illegal liquor innovative music and dance styles and burgeoning ideas of social equality It was also the period during which second generation Jews began to emerge as a significant demographic in New York City In Their Own Image examines the growing cultural visibility of Jewish life amid this vibrant scene From the vaudeville routines of Fanny Brice Eddie Cantor George Jessel and Sophie Tucker to the slew of Broadway comedies about Jewish life and the silent films that showed immigrant families struggling to leave the ghetto images and representations of Jews became staples of interwar popular culture Through the performing arts Jews expressed highly ambivalent feelings about their identification with Jewish and American cultures Ted Merwin shows how they became American by producing and consuming not images of another group but images of themselves As a result they humanized Jewish stereotypes softened anti Semitic attitudes and laid the groundwork for today s Jewish comedians An entertaining look at the role popular culture plays in promoting the acculturation of an ethnic group In Their Own Image enhances our understanding of American Jewish history and provides a model for the study of other groups and their integration into mainstream society Sites Unseen William A. Gleason, 2011 Sites Unseen examines the complex intertwining of race and architecture in nineteenth and early twentieth century American culture the period not only in which American architecture came of age professionally in the U S but also in which ideas about architecture became a prominent part of broader conversations about American culture history politics and O although we have not yet understood this clearly O race relations This rich and copiously illustrated interdisciplinary study explores the ways that American writing between roughly 1850 and 1930 concerned itself often intensely with the racial implications of architectural space primarily but not exclusively through domestic architecture In addition to identifying an archive of provocative primary materials Sites Unseen draws significantly on important recent scholarship in multiple fields ranging from literature history and material culture to architecture cultural geography and urban planning Together the chapters interrogate a variety of expressive American vernacular forms including the dialect tale the novel of empire letters and pulp stories along with the plantation cabin the West Indian cottage the Latin American plaza and the O Oriental O parlor These are some of the overlooked plots and structures that can and should inform a more comprehensive consideration of the literary and cultural meanings of American architecture Making sense of the relations between architecture race and American writing of the long nineteenth century O coin their regional national and hemispheric contexts O Co Sites Unseen provides a clearer view not only of this catalytic era but also more broadly of what architectural historian Dell Upton has aptly termed the social experience of the built environment In Defense of Asian American Studies Sucheng Chan, 2005 In Defense of Asian American Studies offers fascinating tales from the trenches on the origins and evolution of the field of Asian American studies as told by one of its founders and most highly regarded scholars Wielding intellectual energy critical acumen and a sly sense of humor Sucheng Chan discusses her experiences on three campuses within the University of California system as Asian American studies was first developed in response to vehement student demand under the rubric of ethnic studies Chan speaks by turns as an advocate and an administrator striving to secure a place for Asian American studies as a teacher working to give Asian American students a voice and white students a perspective on race and racism and as a scholar and researcher still asking her own questions The essays span three decades and close with a piece on the new challenges facing Asian American studies Eloquenty documenting a field of endeavor in which scholarship and identity define and strengthen each other In Defense of Asian American Studies combines analysis personal experience and indispensable practical advice for those engaged in building and sustaining Asian American studies programs

Washington's Cranberry Coast Sydney Stevens for the Pacific Coast Cranberry Research Foundation, 2018-10-08 For 100 miles along the western edge of Washington State an unusual agricultural community hugs the Pacific shoreline Bogs of bright cranberries stretch from the Long Beach Peninsula at the mouth of the Columbia River north to Grayland Ocean Shores and Copalis Crossing Here along this remote stretch of stormy seacoast is a prime farming center for a fruit that grows in very few areas on earth For countless centuries before pioneer settlement indigenous peoples harvested the wild cranberries that thrived in boggy regions of the coast When enterprising mid 19th century settlers saw the possibilities for a vigorous cranberry farming venture they faced many challenges before success could be achieved Theirs is the story of hardworking forward thinking people who have become leaders in their field

Hollywood War Films, 1937-1945 Michael S. Shull, David Edward Wilt, 2015-09-03 From 1937 through 1945 Hollywood produced over 1 000 films relating to the war This enormous and exhaustive reference work first analyzes the war films as sociopolitical documents Part one entitled The Crisis Abroad 1937 1941 focuses on movies that reflected America's increasing uneasiness Part two Waging War 1942 1945 reveals that many movies made from 1942 through 1945 included at least some allusion to World War II
