Creating A Future For Religious Life A Sociological Perspective:

Creating a Future for Religious Life Patricia Wittberg, 1991 Religious Life in a New Millennium Volume One Sandra M. Schneiders, I.H.M., Religious Life Loan Le, 2016-06-22 Following the Second Vatican Council when each Religious Institute was encouraged to research its charism some Institutes experienced a tension between their charism and their mission or even difficulty identifying what their charism was This book is a study of the theological understanding of charism and of mission in relation to Religious Life within the Catholic Church While this topic has featured in much Roman Catholic theological literature since Vatican II there appears to be a dearth of in depth studies This book addresses this apparent lacuna It draws particularly on the work of two major theologians Jean Marie Roger Tillard OP and Sandra Marie Schneiders IHM who have reflected at length on charism and mission in the period leading up to Vatican II and on the implementation of its documents with respect to Religious Life The very significant contributions of Tillard and Schneiders on the topic provide Religious as well as others who want to know and understand Religious Life with an interesting and motivating insight into charism and mission in Religious Life Within the Roman Catholic Church a Year of Consecrated Life has just drawn to a close and this book forms a background and a response to Pope Francis Apostolic Letter to all Consecrated People on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life November 2014 which invited Religious to reflect on these aspects that are essential to the life they have chosen to live Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 6, 2021-11-15 The purpose of this book is to provide an outlet for original research articles examining the role and value of religious and spiritual constructs across the social sciences The aim of the series is to include an international and interfaith voice to this research dialogue An effort is made to be interdisciplinary and academically eclectic The articles in each volume represent a wide array of perspectives and research projects Most of the articles report the findings of quantitative or qualitative investigations but some deal with methodology theory or applications of social science studies in the field of religion and some are applied demonstrating the relevance of the social sciences to religious organizations and their clergy The value of the volume is that it gives to researchers in this area a broad perspective on the issues and methods of religious research across a spectrum of academic disciplines The aim of the book is to stimulate a creative integrative dialogue that will enhance interdisciplinary research From Chaos To Mission Gerald A. Arbuckle, 1996-01-10 Formation is a rite of passage or initiation ritual This book draws on the findings of social anthropological studies of initiation rituals and contemporary biblical studies of rites of passage Since initiation rituals are of critical importance in the life journeys of individuals and groups the book s central theme is relevant to educationalists and ritual leaders in the Church and secular society Most religious congregations founded since the thirteenth century were formed for prophetic ministry to a world in change yet for centuries before Vatican II their candidates were rarely trained explicitly for this task Through years of quasi indoctrination and voluntary incarceration they were taught in a monastic atmosphere of unchanging order that the world was evil and to be avoided Conformity to a theological ecclesiastical and pastoral status quo was the most esteemed value in a candidate This emphasis was contrary to the very nature of active religious life Religious must be prophetic challengers of the status quo within the Church and society Training for membership in active religious congregations therefore must now be radically reformed but there are no road maps available to direct educationalists in developing programmes that would stimulate candidates to be radically creative in ministry From Chaos to Mission creates a framework for radical thinking and practical action about the critical issue of formation of religious for mission today The Integrated Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Environmentalism S. Steiner-Aeschliman,1999 The theory and data of environmental science suggest that growth in rates of population consumption and environmental degradation as a result of the activities of industrialized societies has created an ecological crisis to which modern societies must adapt However adaptation is problematic Max Weber studied adaptive social change during the industrial revolution The evolution of this new way of life was initially problematic because individuals who established industrialism were socialized under feudalism In this dissertation I consider The Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Capitalism as a theoretical treatise framed by modern human ecology in order to study social change in the context of the ecological crisis of industrialism The Protestant Ethic is known for describing how religious ideas influenced the unfolding of modern capitalism in the West However there is nothing inherent in Protestantism that requires linkage to industrialism I argue that Protestantism has evolved and that it need not necessarily promote environmental exploitation although under industrialism it has I identify a green subculture within Protestantism and consider how Protestantism s weakness may also be its strength The very sociological structure that in the absence of ecologically realistic norms permits widespread ecosystem degradation by industrial capitalism may also generate ecologically realistic norms for a natural capitalism Weber contended that rationality was problematic because it paradoxically results in a dual crisis of management and meaning where human agency becomes imprisoned as if in an iron cage The irrational continuation of environmentally degrading social practices eventually contributes to a legitimation crisis People turn to religion as an alternative authority If science and religion converge on environmental values they might catalyze social change unless they are too distorted by ideological bias Adaptive social change only occurs if ethical and ecological values are in accordance with the sustainability of ecosystems Hence to adapt to the ecological crisis sociocultural systems require socialization into ecological realism because ecologically rational societies may still be maladaptively organized around environmentally unsustainable trajectories The Rise and Fall of Faith-Based Hospitals Georgine Scarpino Rsm Ph. D.,2013-03 This book is a meta analysis of the relationship of margin and mission of faith based hospitals in Allegheny County Pennsylvania to their beginnings and endings It reviews the various local state and federal events and factors that impacted these hospitals during their growth and decline from 1847 through 2008 Most importantly the book shares the courage hardships and perseverance of the founders of these institutions many of whom were women as they responded to one crisis after another but never gave up their commitment to serve the poor and sick of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County

Orthodox Sisters William G. Wagner,2024-07-15 Orthodox Sisters explores the relationship between women religion and social cultural and economic change between 1700 and 1935 through the experiences of Orthodox convents in Nizhnii Novgorod diocese Focusing primarily on the Convent of the Exaltation of the Cross William G Wagner places the women s experiences in the broader context of developments in female monasticism and religious life in Russia as well as in Europe and North America over the same period This is the first comprehensive study that follows a Russian convent through all the stages of its life from its origins in the eighteenth century to its flourishing at the turn of the twentieth century to its resistance to Soviet assault and finally to its rebirth in the 1920s By the late nineteenth century the Convent of the Exaltation of the Cross and the other convents and women s religious communities in Nizhnii Novgorod diocese constituted a reimagined form of a traditional Orthodox monastic community Wagner shows how these nuns and novices adapted to the conditions of emergent modernity in a distinctively Orthodox way When almost everything but their communal life work and worship and their sacred spaces had been stripped away and they were subject to the socialist state s efforts at subversion the sisters of the Convent of the Exaltation of the Cross and the other convents in the diocese created an authentic Christian community that gave their lives a collective meaning In this way they were able to lead a rewarding life and survive the early years of Soviet Russia

Framing Mary Amy Singleton Adams,Vera Shevzov,2018-04-24 Despite the continued fascination with the Virgin Mary in modern and contemporary times very little of the resulting scholarship on this topic extends to Russia Russia s Mary however who is virtually unknown in the West has long played a formative role in Russian society and culture Framing Mary introduces readers to the cultural life of Mary from the seventeenth century to the post Soviet era It examines a broad spectrum of engagements among a variety of people pilgrims and poets clergy and laity politicians and political activists and the woman they knew as the Bogoroditsa In this collection of well integrated and illuminating essays leading scholars of imperial Soviet and post Soviet Russia trace Mary s irrepressible pull and inexhaustible promise from multiple disciplinary perspectives Focusing in particular on the ways in which both visual and narrative images of Mary frame perceptions of Russian and Soviet space and inform discourse about women and motherhood these essays explore Mary s rich and complex role in Russia s religion philosophy history politics literature and art Framing Mary will appeal to Russian studies scholars historians and general readers interested in religion and Russian culture

Future for Religion? William H. Swatos,1993 In the 1960s many sociologists proclaimed traditional religion to be in its death throes But just as secularization gained nearly universal acceptance among scholars religious resurgence burst forth from many directions new religious movements and the growth of Islamic fundamentalism for example In A Future for Religion contributors ask whether if such dynamic forces are at work is religion really dying They discuss issues usually excluded from books on the sociology of religion including religious experience emotional renewal religion and the body

Ali Shariati and the Future of Social Theory Dustin J. Byrd, Seyed Javad Miri, 2017-08-28 In Ali Shariati and the Future of Social Theory Religion Revolution and the Role of the Intellectual Dustin J Byrd and Seyed Javad Miri bring together a collections of essays by a variety of scholars who explore the lasting influence of the Iranian sociologist and revolutionary Ali Shariati Thought to be the most important intellectual behind the Iranian Revolution of 1979 these essays engage in a future oriented remembrance of Shariati s life and praxis with the practical attempt to clarify expand and apply his liberational Islamic thought to modern conditions Making use of Shariati s writings on Shi a Islam and western philosophy this text is especially important for those who want to understand the role that intellectuals both religious and secular can have in the liberation of mankind Contributors are Mahdi Ahouie Bader Mousa al Saif Sophia Rose Arjana M K rad Atalar Dustin J Byrd Eric Goodfield Teo Lee Ken Georg Leube Seyed Javad Miri Carimo Mohamed Chandra Muzaffar Khosrow Bagheri Noaparast Fatemeh Shayan and Esmaeil Zeiny The Future of God Stephen R. Schwalbe, 2025-05-30 This book reviews the three Abrahamic faiths Judaism Islam and Christianity to determine how humankind will accommodate God in the future While there are many publications about the future of God or the future of religion they tend to reflect a specific academic field such as theology or sociology This book reviews the future of God reflected in four primary academic fields including theology dealing directly with God and religion sociology addressing how societies evolved with God and religion biology dealing with the scientific evidence of the existence of God and physics addressing God s intelligent design of the universe Then the book analyzes each field s future projections for God in order to determine the most likely future In the end the book discusses a possible future religion based on the academic review of the future of God

Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion Joanne Marie Greer, David O. Moberg, 1998 This is the ninth volume in a series of research in the social scientific study of religion The text discusses Irish priests and American Catholicism a typology of seekership personality and gender dimensions in the images of Jesus Mary and Joseph and other related issues The Catholic World, 1991 Incompatible with God's Design Mary Jeremy Daigler, 2012-10-12 Incompatible with God s Design is the first comprehensive history of the Roman Catholic women s ordination movement in the United States Mary Jeremy Daigler explores how the focus on ordination and not merely increased participation in the life and ministries of the church has come to describe a broad movement Moving well beyond the role of such organizations as the Women s Ordination Conference this study also addresses the role of international and local groups In an effort to debunk a number of misperceptions about the movement from its date of origin to its demographic profile Daigler explores a vast array of topics

Starting with the movement's historical background from the early American period through the early twentieth century to Vatican II and afterward she considers the role of women especially Catholicism's more religious adherents in the movement's evolution the organization of the ordination movement in the United States the role and response of clergy and Vatican teachings the reality of international influences on the U S movement and the full range of challenges past and present to the ordination movement Incompatible with God's Design is compelling reading for any student of theology and women's studies as well as those interested in staying abreast with the changing role of women within the U S Roman Catholic Church A Future Full of Hope? Gemma Simmonds, 2013 Are we looking at the imminent death of religious life in the church at a future full of hope or at something in between This book based on papers given at a colloquium run by the Religious Life Institute Heythrop College University of London addresses urgent questions around the renewal and survival of religious life from a British and Irish religious and lay perspective Who is looking at religious vocation today What are they seeking and what are they finding With a foreword by former Dominican Master General Timothy Radcliffe leading authors on religious life with lay and religious colleagues explore these questions and propose answers in a book offering material for group and personal reflection Provided by publisher Palliative Care - Current Practice and Future Perspectives Georg Bolig, Erika Zelko, 2024-06-19 The need for Palliative Care is increasing around the world due to demographic change the extension of the lifespan in general and the advances of medical and oncological treatment In Palliative Care quality of life and family centred care are paramount The book entitled Palliative Care Current Practice and Future Perspectives offers an insightful introduction to different concepts and approaches presenting a multidisciplinary perspective and diverse ways of insights provided by a team of authors from various disciplines and regions across Europe Asia and Africa The different chapters divided into five sections provide an insight into current practices from different fields and countries It highlights current knowledge and experiences and discusses ideas for the future development of Palliative Care
