Agency And Consciousness In Discourse:

Agency and Consciousness in Discourse Paul J. Thibault, 2004 Agency and Consciousness in Discourse Paul Thibault, 2004-12-01 In the past two decades there has been considerable interest in the ways in which subjects are positioned in discursive practice This interest has entailed a focus on the role of language and discourse in the processes in and through which subjects are constituted in discourse However questions of agency and how it relates to consciousness have received less attention This book explores the ways in which agency and consciousness are created through transactions between self and other The book argues that it is necessary to regard body brain interactions in the context of the social and discursive practices which act upon human bodies These issues of agency and individuation are explored in relation to infant semiosis as well as in relation to children s symbolic play Thibault looks at the importance of the self referential moral conscience in relation to the interpersonal dimension of all acts of meaning making This conscience is also connected to the development of a self referential viewpoint which the book argues is connected to the ecosocial semiotic systems of thinking about consciousness as a complex system operating on many different levels The author discusses and evaluates the work of linguists psychologists biologists semioticians and sociologists such as Basil Bernstein Mikhail Bakhtin J J Gibson M A K Halliday Walter Kauffman Lakoff Johnson Jay Lemke Jean Piaget and Stanley Salthe to develop a new theory of agency and consciousness

Discourses, Agency and Identity in Malaysia Zawawi Ibrahim, Gareth Richards, Victor T. King, 2021-10-23 This book seeks to break new ground both empirically and conceptually in examining discourses of identity formation and the agency of critical social practices in Malaysia Taking an inclusive cultural studies perspective it questions the ideological narrative of race and ethnicity that dominates explanations of conflicts and cleavages in the Malaysian context The contributions are organised in three broad themes Identities in Contestation Borders Complexities and Hybridities takes a range of empirical studies literary translation religion gender ethnicity indigeneity and sexual orientation to break down preconceived notions of fixed identities This then opens up an examination of Identities and Movements Agency and Alternative Discourses in which contributors deal with counter hegemonic social movements of anti racism young people environmentalism and independent publishing that explicitly seek to open up greater critical democratic space within the Malaysian polity The third section Identities and Narratives Culture and the Media then provides a close textual reading of some exemplars of new cultural and media practices found in oral testimonies popular music film radio programming and storytelling who have consciously created bodies of work that question the dominant national narrative This book is a valuable interdisciplinary work for advanced students and researchers interested in representations of identity and nationhood in Malaysia and for those with wider interests in the fields of critical cultural studies and discourse analysis Here is a fresh startling book to aid the task of unbinding the straitjackets of Malay Chinese and Indian with which colonialism bound Malaysia s plural inheritance and on which the postcolonial state continues to rely In it a panoply of unlikely identities

Bajau liminality Kelabit philosophy Islamic feminism refugee hybridity and more finds expression and offers hope for liberation Rachel Leow University of Cambridge This book shakes the foundations of race thinking in Malaysian studies by expanding the range of cases perspectives and outcomes of identity It offers students of Malaysia an examination of identity and agency that is expansive critical and engaging and its interdisciplinary depth brings Malaysian studies into conversation with scholarship across the world Sumit Mandal University of Nottingham Malaysia This is a much needed work that helps us to take apart the colonial inherited categories of race which informed the notion of the plural society the idea of plurality without multiculturalism It complicates the picture of identity by bringing in religion gender indigeneity and sexual orientation and helps us to imagine what a truly multiculturalist Malaysia might look like Syed Farid Alatas National University of Singapore

The Structure of Social Theory Anthony King, 2012 Over the last three decades social theory has become an increasingly important subdiscipline within sociology Social theory has attempted to elucidate the philosophical basis of sociology by defining the nature of social reality According to social theory society consists of objective institutions structure on the one hand and individuals agency on the other it promotes human social relations insisting that in every instance social reality consists of these relations

Identity, Nation, Discourse Claire Taylor, 2009-01-14 This volume explores women's literary and cultural production in Latin America and suggests how such works engage with discourses of identity nationhood and gender Including contributions by several prominent Latin American scholars themselves it seeks to provide a vital insight into the analysis and reception of the works in a local context and foster debate between Latin American and metropolitan academics The book is divided into two sections Women and Nationhood and Models and Genres The first section comprises six chapters which examines women's responses to and attempts to carve out space within national discourses in a Latin American context Spanning the nineteenth century to the present day the chapters offer an insight into the ways in which Latin American women have constructed themselves as modern subjects of the nation and made use of the ambiguous spaces created by modernization and national discourses The section starts firstly with a focus on the Southern Cone covering Chile and Argentina and then moves geographically northward to Colombia and Bolivia The second section Models and Genres consists of six chapters that examine how women writers engage with and critically re work existing literary discourses and paradigms Considering phenomena such as detective fiction fairy tales and classical mythological figures the chapters illustrate how these genres and models frequently coded as masculine are given new inflections both as a result of their deployment by women and as a result of their re working in a Latin American context

Materialist Feminism and the Politics of Discourse (RLE Feminist Theory) Rosemary Hennessy, 2012-11-27 Materialist Feminism and the Politics of Discourse confronts the impasses in materialist feminist work on rethinking woman as a discursively constructed subject The book looks at the problem of examining critically the social dimensions on which theories of discourse are premised how such theories understand materiality the relation between women's experience and feminist politics and that between history and discourse Rosemary Hennessy considers the work of Kristeva Foucault Laclau and Mouffe and argues for a materialist feminist re articulation of discourse as ideology Concerns over identity and difference are incorporated into a rewriting of materialist feminism's analysis of women's oppression across capitalist and patriarchal structures In adapting postmodernist theories in this way Hennessy develops a project of social change where feminism while maintaining its specificity is necessarily aligned with
