Science & Technology into Development Policies An International Perspective OECD, Department of Science and Technology, 2007-05-23 This publication provides the proceedings of an international workshop held in South Africa intended to address how international co operation in science and technology can further the three inter related aspects economic social and environmental of the development process Special Reference Briefs, 1983 Agricultural Transformation in a Global History Perspective Ellen Hillbom, Patrick Svensson, 2013-03-05 History teaches us that agricultural growth and development is necessary for achieving overall better living conditions in all societies Although this process may seem homogenous when looked at from the outside it is full of diversity within This book captures this diversity by presenting eleven independent case studies ranging over time and space By comparing outcomes attempts are made to draw general conclusion and lessons about the agricultural transformation process

Europeanization of Environmental Policies and their Limitations Arpad Todor, Florența Elena Helepciuc, 2021-05-13 This book offers a window into the mechanisms that drive events when countries with poor track records in environmental protection and low administrative capacity join an organisation with ambitious environmental regulatory regimes which include some of the highest environmental protections standards in the world This book examines the institutional building capacity in Romania after two decades of the development of the EU s environmental policy on elaboration transposition implementation monitoring and institutional building The book examines how Romania has fared as one of the least environmentally friendly EU member states and poses the following questions What are the limits of Europeanisation in the area of public policies What is the reason why despite the overwhelming public interest in environmental issues and widespread agreement that urgent action to protect the environment and prevent catastrophic climate change are paramount the pace of achieving the goals is remains slow Why do policies fail This book brings together several case studies focusing on the evolution of environmental policies in Romania over the last twenty years with a special focus on the post accession period 2007 onwards The book provides an analysis of policies where progress is less than satisfactory and examines why this is the case

Publications Office for Official Publications of the European Communities, 1994 New Limits on European Agriculture François Duchêne, Edward Szczepanik, Wilfrid Legg, 2023-07-26 Until about 1970 Western Europe was regarded as the great food importing region of the world Over the next 15 years it also became a major food exporter This study originally published in 1985 analyses the expansionary policies of individual nations as well as those of the Community itself which have helped produce this momentous reversal of Western Europe s traditional role The phenomenon in the international food market is reviewed within the context of the economic and political forces responsible for changes in Western European agriculture during the late 20th Century

African Politics in Comparative Perspective Goran Hyden, 2013 This revised and expanded second edition of African Politics in Comparative Perspective reviews fifty years of research on politics in Africa and addresses some issues in a new light keeping in mind the changes in Africa since the first edition was written in 2004 The book synthesizes insights from different scholarly approaches and offers an original interpretation of the knowledge accumulated in the field

Goran Hyden discusses how research on African politics relates to the study of politics in other regions and mainstream theories in comparative politics He focuses on such key issues as why politics trumps economics rule is personal state is weak and policies are made with a communal rather than an individual lens The book also discusses why in the light of these conditions agriculture is problematic gender contested ethnicity manipulated and relations with Western powers a matter of defiance

Transition to Agricultural Market Economies Andrew Schmitz, William H Meyers, 2015-06-22 It is believed that the major countries of the former Soviet Union specifically Kazakhstan Russia and Ukraine KRU region are the part of the world with the most potential to increase food supplies and strengthen world food security This book examines the future of the KRU countries in global agricultural markets and will examine a number of agricultural sectors including meat dairy fruits and vegetables However particular attention is paid to the region s potential expansion of the grain sector and why the KRU region emerged during the 2000s as a major grain exporter and its potential to further expand grain production and exports It also examine the issues of environmental constraints and trade offs for agriculture sustainability and the possible effects of climate change

Reforming the Common Agricultural Policy I. Garzon, 2006-08-04 Reforming the Common Agricultural Policy presents an unprecedented comparison of three successive major reforms of the CAP It shows the influence of related issues such as international trade negotiations and budget constraints and demonstrates that factors such as opening of the policy network and feedback were key to accelerating change

European Agricultural Research in the 21st Century Guy Paillotin, 2013-04-17 Jointly published with INRA Paris What will people eat in the future and how can the food requirements in terms of quantity and quality be met This EU based study elucidates the need for a productivity level that will make agriculture competitive on the market and yet is reconciled with the need to manage natural resources and lands wisely In this book the necessary changes for European agriculture from the biological medical economic and political perspective are discussed
