Ahead Of All Parting The Selected Poetry And Prose Of Rainer Maria Rilke:

Ahead of All Parting Rainer Maria Rilke, 2015-01-21 The reputation of Rainer Maria Rilke has grown steadily since his death in 1926 today he is widely considered to be the greatest poet of the twentieth century This Modern Library edition presents Stephen Mitchell's acclaimed translations of Rilke which have won praise for their re-creation of the poet's rich formal music and depth of thought If Rilke had written in English Denis Donoghue wrote in The New York Times Book Review he would have written in this English Ahead of All Parting is an abundant selection of Rilke's lifework It contains representative poems from his early collections The Book of Hours and The Book of Pictures many selections from the revolutionary New Poems which drew inspiration from Rodin and Cezanne the hitherto little known Requiem for a Friend and a generous selection of the late uncollected poems which constitute some of his finest work Included too are passages from Rilke's influential novel The Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge and nine of his brilliant uncollected prose pieces Finally the book presents the poet's two greatest masterpieces in their entirety the Duino Elegies and The Sonnets to Orpheus Rilke's voice with its extraordinary combination of formality power speed and lightness can be heard in Mr Mitchell's versions more clearly than in any others said W S Merwin His work is masterful

Sonnets to Orpheus Rainer Maria Rilke, 2004-12-07 Written during an astonishing outburst of creativity during a period of only two weeks in February 1922 Rilke's Sonnets to Orpheus is one of the great poetic works of the twentieth century Willis Barnstone brings these striking poems into English with an approach honed through years of work on the philosophy of translation about which he has written extensively This dual language edition allows readers to compare versions face to face to get a clear sense of the nuances of the translation Also included is an extensive introduction from the translator that offers a biographical sketch of Rilke and reflects upon the ever present tension between the poet's passion for life romance and adventure and his yearning for the solitude he desperately needed to dedicate himself fully to his art

Rilke in the Making: A Comprehensive Study of His Life and Work from 1897 to 1926, in Three Volumes John O'Meara, 2023-09-02 In part through critical biography in part through a close reading of almost all of the poems Rilke wrote including many poems from his Diaries this large book challenges new ideas about what went into the making of Rilke over twenty years of production from his early beginnings under the tutelage of Lou Salom right through to his famous final works the Sonnets to Orpheus and the Duino Elegies Volume 1 focuses largely on The Book of Hours Volume 2 on The Book of Images the two parts of New Poems The Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge and the first Elegies written while at Duino Volume 3 on those all crucial self-transforming ten years beyond Duino that lead up to the Sonnets to Orpheus and Rilke's eventual completion of the Elegies Two major theses are put forward in this book the first touching on Rilke's well known relationship to his former lover and mentor Lou Salom who is understood to have been a far more problematic influence on him than we had supposed the second touching on an equally crucial and at some point saving influence on Rilke from the literary sphere which is shown to be that of the great visionary poet who went by the name of Novalis Behind the grand story of Rilke's poetic emergence lies the fundamental and long standing reality of his repression by Lou and what that would sow paradoxically by way of a sublimated achievement as sublimely poignant as it is finally tragic JOHN O MEARA received his PhD from the University of East Anglia in 1986 He taught for many years at the University of Toronto and the University of Ottawa He is the author of The Way of Novalis and Remembering Shakespeare Visit the author's website at johnomeara.squarespace.com

The Love Lives of the Artists Daniel Bullen, 2013-02-12 As the oldest of institutions marriage seems outdated in modern times when each individual is encouraged to break with tradition in order to fulfill him or herself And so artists like Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo seem to be paving the way toward a brave new kind of marriage where spouses would be allowed even encouraged to fulfill different aspects of themselves in outside relationships Shared creativity they believed would transcend their jealousies and compensate their sufferings through art they would rise above conventional marital fidelity and prove a higher fidelity to art and to themselves The Love Lives of the Artists tells the stories of Rainer Maria Rilke and Lou Andreas Salom Alfred Stieglitz and Georgia O'Keeffe Jean Paul Sartre and Simone de Beauvoir Diego and Frida and Henry Miller and Ana's Nin five couples who approached their relationships with the same rebellious creativity as they practiced in their art From their early artistic development and their first experiences in love to their artistic marriages and their affairs and then to their fights and reconciliations addictions nervous breakdowns and continued creativity The Love Lives of the Artists describes the promise and the price of freedom and creativity in love

, The Archetypal Imagination James Hollis, 2002-11-25 Also available in an open access full text edition at <http://oaktrust.library.tamu.edu/handle/1969.1/85764> What we wish to know and most desire remains unknowable and lies beyond our grasp With these words James Hollis leads readers to consider the nature of our human need for meaning in life and for connection to a world less limiting than our own In The Archetypal Imagination Hollis offers a lyrical Jungian appreciation of the archetypal imagination He argues that without the human mind's ability to form energy filled images that link us to worlds beyond our rational and emotional capacities we would have neither culture nor spirituality Drawing upon the work of poets and philosophers Hollis shows the importance of depth experience meaning and connection to an other world Just as humans have instincts for biological survival and social interaction we have instincts for spiritual connection as well Just as our physical and social needs seek satisfaction so the spiritual instincts of the human animal are expressed in images we form to evoke an emotional or spiritual response as in our dreams myths and religious traditions The author draws upon the work of the poet Rainer Maria Rilke's Duino Elegies to elucidate the archetypal imagination in literary forms To underscore the importance of incarnating depth experience he also examines a series of paintings by Nancy Witt With the power of the archetypal imagination available to all of us we are invited to summon courage to take on the world anew to relinquish outmoded identities and defenses and to risk a radical re imagining of the larger possibilities of the world and of the self

Photography, Trace, and Trauma Margaret Iversen, 2017-02-27 Photography is often associated with the psychic effects of trauma the automatic nature of the process wide open camera lens and light sensitive film record chance details unnoticed by the photographer similar to what happens when a traumatic event bypasses consciousness and lodges deeply in the unconscious mind Photography Trace and Trauma takes a groundbreaking look at photographic art and works in other media that explore this important analogy Examining photography and film molds rubbings and more Margaret Iversen considers how these artistic processes can be understood as presenting or simulating a residue trace or index of a traumatic event These approaches which involve close physical contact or the short circuiting of artistic agency are favored by artists who wish to convey the disorienting effect and elusive character of trauma Informing the work of a number of contemporary artists including Tacita Dean Jasper Johns Mary Kelly Gabriel Orozco and Gerhard Richter the concept of the trace is shown to be vital for any account of the aesthetics of trauma it has left an indelible mark on the history of photography and art as a whole

Flesh of My Flesh Kaja Silverman, 2009-10-28 What is a woman What is a man How do they and how should they relate to each other Does our yearning for wholeness refer to something real and if there is a Whole what is it and why do we feel so estranged from it For centuries now art and literature have increasingly valorized uniqueness and self sufficiency The theoreticians who loom so large within contemporary thought also privilege difference over similarity Silverman reminds us that this is but half the story and a dangerous half at that for if we are all individuals we are doomed to be rivals and enemies A much older story one that prevailed through the early modern era held that likeness or resemblance was what organized the universe and that everything emerges out of the same flesh Silverman shows that analogy so discredited by much of twentieth century thought offers a much more promising view of human relations In the West the emblematic story of turning away is that of Orpheus and Eurydice and the heroes of Silverman s sweeping new reading of nineteenth and twentieth century culture the modern heirs to the old analogical view of the world also gravitate to this myth They embrace the correspondences that bind Orpheus to Eurydice and acknowledge their kinship with others past and present The first half of this book assembles a cast of characters not usually brought together Friedrich Nietzsche Sigmund Freud Marcel Proust Lou Andr as Salom Romain Rolland Rainer Maria Rilke Wilhelm Jensen and Paula Modersohn Becker The second half is devoted to three contemporary artists whose works we see in a moving new light Terrence Malick James Coleman and Gerhard Richter

Wordsworth's Unremembered Pleasure Alexander Freer, 2020 Wordsworth s Unremembered Pleasure explores the poet s sustained interest in the ethical and aesthetic value of overlooked underacknowledged and unremembered pleasures Such pleasures are marginal and fleeting they pass by silently and are recognized only retrospectively Yet they shape the aims technique and ultimately the whole affective economy of Wordsworth s writing Rather than understanding the domain of pleasure to be strictly subjective personal experience Wordsworth posits affects and attachments beyond conscious experience or possession Teasing apart unremembered pleasure from the psychoanalytic concepts of sublimation repression and trauma the book offers new interpretations of both well known and marginal poems rethinking familiar oppositions between childhood and maturity and between sensation and recollection By tracing affects which are not determinate sensations so much as unacknowledged gifts it demonstrates how retrospective pleasure undercuts fantasies of purely autonomous experience It argues for the centrality of surprise unremembered pleasure promises to disturb catch out and remake the person who encounters it More broadly it locates in Wordsworth s account of composition the resources to rethink poetic pleasure not as wish fulfilment nor as aesthetic escape but as an engaged and reparative relation to the world Book jacket

Hovda, Gabe Huck, 2003 In Toward Ritual Transformation renowned liturgist Robert W Hovda and other distinguished liturgists who have followed his lead challenge the Church to continue a pilgrimage toward beauty and justice the inseparable components of Christian liturgy and life Father Hovda s bishop once accused him of having a messiah complex Hovda replied I thought we were supposed to Hovda s messiah complex was the idea of a church never finalized or finished never an accomplished fact but always on pilgrimage seeking growing and helping the world grow toward what Scripture calls the reign of God This faith community comes to realize gradually with the help of the Word of God and the signs of the times that its ministry in the world is the liberation and unification of the human race because the God of the Bible is a God who is living whose creative work is ongoing and whose call beckons us always to move beyond where we are at any given moment Essays and their contributors are A Tree Planted by a Stream by Gabe Huck The Sacred Silence and Song by Robert W Hovda Liturgical Prayer Twenty five Years of Change by Virgil C Funk Ritual Transformations Principles Patterns and People by J Michael Joncas Being Beautiful Being Just by Nathan D Mitchell The Transforming Power of Music Tales of Transformation by James Savage and All at Once the Music Changed by John Foley S J

Canis Modernis Karalyn Kendall-Morwick, 2020-12-22 Modernist literature might well be accused of going to the dogs From the strays wandering the streets of Dublin in James Joyce s Ulysses to the highbred canine subject of Virginia Woolf s Flush dogs populate a range of modernist texts In many ways the dog in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries became a potent symbol of the modern condition facing like the human species the problem of adapting to modernizing forces that relentlessly outpaced it Yet the dog in literary modernism does not function as a stand in for the human In this book Karalyn Kendall Morwick examines the human dog relationship in modernist works by Virginia

Woolf Jack London Albert Payson Terhune J R Ackerley and Samuel Beckett among others Drawing from the evolutionary theories of Charles Darwin and the scientific literary and philosophical work of Donna Haraway Temple Grandin and Carrie Rohman she makes a case for the dog as a coevolutionary and coadapting partner of humans As our coevolutionary partners dogs destabilize the human not the autonomous self transparent subject of Western humanism the human is instead contingent shaped by its material interactions with other species By demonstrating how modernist representations of dogs ultimately mongrelize the human this book reveals dogs status both as instigators of the crisis of the modern subject and as partners uniquely positioned to help humans adapt to the turbulent forces of modernization Accessibly written and convincingly argued this study shows how dogs challenge the autonomy of the human subject and the humanistic underpinnings of traditional literary forms It will find favor with students and scholars of modernist literature and animal studies
