Empowering Teachers to Build a Better World Fernando M. Reimers, 2020-03-23 This open access book presents a comparative study on how large scale professional development programs for teachers are designed and implemented Around the world governments and educators are recognizing the need to educate students in a broad range of higher order cognitive skills and socio emotional competencies and providing effective opportunities for teachers to develop the expertise needed to teach these skills is a crucial aspect of effective implementation of curricula which include those goals This study examines how large scale efforts to empower teachers for deeper instruction have been designed how they have been implemented and their outcomes To do so it investigates six programs from England Colombia Mexico India and the United States Though all six are intended to broaden and deepen students curricular aspirations each takes this expansion of curricular goals in a different direction The ambitious education reforms studied here explicitly focus on building teachers capacity to teach on a broader set of goals Through a discerning analysis of program documents evaluations and interviews with senior leaders and participants in the programs the book identifies the various theories of action used in these programs examines how they were implemented and discusses what they achieved As such it offers an indispensable resource for education leaders interested in designing and implementing professional development programs for teachers that are aligned with ambitious instructional goals Activist Leadership for Inclusive Schools Zuhra Abawi, Ardavan Eizadirad, Stephanie Tuters, Andrew B. Campbell, 2025-03-13 Activist Leadership for Inclusive Schools explores courageous methods for educational leadership and principalship in Canada to move beyond additive discourses of diversity to dismantling systems of oppression for thriving schools and communities. It is a timely collection rooted in diverse approaches to activism that names, disrupts, and challenges dominant leadership discourses and practices that perpetuate harm to underserved communities. Throughout Canada, educational policies and mandates are often implemented without meaningful collaboration with the students, families, and communities they are intended to serve, thereby exacerbating systemic structural and institutional barriers. The collection's social justice approach to activism and leadership bridges gaps between policies, institutions, and communities. It calls for a more just education system that carves out spaces of belonging by honouring the lived experiences, identities, and intersectionalities of all students. This book is an invaluable resource for Canadian university education programs with courses focusing on educational leadership, diversity, social justice, or inclusive education. It also serves educational administration, existing teachers, principals, higher education instructors, and researchers, policy makers, and activists.

Working with Families for Inclusive Education Dick Sobsey, Kate Scorgie, 2017-05-15. The purpose of this volume is to explore personal, family, and theoretical constructions of inclusion and offer evidence-based strategies and resources to foster parent-professional-home-school collaborative partnerships.

36 Tools for Building Spirit in Learning Communities R. Bruce Williams, 2006-04-28. A master at facilitating programs, Williams offers 36 tools that are grounded in years of practical experience for helping teams turn the change process into manageable, user-friendly tasks. He reinvigorates learning communities with spirit, vigor, and mutual support as they address their specific challenges.

Robin Fogarty and Associates. Revitalize the spirit of your school community and strengthen your common vision and purpose. Many of today's schools suffer from stress fractures as they struggle with challenges of achievement gaps, class sizes, differentiating instruction for diverse students, and responding to ever greater demands for accountability. Longtime facilitator R. Bruce Williams gets to the heart of the matter, emphasizing that change is not just external but also comes from within through revitalized individuals and strong culture. Williams provides administrators with essential tools to nurture the spirits of hard-working professionals and raise morale in school communities. Each chapter ends with step-by-step activities that build on featured concepts and speed the transition from theory to practice, from struggle to success. The book focuses on seven important aspects of underlying structure that can leverage new patterns of confidence and achievement.

Participative processes such as mentoring, Visible Achievements, Common Understandings, Guided Reflections, Inspiring Success Stories, Community Building Rituals, Powerful Symbols. In powerful, well-formed cultures, common spirit is strong. This book provides everything educators need to work together to transform their learning community into a culture of vitality, energy, vision, and purpose.

Metropedagogy Joe L. Kincheloe, Kecia Hayes, 2006. Metropedagogy: Power, Justice, and the Urban Classroom. Joe Kincheloe, McGill University, and Kecia Hayes, Eds. The Graduate Center, City University of New York. What might it mean to develop a rigorous, just, and practical urban education? Such a question takes on new importance in the middle of the first decade of the twenty first century as urban educators find themselves besieged with test driven standardized curricula promoted in the name of fairness educational excellence and egalitarianism Those who promote these standardized curricula fail to account for the unique situations and need
