MacGarrigle, 1998 Combat Operations Taking the Offensive chronicles the onset of offensive operations by the U S Army after eighteen months of building up a credible force on the ground in South Vietnam and taking the first steps toward bringing the war to the enemy The compelling story by George L MacGarrigle begins in October 1966 when General William C Westmoreland believed that he had the arms and men to take the initiative from the enemy and that significant progress would be made on all fronts over the next twelve months Aware of American intentions North Vietnam undertook a prolonged war of attrition and stepped up the infiltration of its own troops into the South While the insurgency in the South remained the cornerstone of Communist strategy it was increasingly overshadowed by main force military operations These circumstances according to MacGarrigle set the stage for intensified combat The North Vietnamese and Viet Cong units retained the advantage fighting only when it suited their purposes and retreating with impunity into inviolate sanctuaries in Laos and Cambodia With Westmoreland feeling hamstrung by political constraints on his ability to wage war in the vast hostile areas along the border 1967 ended with a growing uncertainty in the struggle to secure the countryside Relying on official American and enemy primary sources MacGarrigle has crafted a well balanced account of this year of intense combat His volume is a tribute to those who sacrificed so much in a long and irresolute conflict and Soldiers engaged in military operations that place great demands on their initiative skill and devotion will find its thought provoking lessons worthy of reflection Field Artillery ,2010 This volume gathers in compact form the official historical records of field artillery units in the United States Army in order to perpetuate and publicize their traditions honors and heraldic entitlements It includes the lineages and honors of Regular Army and Army Reserve field artillery commands brigades and groups and corps and division artillery that have been active since 1965 It also includes the fifty eight elements of each regiment that have been active since the inception of the Combat Arms Regimental System in 1957
