Burrell, George G. Oberfell, 1915 Men Against the Sea - Book Set James Norman Hall, 2023-11-23 In Men Against the Sea James Norman Hall crafts a gripping narrative that intertwines themes of survival camaraderie and the profound challenges of the human spirit against the vastness of the ocean This book a companion to Hall s earlier work Mutiny on the Bounty employs a compelling literary style that oscillates between vivid realism and lyrical prose delving into the psychological and physical trials faced by castaways stranded in the South Pacific Set against the backdrop of World War II Hall expertly captures not just the immediate dangers of the sea but also the deeper emotional currents that propel the characters toward resilience and hope James Norman Hall an American writer and aviator is best known for his collaborations with Charles Nordhoff which include the acclaimed Bounty trilogy Drawing from his own extensive maritime experiences and the tumultuous historical context of his time Hall s writing reflects a profound fascination with the complexities of human nature when confronted with adversities making Men Against the Sea a poignant exploration of endurance This book is highly recommended for readers interested in nautical fiction survival narratives and historical accounts that reflect the human condition Hall s evocative storytelling and keen insights offer not only an engaging adventure but also a profound meditation on what it means to confront the forces of nature and the very essence of survival Ariadne's Thread William F.

Hansen, 2002 Ariadne s Thread is a mini encyclopedia of more than a hundred such international oral tales all present in the literature of ancient Greece and Rome It takes into account writings including early Jewish and Christian literature recorded in or translated into Greek or Latin by writers of any nationality As a result this book will be invaluable not only to classicists and folklorists but also to a wide range of other readers who are interested in stories and storytelling BOOK JACKET The uncivilized races of men in all countries of the world; vol. 2 of 2 J. G. Wood, 2023-07-10 In the second volume of The Uncivilized Races of Men in All Countries of the World J G Wood delves into the ethnographic study of various indigenous cultures exploring their social structures traditions and interactions with the encroaching modern world Written in the 19th century Wood s literary style combines vivid descriptive prose with a scientific rigor typical of the Victorian curiosity about human diversity He employs detailed observations reflective insights and an often romanticized narrative to portray the lives of these uncivilized peoples challenging readers to reconsider their preconceptions about civilization and cultural hierarchy J G Wood was a prominent naturalist author and educator whose passion for exploration and anthropology profoundly shaped his works His experiences as a natural historian combined with his deep rooted interest in the complexities of human cultures inspired him to produce comprehensive studies that resonate with the socio political dynamics of his time Wood s writings reflect the period s fascination with the exotic yet they also resonate with the underlying tensions stemming from colonial attitudes and the quest for a deeper understanding of mankind's varied expressions. This volume is essential reading for scholars and enthusiasts of anthropology, history, and colonial studies. Wood's blend of narrative and scholarly inquiry invites readers into a complex dialogue about race, culture, and civilization. As such, it serves not only as a historical document but also as a catalyst for contemporary discussions on cultural diversity and the ethical implications of Western perceptions of the other.

Cinematic Thinking James Phillips, 2008. This anthology of philosophical essays explores the interpersonal and political contexts in and against which the films of ten major postwar filmmakers were made.

On the Run From Evil Benefactors Frizner Altidor, 2011-03. After the brutal murder of his twin sister Annie Vic and his friend Sam, who are orphans in Haiti, vow to find the murderers, two Haitian police officers. When Vic goes to report this suspicion to the head of the police, he soon discovers a corrupt world where he and Sam become targeted as the most wanted criminals in the country for crimes they never committed. On the run through the dangerous streets of Port au Prince, Vic tries to figure out why they are being hunted. Except for another orphan, Natacha, and Annie's best friend from school, Sabrina, they can trust no one. Separated from his friends, Vic uncovers more secrets as to why Annie was murdered. He also discovers more horrifying information involving an inhumane international scandal. Who can he turn to? Where can Vic go to stop this unthinkable injustice?

The Old Man and the Bird and Other Fictions David Swartz, 2006-10. Six dark fictions with a cosmic scope and a delirious immediacy; these shorter pieces (2 novellas and 4 one acts) are an aspect of Swartz's gift many will find welcome, others hugely unsettling. The Old Man and the Bird, the concluding sequence of a befuddled Harry Ricci, could be taken as a neo-conservatively grotesque parable. From there, it is a short stroll to Burt Spew in Snappers, a madcap Armageddon of its own and parody of Jaws. We have as well such oddities as The Damnation of Winston Pollock, the saga of a disgruntled software wizard; The Gift Horse, and the Gift, the comic swan song of a disaffected shooter; Off the Record, the threnody of a pedophilic trans-racial hip-hop composer; and Clippers, the outcry of a small-town American sub-literate, a latter-day testosterone-laden barber waiting for his Godot. All told, these tales are abundant reminders that it was possible to laugh before 9/11 and to chuckle even roar long after en route to our current Abu Ghraib or Guantánamos.
