Birds and Poets John Burroughs, 2019-10-23 It might almost be said that the birds are all birds of the poets and of no one else because it is only the poetical temperament that fully responds to them So true is this that all the great ornithologists original namers and biographers of the birds have been poets in deed if not in word Audubon is a notable case in point who if he had not the tongue or the pen of the poet certainly had the eye and ear and heart the fluid and attaching character and the singleness of purpose the enthusiasm the unworldliness the love that characterize the true and divine race of bards John Burroughs was an American naturalist and nature essayist active in the U S conservation movement The first of his essay collections was Wake Robin in 1871      Writings: Birds and poets, with other papers John Burroughs,1895      Birds and Poets John Burroughs,2021-02-21 In summer when the shawes be shene And leaves be large and long It is full merry in fair forest To hear the fowl s song The wood wele sang and wolde not cease Sitting upon the spray So loud it wakened Robin Hood In the greenwood where he lay It might almost be said that the birds are all birds of the poets and of no one else because it is only the poetical temperament that fully responds to them So true is this that all the great ornithologists original namers and biographers of the birds have been poets in deed if not in word Audubon is a notable case in point who if he had not the tongue or the pen of the poet certainly had the eye and ear and heart the fluid and attaching character and the singleness of purpose the enthusiasm the unworldliness the love that characterize the true and divine race of bards So had Wilson though perhaps not in as large a measure yet he took fire as only a poet can While making a journey on foot to Philadelphia shortly after landing in this country he caught sight of the red headed woodpecker flitting among the trees a bird that shows like a tricolored scarf among the foliage and it so kindled his enthusiasm that his life was devoted to the pursuit of the birds from that day It was a lucky hit Wilson had already set up as a poet in Scotland and was still fermenting when the bird met his eye and suggested to his soul a new outlet for its enthusiasm The very idea of a bird is a symbol and a suggestion to the poet A bird seems to be at the top of the scale so vehement and intense is his life large brained large lunged hot ecstatic his frame charged with buoyancy and his heart with song The beautiful vagabonds endowed with every grace masters of all climes and knowing no bounds how many human aspirations are realized in their free holiday lives and how many suggestions to the poet in their flight and song Indeed is not the bird the original type and teacher of the poet and do we not demand of the human lark or thrush that he shake out his carols in the same free and spontaneous manner as his winged prototype Kingsley has shown how surely the old minnesingers and early ballad writers have learned of the birds taking their key note from the blackbird or the wood lark or the throstle and giving utterance to a melody as simple and unstudied Such things as the following were surely caught from the fields or the woods      Birds and Poets John Burroughs,1877

Birds and Poets John Burroughs, 2008-10-01 I have deliberated a long time about coupling some of my sketches of outdoor nature with a few chapters of a more purely literary character and thus confiding to my reader what absorbs and delights me inside my four walls as well as what pleases and engages me outside those walls especially since I have aimed to bring my outdoor spirit and method within and still to look upon my subject with the best naturalist's eye I could command I hope therefore he will not be scared away when I boldly confront him in the latter portions of my book with this name of strange portent Walt Whitman for I assure him that in this misjudged man he may press the strongest poetic pulse that has yet beaten in America or perhaps in modern times Then these chapters are a proper supplement or continuation of my themes and their analogy in literature because in them we shall follow out these lessons of the earth and air and behold their application to higher matters

A Theory of Birds Zaina Alsous, 2019-10-14 Winner of the 2019 Etel Adnan Poetry Prize Inside the dodo bird is a forest Inside the forest a peach analog Inside the peach analog a woman Inside the woman a lake of funerals This layering of bird woman place technology and ceremony which begins this first full length collection by Zaina Alsous mirrors the layering of insights that marks the collection as a whole The poems in A Theory of Birds draw on inherited memory historical record critical theory alternative geographies and sharp observation In them birds particularly extinct species become metaphor for the violences perpetrated on othered bodies under the colonial gaze Putting ecological preservation in conversation with Arab racial formation state vernacular with the chatter of birds Alsous explores how categorization can be a tool for detachment domination and erasure Stretching their wings toward de erasure these poems their subjects and their logics refuse to stay put within a single category This is poetry in support of a decolonized mind
