Twenty-First Century Obstetrics Now!, 1 David Stewart, Lee Stewart,1978-03 International Migration Rita James Simon, Caroline Brettell,1986 This long overdue compendium of studies on the international female migrant will certainly take its place among basic books on migration Migration, Tourism and Social Sustainability Jaeyeon Choe, Peter Lugosi,2023-03-21 The distinctions between tourism and migration are increasingly blurred Tourism often drives various forms of mobility and an international workforce is essential to maintaining functioning tourism economies This book explores intersections of tourism and migration considering their relationships with and impacts on social sustainability The chapters explore in a variety of contexts how the planning development and governance of tourism affects the sustainability of communities which consequently influences attitudes towards migrants and tourists They also consider how migrant local connections may evolve creating opportunities for positive symbiotic co existence or intergroup tensions and exploitative relationships The book paves the way for future work examining new forms and interactions between migration and tourism that contribute to social sustainability This book will be of great value to students academics and researchers interested in tourism geography migration diaspora studies and sociology The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies Home Birth Stanley E. Sagov, Richard I. Feinbloom, Peggy Spindel,1984 Circles of Care Emily K. Abel, Margaret K. Nelson,1990-07-05 This work examines the experience of women providing care to children disabled persons the chronically ill and the frail elderly It differs from most writing about caregiving because it focuses on the providers rather than the care recipients It looks at the experience of women caregivers in specific settings exploring what caregiving actually entails and what it means in their lives
