Birth Of Modern America 1919-1939:

The Birth of Modern America John McClymer, 2005-03-01      The Twenty Years' Crisis, 1919-1939 Edward Hallett Carr, 1964      The Left Wing Intellectuals Between the Wars, 1919-1939, 1966      Documents on British Foreign Policy, 1919-1939 Great Britain. Foreign Office, 1946      American Protestantism and Social Issues, 1919-1939 Robert Moats Miller, 1977      The Professionalization of Window Display in Britain, 1919-1939 Kerry Meakin, 2024-09-05 This book provides the first comprehensive history of window display as a practice and profession in Britain during the dynamic period of 1919 to 1939. In recent decades the disciplines of retail history, business history, design and cultural history have contributed to the study of department stores and other types of shops. However, these studies have only made passing references to window display and its role in retail society and culture. Kerry Meakin investigates the conditions that enabled window display to become a professional practice during the interwar period, exploring the shift in display styles, developments within education and training, and the international influence on methods and techniques. Piecing together the evidence, visual and written, about people, events, organisations, exhibitions and debates, Meakin provides a critical examination of this vital period of design history, highlighting major display designers and artists. The book reveals the modernist aesthetic developments that influenced high street displays and how they introduced passers-by to modern art movements.

Women's International Activism during the Inter-War Period, 1919-1939 Ingrid Sharp, Matthew Stibbe, 2018-10-18 In historical writing the interwar years are often associated with the rise of extreme forms of nationalism. Yet paradoxically this period also saw significant advances in the development of internationalism and international mindedness. This collection examines previously under-researched aspects of the role played by women's movements and individual female activists in this process. Women campaigners contributed to and helped to re-define what constituted international work in myriad ways. For some, particularly those coming from a radical pacifist background, the central theme after 1919 was the eradication of war and the preservation of world peace. Yet others were more interested in the sharing of medical knowledge across borders in the promotion of new causes such as physical fitness or the cultural assimilation of immigrants or in finding fresh and innovative ways of battling for old causes such as female suffrage and women's access to education. It was even possible for nationalist women to use the language and practices of internationalism to further their own conservative illiberal or anti-communist agendas or to argue for revision of the peace treaties of 1919-20. The volume addresses these different kinds of activism and the many links between them by way of particular examples. This book was originally published as a special issue of Women's History Review. The Diplomats, 1919-1939 Gordon A. Craig, Felix Gilbert, 1953. The authors examine the diplomatic history of the European powers in the era between World War I and World War II. British Foreign Policy, 1919-1939 Paul W. Doerr, 1998-05-15. Provides students with a clear narrative overview of the period which will enable them to form critical opinions. Introduces students to the historical controversies of the period and communicates the results of recent specialist studies to a student readership in an easily understood manner. An accessible clearly written account accompanied by useful bibliography, chronology, tables and maps and written by an author teaching in the field. Economic Survey, 1919-1939 William Arthur Lewis, 1969. Analysis of trends in the world economy during the period from 1919 to 1939 includes a chronology of historical events of the period and covers economic relations, trade, performance, the balance of payments, the economic recession, obstacles to economic growth and national level experiments in economic planning. Bibliography pp 214 to 218 and references. The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia 1919-1939 Edward Griffith Dodson, 1939. The Structure of American Economy, 1919-1939 Wassily Leontief, 1976. 1977 reprint of 1951 edition. Modern Houses in Britain, 1919-1939 Jeremy Gould, 1977. American Relations with Tropical Africa, 1919-1939 Edward H. McKinley, 1971. The Diplomats: 1919-1939: The Twenties Gordon Alexander Craig, Felix Gilbert, 1968. Military Force and American Policy, 1919-1939 John Chalmers Vinson, 1957. The Twenty Years' Crisis, 1919-1939 E.H. Carr, 2016-12-02. E.H. Carr's Twenty Years Crisis is a classic work in International Relations. Published in 1939 on the eve of World War II, it was immediately recognized by friend and foe alike as a defining work in the fledgling discipline. The author was one of the most influential and controversial intellectuals of the twentieth century. The issues and themes he develops in this book continue to have relevance to modern day concerns with power and its distribution in the international system. Michael Cox's critical introduction provides the reader with background information about the author, the context for the book, its main themes and contemporary relevance. Written with the student in mind, it offers a guide to understanding a complex but crucial text. Now updated with a new preface from Michael Cox. Documents on British Foreign Policy 1919-1939 Great Britain. Foreign Office, 1946. Avant-garde Photography in Germany 1919-1939 Van Deren Coke, 1982.
