Birthmarks Transracial Adoption In Contemporary America:

BirthMarks Sandra Lee Patton, Sandra Patton-Imani, 2000-11 An empathetic study of the meanings of cross racial adoption to adoptees Law and Politics Book Review Can White parents teach their Black children African American culture and history Can they impart to them the survival skills necessary to survive in the racially stratified United States Concerns over racial identity have been at the center of controversies over transracial adoption since the 1970s as questions continually arise about whether White parents are capable of instilling a positive sense of African American identity in their Black children Through in depth interviews with adult transracial adoptees as well as with social workers in adoption agencies Sandra Patton herself an adoptee explores the social construction of race identity gender and family and the ways in which these interact with public policy about adoption Patton offers a compelling overview of the issues at stake in transracial adoption She discusses recent changes in adoption and social welfare policy which prohibit consideration of race in the placement of children as well as public policy definitions of bad mothers which can foster coerced aspects of adoption to show how the lives of transracial adoptees have been shaped by the policies of the U S child welfare system Neither an argument for nor against the practice of transracial adoption BirthMarks seeks to counter the dominant public view of this practice as a panacea to the so called epidemic of illegitimacy and the misfortune of infertility among the middle class with a more nuanced view that gives voice to those directly involved shedding light on the ways in which Black and multiracial adoptees articulate their own identity experiences

Race in Transnational and Transracial

Adoption Vilna Bashi Treitler, 2014-07-22 When parents form families by reaching across social barriers to adopt children where and how does race enter the adoption process How do agencies parents and the adopted children themselves deal with issues of difference in adoption This volume engages writers from both sides of the Atlantic to take a close look at these issues

Queering Family Trees Sandra Patton-Imani, 2020-06-09 Argues that significant barriers to family making exist for lesbian mothers of color in the United States One might be tempted in the afterglow of Obergefell v Hodges to believe that the battle has been won that gays and lesbians fought a tough fight and finally achieved equality in the United States through access to legal marriage But that narrative tells only one version of a very complex story about family and citizenship Queering Family Trees explores the lived experience of queer mothers in the United States drawing on over one hundred interviews with African American Latina Native American white and Asian American lesbian mothers living in a range of socioeconomic circumstances to show how they have navigated family making While the legalization of same sex marriage and adoption in 2015 has provided avenues toward equality for some couples structural and economic barriers have meant that others especially queer women of color who often have fewer financial resources have not been able to access seemingly available choices such as second parent adoptions powers of attorney and wills Sandra Patton Imani here argues that the virtual exclusion of lesbians of color from public narratives about LGBTQ families is crucial to maintaining the narrative that legal marriage for same sex couples provides access to full equality as citizens Through the lens of reproductive justice Patton Imani argues that the federal legalization of same sex marriage reinforces existing structures of inequality grounded in race gender sexuality and class Queering Family Trees explores the lives of a critically erased segment of the queer population demonstrating that the seemingly color blind solutions offered by marriage equality do not rectify such inequalities

Another Mother Sarah Gerstenzang, 2007 The author describes her experiences being a foster parent discussing home visits intervention evaluation parenting training sessions transracial placement and other related topics

The Routledge Critical Adoption Studies Reader Emily Hipchen, 2023-12-22 The Routledge Critical Adoption Studies Reader presents a central source of scholarly approaches arranged around fundamental questions about how adoption as a complex practice of family making is represented in art philosophy the law history literature political science and other humanities Divided into three major parts this volume traces the history of adoption and its analogues identifies major movements in the practice and illuminates comprehensive disciplinary frameworks that underpin the field s approaches This key scholarly and pedagogical tool includes excerpts from scholars such as Judith Butler Dorothy Roberts Margaret Homans Margaret D Jacobs Arissa Oh Marianne Novy and Kori Graves It explores a variety of representations of adoption and embraces interdisciplinary discussions of reproduction as it intersects race ethnicity power relations the concept of nation history the idea of childhood and many other contemporary concerns The Routledge Critical Adoption Studies Reader provides a single volume resource for instructors or students who want a convenient collection of foundational materials for teaching or reference and for researchers newly discovering the field This volume s humanities perspective makes it the first of its kind to collect secondary materials in Critical Adoption Studies for researchers who in taking up cultural representations of adoption examine cultural contexts not for their impact on the practice over time but for their richness of engagement with the human experience of belonging kinship and identity Handbook of Adoption Rafael A. Javier,2007 Handbook of Adoption addresses topics in adoption that reflect the many dimensions of theory research development race adjustment and clinical practice which can affect adoption triad members Postwestern Cultures Susan Kollin,2007-01-01 Synthesizes topics of contemporary scholarship of the American West This work examines subjects ranging from the use of frontier rhetoric in Japanese American internment camp narratives to the emergence of agricultural tourism in the New West to the application of geographer J B Jackson s theories to vernacular or abandoned western landscapes Asian American Fiction, History and Life Writing Helena Grice,2012-11-12 The last ten years have witnessed an enormous growth in American interest in Asia and Asian American history In particular a set of key Asian historical moments have recently become the subject of intense American cultural scrutiny namely China s Cultural Revolution and its aftermath the Korean American war and its legacy the era of Japanese geisha culture and its subsequent decline and China s one child policy and the rise of transracial international adoption in its wake Grice examines and accounts for this cultural and literary preoccupation exploring the corresponding historical political situations that have both circumscribed and enabled greater cultural and political contact between Asia and America Racism Albert J. Wheeler,2000 Of all mankind s vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World Legitimizing Life Sonja van Wichelen,2019 Sonja van Wichelen boldly describes how contemporary justifications of cross border adoption navigate between child welfare humanitarianism family making capitalism science and health Focusing on contemporary institutional practices of adoption in the United States and the Netherlands she traces how professionals bureaucrats lawyers politicians social workers and experts legitimate a practice that became progressively controversial The Futures of American Studies Donald E. Pease,Robyn Wiegman,2002-10-21 A state of the art portrait of the field of American studies its interests and methodologies its interactions with the social and cultural movements it describes and attempts to explain and a compendium of likely directions the field will take in the f

On the Borders of Love and Power David Wallace Adams,Crista DeLuzio,2012-07-09 Embracing the crossroads that made the region distinctive this book reveals how American families have always been characterized by greater diversity than idealizations of the traditional family have allowed He essays show how family life figured prominently in relations to larger struggles for conquest and control The Morality of Adoption Timothy Patrick Jackson, 2005 The Religion Marriage and Family Series investigates marriage and family as major theological and cultural issues Given that both society and the church have debated these topics intensely but have actually studied them very little this series attempts to correct recent theological neglect of these important matters Framed by War Susie Woo, 2019-11-19 An intimate portrait of the postwar lives of Korean children and women Korean children and women are the forgotten population of a forgotten war Yet during and after the Korean War they were central to the projection of US military cultural and political dominance Framed by War examines how the Korean orphan GI baby adoptee birth mother prostitute and bride emerged at the heart of empire Strained embodiments of war they brought Americans into Korea and Koreans into America in ways that defined and at times defied US empire in the Pacific What unfolded in Korea set the stage for US postwar power in the second half of the twentieth century and into the twenty first American destruction and humanitarianism violence and care played out upon the bodies of Korean children and women Framed by War traces the arc of intimate relations that served as these foundations To suture a fragmented past Susie Woo looks to US and South Korean government documents and military correspondence US aid organization records Korean orphanage registers US and South Korean newspapers and magazines and photographs interviews films and performances Integrating history with visual and cultural analysis Woo chronicles how Americans went from knowing very little about Koreans to making them family and how Korean children and women who did not choose war found ways to navigate its aftermath in South Korea the United States and spaces in between Mothering, Mixed Families and Racialised Boundaries Ravinder Barn, Vicki Harman, 2015-09-04 This pioneering volume draws together theoretical and empirical contributions analyzing the experiences of white mothers in interracial families in Britain Canada and the USA The growth of the mixed race population reflects an increasingly racially and culturally heterogeneous society shaped by powerful forces of globalisation and migration Mixed family formations are becoming increasingly common through marriage relationships and adoption and there is also increasing social recognition of interracial families through the inclusion of mixed categories in Census data and other official statistics The changing demographic make up of Britain and other Western countries raises important questions about identity belonging and the changing nature of family life It also connects with theoretical and empirical discussions about the significance of race in contemporary society In exploring mothering across racialised boundaries this volume offers new insights and perspectives The notion of racialisation is invoked to argue that while the notion of race does not exist in any meaningful sense it continues to operate as a social process This crucial resource will appeal to academics researchers policy makers practitioners and undergraduate and postgraduate students This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Making Multiracials Kimberly McClain DaCosta, 2007 Making Multiracials explains how a social movement emerged around mixed race identity in the 1990s and how it made multiracial a recognizable racial category in the United States The Legacy of Racism for Children Margaret C. Stevenson, Bette L. Bottoms, Kelly C. Burke, 2020 This volume is the first book to examine issues that arise when minority children's lives are directly or indirectly influenced by law and public policy laws and policies that are rooted in historical racism It addresses intersections of race ethnicity within the context of child maltreatment child dependency court custody and interracial adoption familial incarceration school punishment and the so called school to prison pipeline juvenile justice police youth interactions jurors perceptions of child and adolescent victims and defendants and immigration law and policy Afterlife of Empire Jordanna Bailkin, 2012-11-15 This book investigates how decolonization transformed British society in the 1950s and 1960s and examines the relationship between the postwar and the postimperial Mixed Race America and the Law Kevin R. Johnson, 2003-02 This ground breaking anthology examines the mixed race experience and the impact of law on mixed race citizens in America
