Bits And Pieces Love And Words:

Joyce's Love Stories Christopher DeVault, 2016-12-05 In his comprehensive study of love in James Joyce's writings Christopher DeVault suggests that a love ethic persists throughout Joyce s works DeVault uses Martin Buber s distinction between the true love for others and the narcissistic desire for oneself to frame his discussion showing that Joyce frequently ties his characters personal and political pursuits to their ability to affirm both their loved ones and their fellow Dubliners In his short stories and novels DeVault argues Joyce shows how personal love makes possible a broader social compassion that creates a more progressive body politic While his early protagonists narcissism limits them to detached engagements with Dublin that impede effective political action Joyce demonstrates the viability of his love ethic through both the Blooms empathy in Ulysses and the polylogic dreamtext of Finnegan's Wake In its revelation of Joyce's amorous alternative to the social and political paralysis he famously attributed to twentieth century Dublin Joyce's Love Stories allows for a better appreciation of the ethical and political significance underpinning the author's assessments of Ireland Mountain F. E. Greene, 2023-01-23 Sermons on the Mountain is a testimony profile of one man's life as he journeys through this world of sin He revealed a series of testimonies and sermonettes that he called Sermons on the Mountain The Semiotics of Love Marcel Danesi, 2019-07-30 The Semiotics of Love brings Love-Powered Diet Victoria Moran. together work on early symbolism literary practices and contemporary communication on the theme of romance and the idea of love to forge an understanding of the semiotic cultural side of romance Moving beyond psychological and neuroscientific scholarly analyses of love Marcel Danesi works to interrogate the cultural constructions of love across societies This book analyzes romantic love from the general perspective of semiotics that is from its more generic interpretive angle rather than its more technical one The specific analytical lens used is based on the notion that we convert our feeling structures into sign structures words symbols and sign based constructions texts rituals etc which then allow us to reflect upon something cognitively rather than just experience it physically and emotionally Nuggets Alfonso Burrelli, 2014-11-26 In this aptly titled collection of short stories the author offers his personal observations on the human condition as well as the nuggets of precious wisdom the reader might extract from them The settings of these stories are varied and range from a cabin in the freezing northlands to a baronial palazzo In compelling scenes of betrayal despair murderous rage hallucination and violence the moral of these tales is implicit humanity has lost its way and Eden appears to be out of reach Redemption beckons however in the form of love and acceptance and without limitations of age While the emotional tenor of many of the stories is dark and forbidding it is counterbalanced by the sheer joy of the stories that celebrate young love belated love and the good will of rescuers and Samaritans Eden emerges triumphant in this collection through the author's belief that while humanity creates its own brand of evil it is also capable of engendering its own miracles So, We Meet Again Michael Reisman, 2011-12-01 The characters and circumstances may be different but the outcome is the same It usually ends up with
