Child's Unfinished Masterpiece Mary Ellen Brown, 2011 The premier scholar of the English language traditional or popular ballad Francis James Child spent decades working on his widely read and performed collection The English and Scottish Popular Ballads In this first single author monograph of Child s life and work Mary Ellen Brown analyzes Child s editorial methods his decisions about which ballads to include and his relationships with colleagues at Harvard and abroad Brown draws on his extensive correspondence with collaborators to trace the production of his monumental work from conception and selection through organization and collation of the ballads Child s Unfinished

Masterpiece shows readers what was at stake in Child's search for original manuscript materials housed at libraries and estates far afield and his desire to uncover unedited versions of previous editors' texts. In analyzing Child's letters Brown also delves into his important network of collaborators, scholars and friends such as William Macmath, Sven Grundtvig, James Russell Lowell and Charles Eliot Norton who influenced the organization and content of his work. Readers learn about the questions Child faced as an editor: whether the materials he gathered were authentic, whether a piece was more ballad or a song or whether the text was sufficiently old or traditional. In showing Child's struggles with content and organization for The English and Scottish Popular Ballads, Brown notes the difficulty in defining the ballad genre while also showing that a clear definition is not a fatal flaw of the volume or to scholars' continued study of it. Influences Anna Gerber, Anja Lutz, 2006 the reader can also read her Diary first hand so as to see the primary source that the author of this book took inspiration from for that day s reflection Though the primary text of the Diary is never quoted nor are the reflections of this book exact representations of the Diary they do provide the foundational basis for the spiritual message shared in each reflection The second paragraph for each day offers a short reflection put more as a question to the reader It offers the same insight in a different format so as to enter more deeply into the message of the day Finally each daily reflection ends with a prayer focused upon the message and reflection for that day The reader is encouraged to pray this prayer several times Ideally it is prayed first thing in the morning again during the day and again at night as an examination on how well the daily message was received As you seek to survive the world we live in allow these pages to be a font of Mercy for you from God Allow God s Divine Mercy to penetrate your heart so that you will know the abundance of His love and be more prepared to share that love with others     Masters Abstracts ,1975
