The Bitter Berry Bettie M. Sellers, 1992 Black Earth and Ivory Tower Zachary Michael Jack, 2005 The collected reflections and wisdoms of 30 contemporary farmer writer teachers heralding the seventy fifth anniversary of the quintessential agrarian anthology I'll Take My Stand Zachary Michael Jack himself a fourth generation farmer's son has assembled North America's foremost contemporary writers on the present rural experience to provide their own twenty first century insights In the grand tradition of farmer writers Robert Frost Henry David Thoreau and Andrew Lytle Black Earth and Ivory Tower New American Essays from Farm and Classroom gathers the disparate wisdoms of modern day stewards of the land including Victor David Hanson Michael Martone Linda Hasselstrom John Hildebrand Country Things cartoonist Bob Artley and Duane Acker former U S Assistant Secretary of Science and Education and former president of Kansas State University These gifted teachers and growers offer hard won inspiration from the field and the classroom exemplifying the multifaceted farm grounded talents that call them to lives as writers visual artists conservation tillers environmentalists economists policymakers extension agents and grassroots activists Seeking a balanced life that reconciles the hands heart and head they follow roads less traveled to find agrarian lifestyles at once enlightening and challenging At a time when less than two percent of Americans count themselves as farmers these writers all of whom have cultivated the earth and climbed the ivory tower underscore the diversity of the American farm as a wellspring of learning Their plainspoken commentaries on modern farming teaching and living will remind older generations of time honored agrarian values and provide a new generation with a literate critical account of shifting national priorities Fable in the Blood Byron Herbert

Reece, 2019-03-01 Collected here are poems by one of Georgia's most intriguing and talented poets of the twentieth century Byron Herbert Reece was born in Union County Georgia in 1917 and authored four volumes of poems and two novels during his short lifetime Until now many of his poems originally published in the 1940s and 1950s have been out of print Reece who faithfully assumed responsibility for his family's farm when his parents became ill was never a poet of the academic ivory tower Indeed he rebelled against the rising New Criticism associated with the Vanderbilt Fugitives the elite of southern poetry at that time Reece's work reflects both the devastating impact of his parents' death from tuberculosis and his own affliction with the disease which caused him to distance himself from others A solitary thing am I Upon the roads of rust and flame That thin at sunset to the air Reece was also preoccupied with his ambivalence toward the farm which sustained his solitude yet took time away from his writing In the far dark woods go roving And find there to match your mood A kindred spirit moving Where the wild winds blow in the wood Reece's poetry is resonant and contemplative and Jim Clark has included here works that speak for the true grace of Reece's talent In addition Clark's attentive introduction should bring increased interest to this notable southern poet The Hawk and the Sun Byron Herbert Reece, 1994 Set in the small town pre civil rights South The Hawk and the Sun is the story of one day in the life of Dandelion a physically impaired man who is the sole black resident in the town of Tilden Years before the birth of a mixed race child to a white prostitute had precipitated an outpouring of hatred against Tilden s black citizens all of whom but Dandelion had been driven from town In this atmosphere of smoldering self righteousness Dandelion survives on handouts and what little he can earn from odd jobs Finally the town turns against him as well Seen hurrying from the house of the neurotic Miss Ella as her screams fill the air of an August morning Dandelion is apprehended and falsely accused of rape Before the day s end he is tortured and lynched In his rendering of Dandelion of those who murdered him of those who looked the other way and of the lone white man who stood futilely against the mob Byron Herbert Reece brings his readers face to face with the horrifying spectacle of collective fear and racism
