Bitter Canaan The Story Of The Negro Rep:

Bitter Canaan Charles S. Johnson, 2022-03-26 A neglected classic unpublished until now Bitter Canaan is a historical sociological account of Liberian society Written in 1930 and revised in 1948 by the influential pioneering black sociologist Charles S Johnson it has remained talked about but unknown Founded in 1821 Liberia was conceived as a haven for freed American slaves Johnson traces the historical development of American race relations that lead to the emigration of thousands of blacks to Liberia The struggles in leaving America and settling the African wilderness are detailed He shows how a Liberian nationality evolved and how the social economic and political foundations of the nascent state affected its history His critical study of American corporate intervention in Liberian society in the twentieth century has the flair of contemporary political analysis

Handbook of Land and Water Grabs in Africa John Anthony Allan, 2013 Four other themes will address politics economics the environment and the history of land investments in sub Saharan Africa

Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set KEVIN SHILLINGTON., 2005 Sovereignty without Power Leigh A. Gardner, 2022-11-03 What did independence mean during the age of empires How did independent governments balance different interests when they made policies about trade money and access to foreign capital Sovereignty without Power tells the story of Liberia one of the few African countries to maintain independence through the colonial period Established in 1822 as a colony for freed slaves from the United States Liberia's history illustrates how the government's efforts to exercise its economic sovereignty and engage with the global economy shaped Liberia's economic and political development over the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Drawing together a wide range of archival sources Leigh A Gardner presents the first quantitative estimates of Liberia's economic performance and uses these to compare it to its colonized neighbors and other independent countries Liberia's history anticipated challenges still faced by developing countries today and offers a new perspective on the role of power and power relationships in shaping Africa's economic history

Black Reflective Sociology John H Stanfield II, 2016-06-03 John H Stanfield II the leading contemporary Black sociologist of knowledge distills decades of his research and thinking in a set of articles some original to the volume others from fugitive sources that address race in the formation of epistemologies theories and methodologies in social science Stanfield's contributions to the discipline such as the adoption of restorative justice as an anti racism solution in multiracial societies and the development of African diasporic sociological reasoning are highlighted here Ranging widely across theoretical methodological and substantive topics Stanfield creates a reflective sociology viewed through an African diasporic lens that enriches the thinking and practice of social science

The Problem of Slavery in the Age of Emancipation David Brion Davis, 2014-02-04 Winner of the 2014 National Book Critics Circle Award for General Nonfiction Shortlisted for the 2014 Cundill Prize in Historical Literature From the revered historian the long awaited conclusion of the magisterial history of slavery and emancipation in Western culture that has been nearly fifty years in the making David Brion Davis is one of the foremost historians of the twentieth century winner of the Pulitzer Prize the National Book Award the Bancroft Prize and nearly every award given by the historical profession Now with The Problem of Slavery in the Age of Emancipation Davis brings his staggeringly ambitious prizewinning trilogy on slavery in Western culture to a close Once again Davis offers original and penetrating insights into what slavery and emancipation meant to Americans He explores how the Haitian Revolution respectively terrified and inspired white and black Americans hovering over the antislavery debates like a bloodstained ghost and he offers a surprising analysis of the complex and misunderstood significance of colonization the project to move freed slaves back to Africa to members of both races and all political persuasions He vividly portrays the dehumanizing impact of slavery as well as the generally unrecognized importance of freed slaves to abolition Most of all Davis presents the age of emancipation as a model for reform and as probably the greatest landmark of willed moral progress in human history This is a monumental and harrowing undertaking following the century of struggle rebellion and warfare that led to the eradication of slavery in the new world An in depth investigation a rigorous colloquy of ideas ranging from Frederick Douglass to Barack Obama from British industrial wage slavery to the Chicago World's Fair The Problem of Slavery in the Age of Emancipation is a brilliant conclusion to one of the great works of American history Above all Davis captures how America wrestled with demons of its own making and moved forward

Represented Brenna Wynn Greer, 2019-07-12 In 1948 Moss Kendrix a former New Deal public relations officer founded a highly successful Washington D C based public relations firm the flagship client of which was the Coca Cola Company As the first black pitchman for Coca Cola Kendrix found his way into the rarefied world of white corporate America His personal phone book also included the names of countless black celebrities such as bandleader Duke Ellington singer actress Pearl Bailey and boxer Joe Louis with whom he had built relationships in the course of developing marketing campaigns for his numerous federal and corporate clients Kendrix along with Ebony publisher John H Johnson and Life photographer Gordon Parks recognized that in the image saturated world of postwar America media in all its forms held greater significance for defining American citizenship than ever before For these imagemakers the visual representation of African Americans as good citizens was good business In Represented Brenna Wynn Greer explores how black entrepreneurs produced magazines photographs and advertising that forged a close association between blackness and Americanness In particular they popularized conceptions of African Americans as enthusiastic consumers a status essential to postwar citizenship claims But their media creations were complicated subject to marketplace dictates they often relied on gender class and family stereotypes Demand for such representations came not only from corporate and government clients to fuel mass consumerism and attract support for national efforts such as the fight against fascism but also from African Americans who sought depictions of blackness to counter racist ideas that undermined their rights and their national belonging as citizens The story of how black capitalists made the market work for racial progress on their way to making money reminds us that the path to civil rights involved commercial endeavors as well as social and political activism

AB Bookman's Weekly ,1991 Colored Memories Susan Curtis,2008 Explores the life of African American Lester A Walton whose illustrious career spanned the first six decades of the twentieth century but who is now forgotten Curtis explores the failure of collective memory and America's obsession with race as she explains how she discovered Walton and his place in history Provided by publisher

The American Novel to 1870 J. Gerald Kennedy,Leland S. Person,2014 The American Revolution and the Civil War bracket roughly eight decades of formative change in a republic created in 1776 by a gesture that was both rhetorical and performative The subsequent construction of U S national identity influenced virtually all art forms especially prose fiction until internal conflict disrupted the project of nation building This volume reassesses in an authoritative way the principal forms and features of the emerging American novel It will include chapters on the beginnings of the novel in the US the novel and nation building the publishing industry leading novelists of Antebellum America eminent early American novels cultural influences on the novel and subgenres within the novel form during this period This book is the first of the three proposed US volumes that will make up Oxford's ambitious new twelve volume literary resource The Oxford History of the Novel in English OHONE a venture being commissioned and administered on both sides of the Atlantic

Correspondences of Canaan Carl Theophilus Odhner,1911 MAWA Review ,1982 Black Routes to Islam M. Marable,2009-08-03 Starting with 19th century narratives of African American travelers to the Holy Land the following chapters probe Islam's role in urban social movements music and popular culture relations between African Americans and Muslim immigrants and the racial politics of American Islam with the ongoing war in Iraq

Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2001 The Chautauquan ,1881 The Oxford History of the Novel in English J. Gerald Kennedy,Leland S. Person,2014-06-26 The Oxford History of the Novel in English is a 12 volume series presenting a comprehensive global and up to date history of English language prose fiction and written by a large international team of scholars The series is concerned with novels as a whole not just the literary novel and each volume includes chapters on the processes of production distribution and reception and on popular fiction and the fictional sub genres as well as outlining the work of major novelists movements traditions and tendencies In thirty four essays this volume reconstructs the emergence and early cultivation of the novel in the United States Contributors discuss precursors to the U S novel that appeared as colonial histories autobiographies diaries and narratives of Indian captivity religious conversion and slavery while paying attention to the entangled literary relations that gave way to a distinctly American cultural identity The Puritan past more than two centuries of Indian wars the American Revolution and the exploration of the West all inspired fictions of American struggle and self discovery A fragmented national publishing landscape comprised of small local presses often disseminating odd experimental forms eventually gave rise to major houses in Boston New York and Philadelphia and a consequently robust culture of letters Dime novels literary magazines innovative print technology and even favorable postal rates contributed to the burgeoning domestic book trade in place by the time of the Missouri Compromise Contributors weigh novelists of this period alongside their most enduring fictional works to reveal how even the most American of novels sometimes confronted the inhuman practices upon which the promise of the new republic had been made to depend Similarly the volume also looks at efforts made to extend American interests into the wider world beyond the nation s borders and it thoroughly documents the emergence of novels projecting those imperial aspirations The Congressional Globe United States.
