The Home Brewer's Recipe Database Les Howarth, 2009-06-25 This is not a recipe book It is a database of ingredient information that should assist the home or craft brewer in creating their own recipes in order to attempt the replication of commercial beers Instructions on how to convert the supplied ingredient information into recipes customised to the brewer's own equipment and technique are provided This book also provides inspiration to brewers wishing to experiment with different ingredients since it gives an interesting insight into how professional brewers have used them in their own brews Finally this book should also be of interest to the discerning beer enthusiast who is curious about what goes into their favourite drink This second edition provides substantially more data than the well received first edition Hand-book in Bee-culture R. Wilkin,1871

Transgression in Swahili Narrative Fiction and its Reception Rémi Armand Tchokothe,2014 This book remarkably analyses the development of recent Swahili prose narrative The main thesis is that since the 90s Swahili literature has developed to go beyond aspects that had hitherto conditioned literature in African languages local popular and didactic and has opened itself to global sophisticated and subversive perspectives Remi Tchokothe uses the leitmotif of transgression as the unifying thread to render an account of this evolution of the Swahili narrative fiction towards the disruption of narrative linearity an increase in intertextual references an awareness of globalisation in political analysis and a shift to magical realism The finishing touch to the analysis is a meticulously conducted reception survey which highlights editorial ambiguities that go with the transgressive turn Xavier Garnier U Sorbonne Nouvelle Paris 3 Series Contributions to Research on Africa Beitrage zur Afrikaforschung Vol 56 A Poetical Translation of the Works Horace,Philip Francis,1779 A Poetical Translation of the Works of Horace. With Notes ... By Philip Francis, D.D. The Ninth Edition, Revised and Corrected Horace,1779 Noémie's novel Garamvölgyi Noémi,2025-07-07 What makes a good autobiographical novel Certainly if it s twisty interesting colourful but is that enough No mi s novel undoubtedly meets all these criteria but it goes further than that much deeper content is revealed to the reader unfolding from the events and situations described which are emotionally charged for the author The book is a combination of 35 years of teaching and 58 years of life experience and is not without humour or everyday human wisdom making it a book that can be enjoyed by almost all ages Kingdom of Italy. Official descriptive catalogue International exhibition, 1862,1862 A Historical Sketch of Johnson County, Indiana David Demaree Banta,1881 Children and Childhoods 3 Katey De Gioia,Peter Whiteman,2014-06-02 Immigrant and Refugee Families is about crossing borders something that many people do every day Crossing borders is not a new endeavour This activity has a protracted history and can be traced back to before the Common Era Sometimes people choose to cross borders perhaps seeking new adventure employment or personal fulfilment Sometimes people are forced to flee their country of origin in an effort to avoid armed conflict or abuse of their human rights The shaping of national policies and the manner in which a nation positions itself on the international stage draw heavily on crossing borders both inward and outward Additionally there exists an obligation to understand relationships with and within immigrant and refugee groups Empowering children and families comprehending and appreciating dynamic connections to cultural heritage and fashioning responsive actions to needs and expectations are at the core of place and identity Immigrant and Refugee Families provides insights into some of the complex issues faced by those who cross borders It invites ongoing discussion around practices of empowering immigrant and refugee children and families when settling into their new country Widening the Frame with Visual Psychological Anthropology Robert Lemelson,Annie Tucker,2021-10-28 This book uses visual psychological anthropology to explore trauma gendered violence and stigma through a discussion of three ethnographic films set in Indonesia 40 Years of Silence Lemelson 2009 Bitter Honey Lemelson 2015 and Standing on the Edge of a Thorn Lemelson 2012 This exploration widens the frame in two senses First it offers an integrative analysis that connects the discrete topics and theoretical concerns of each film to crosscutting themes in Indonesian history society and culture Additionally it sheds light on all that falls outside the literal frame of the screen including the films origins psychocultural and interpersonal dynamics and constraints of deep ongoing collaborations in the field narrative and emotional orientations toward editing participants relationship to their screened image the life of the films after release and the ethics of each stage of filmmaking In doing so the authors widen the frame for psychological anthropology as well advocating for film as a crucial point of engagement for academic audiences and for translational purposes Rich with critical insights and reflections on ethnographic filmmaking this book will appeal to both scholars and students of visual anthropology psychological anthropology and ethnographic methods It also serves as an engrossing companion to three contemporary ethnographic films
